Renovation highlights the 2016 Presque Isle Downs meet

By Emily Shields

Presque Isle Downs and Casino opened the 2016 season on May 22 with a host of renovations that, combined with the track's customary friendly atmosphere, will make it a premiere meet in Pennsylvania. The 100-day meeting runs through Oct. 6, featuring racing Sunday through Thursday. Two Pennsylvania-bred races are carded for each race day, and with the bonuses for winning against open company, opportunities are ample for state-bred runners.

"The trainers really enjoy being here," said Presque Isle's Director of Racing Debbie Howells. "They are always commenting that the people in Erie are so nice." Horsemen will enjoy it even more this year, with a brand new paddock and two new barns highlighting the lengthy list of improvements.

One group benefiting from the changes is the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA), which is getting a new office on the grounds. HBPA's Executive Director Todd Mosteller said, "The first new barn will be complete by the last week of May. The southern end of that barn holds the new HBPA offices and another room that will serve as a multi purpose room and facilitate meetings and services."

Mosteller and Monica Travers, the Assistant Executive Director and the HBPA's representative at Presque Isle, spoke glowingly of the numerous renovation projects at the track. Mosteller said, "In a partnership with Eldorado Resorts, the parent company that owns Presque Isle, we agreed to make capital investments into the paddock, building two new barns, and also adding a new LED big board that goes above the tote board, which allows people to watch races on the big screen. There is going to be a revamped area on the apron that will be enclosed for pari-mutuel wagering and food service to improve the experience for individuals that want to attend in that area."

Travers added, "There are brand new TVs in all the barns to make it easier for horsemen to know when they can bring up horses for races or to watch replays."

The flooring in the new Presque Isle paddock is New Again Rubber Pavers and Tiles, otherwise known as "Keeneland pavers" around the track because they are also installed at Keeneland Racecourse. "They greatly improve safety and air quality," Mosteller said. "They not only keep the dust down, but it is also non slip for horses, so if a horse does go over it provides some sort of cushion."

With the backside expected to be at capacity with 700 stalls, horsemen were filing into the track with their runners for the upcoming meet. The HBPA is there to help and represent trainers and their staff with, "all issues, from the condition book to purse structure, benefits and benevolence," Mosteller said.

"We are the horsemen's liaison for every day-to-day thing they might need," Travers added. "Anyone on the backside, including the grooms, can come to us for help with issues like electrical problems, or what can we do if someone has a toothache? I see up to 40 people a day, and Todd might see closer to 100 people each day."

Presque Isle Downs continued from page 3

Aside from the strong Pennsylvania-bred program, including five state-bred stakes races, Presque Isle is attractive to its trainers for its synthetic Tapeta racing surface. The track will host the $200,000 Presque Isle Mile on September 18, while the $400,000 Presque Isle Masters-G2 the next day highlights the meet. This year will mark the 10th running of the Masters, which produced four horses in nine years to win the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 the same year. Those Breeders' Cup heroines were Informed Decision, Musical Romance, Dubai Majesty and two-time winner Groupie Doll.

"Those are our big nights," said racing secretary Tracie Smith. And she noted it isn't difficult to find big-name horses to run in those races. "The trainers from Kentucky and back East look for the stakes races here because of our surface," she said. "But the surface is so nice to run on that we have so many solid, every day horses out here, the kind that make owners happy by earning money and keeping them in business."

If families can't make the big stakes weekend, they can enjoy Family Night at the Races, which is held every Sunday and Wednesday. "There are $2 cheeseburgers and $1 hot dogs and fries," Smith said. "On those nights the whole family can come out and see the horses without going broke."

The track also added a Brew Brothers Brewery, which is open seven days a week and features not only good food and craft beers, but also live music each weekend. "We think our racing fans will love that offering," Howells said.

While current efforts are focused on increasing attendance and handle, those who work at Presque Isle Downs already feel they are a hit with the horsemen. "Pennsylvania horsemen bring their horses here to run on our Tapeta, rain or shine," Smith said. "You get a really even, unbiased surface here. We have numerous trainers that aim specifically for this meet.

"We like to think 'the more, the merrier,'" Smith added. "We love it when the Pennsylvania horsemen come back because we are a big family here.

We see people come race here, then turn around and breed to Pennsylvania stallions so that they can come back here again to race Pennsylvania-breds. We like to think we're likeable."

"The trainers just enjoy being here," Howells said. "We hope our racing fans will enjoy it, too." ★

A Few Words From the Executive Secretary

A letter was sent to the membership the beginning of May explaining the current hold on fund disbursements and I would like to give you an update on the progress of the breeding fund wording changes.

The Senate has voted 49-0 to approve these changes and it is now gone over to the House of Representatives. We will work with the House and the Department of Agriculture to expedite this so that it can be signed by the Governor as soon as possible.

We understand how important the awards are and we are committed to doing whatever is necessary to hasten the process. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call. Thank you.

PA-Bred colt electrifies Fasig-Tipton Midlantic juvenile sale

A Friesan Fire colt bred in the name of Jim McGreevy's Oxford, Pa.-based Hope Hill Farm worked sensationally at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds in Training sale Under Tack Show, then less than a week later sold spectacularly for $825,000 to J.J. Crupi of Crupi's New Castle Farm for an undisclosed client.

Selling on the second day of the sale, which was conducted on Monday, May 23 and Tuesday, May 24 in the sales pavilion in Timonium, Md., the late-May foal ended up the highest-priced colt of the sale. The colt worked in :10 flat, the co-fastest time for an eighth-mile, at the Under Tack Show, and is on his way to California to join Doug O'Neill's barn.

L.A. Williams

Out of stakes winner Crafty Toast, by Crafty Prospector, the bay is a half-brother to stakes-placed Platinum Steel and Special Ruth, and to the dam of stakes winner Burning It. His year-older full brother, Fire Sparx, got his first win in April at Penn National. The colt's second dam is graded winner Give a Toast.

Bred to Friesan Fire twice, McGreevy sold both colts through agent Bill Reightler at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's Fall Yearling sales. Fire Sparx went for $31,000 in 2014, and David Scanlon made the purchase of the sales star for $35,000 last year. Sent to Florida to the Robert Scanlon Training Center near Williston, Fla., the colt was one of four sold by the Scanlon Training & Sales consignment at the May sale. ★

PA-BREDS SURPASS AVERAGE AND MEDIAN AT FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC MAY 2-YEAR-OLD SALE

Propelled by the $825,000 Pennsylvania-bred Friesan Fire colt, PA-Breds sold for an average of $91,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds in Training sale held May 23 and 24 in Timonium, nearly 33 percent higher than the sale's overall average of $68,654. And the PA-Bred median of $40,000 was significantly higher than that for the sale ($32,000).

In addition to the top-priced colt (see writeup on page 8), 13 other PA-Bred juveniles sold. The top-priced filly, by Pennsylvania stallion Weigelia, who stands at WynOaks Farm in Delta, sold for $70,000.

Bred by WynOaks Farm LLC and St. Omers Farm, the filly is out of the stakes-placed Gentlemen (Arg) mare Gentlemen's Locket, a half-sister to five-time stakes winner Lexi Star from the family of millionaire Silmaril and additional graded stakes winners Kattergat's Pride and Chip. The filly sold as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic October sale for $6,000 to Grassroots Training & Sales, which was her consignor in May.

The buyer was bloodstock agent Dennis O'Neill, who picked out Nyquist and many other top runners who were eventually sent to his brother, two-time Kentucky Derby-winning trainer Doug O'Neill. O'Neill was also instrumental in selecting the top-priced Friesan Fire colt at the sale. ★

IN MEMORIAM: PHILLIP F.N. FANNING

Philip Ford Nieu Kirk Fanning, a long time resident of Unionville, passed away on May 6 at Neighborhood Hospice in West Chester, Pa., after a brief illness. He was 92.

Born in Philadelphia, he served in World War II and was awarded a Purple Heart. After returning home, Phil attended Princeton University where he was a member the Ivy Club. In racing circles he was well-known for his Ivy Dell Stud in Unionville, which turned out numerous stakes performers for decades.

An avid fox hunter, Fanning scored one of his greatest riding accomplishments by winning the 1958 Maryland Hunt Cup aboard Ned's Flying.

A longtime member of the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Fanning was represented by one of the best horses bred by his Ivy Dell Stud in the twilight of his career as a breeder. Great Hunter, a son of Aptitude born in 2004, was the richest PA-Bred runner of 2006 and got the nod as state-bred champion 2-year-old that year in a crop that included Hard Spun. The dark bay colt was campaigned by Paul Reddam, who bought him privately after his second start, and trained by Doug O'Neill. During his championship season he won or placed in all seven of his starts, and counted a victory in the Grade 1 Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland in track record time for a mile and a sixteenth. Ivy Dell Stud was honored by the Thoroughbred Times as one of the top 10 breeders in North America for 2006.

Ivy Dell Stud was also the first represented as the breeder of two winners of Maryland Million races, when homebred half-sisters Gold Glove (1987) and Oh My Pride (1988) won the Maryland Million Ladies and Oaks, respectively.

Fanning started to cut back on his breeding operation in 2006, and among the mares he sold in January 2006 was Zenith, a daughter of Roy he purchased in November 2001 for $150,000 who went on to produce Great Hunter and his year-younger stakes-placed half-sister Glitzen Glory. Zenith brought $30,000 in foal to Golden Missile; in November 2007 she sold at the Keeneland November sale for $750,000.

Fanning continued to race on a small scale in recent years, with his multiple stakes-placed Athelstane, bred by Russell Jones and purchased by Fanning as a yearling in 2012, running as recently as this past April.

Stakes Schedule for PA-Breds offers $2.2 million in 2016

Due to the quarantine at Parx Racing that wasn't lifted until mid-May, the Foxy J. G. and Lyman Stakes, originally set to run on May 14, were rescheduled and will now be contested on Saturday, June 4.

Lyphard Stakes

The Lyphard at Penn National on Saturday, May 28 was the first PA-Bred stakes of 2016. A full field of 12 was entered in the test for fillies and mares, 3 & up, with the winners of the past two runnings—Lenape Rim (2014) and Royal Renege (2015)—among the starters, as well as last year's PA-Bred champion 3-year-old filly R Frosty One. The winner was longshot Devilwentogeorgia, who got her first stakes win in her 19th career start.

A 5-year-old daughter of Devil His Due bred by Samantha E. Kamen and the Devil His Due Syndicate, the mare last visited the winner's circle in September 2014. Owned by In To Win Racing LLC and trained by Eduardo Rojas, Devilwentogeorgia battled and bumped with Rock Me Again all the way down the stretch before scoring by a neck at odds of 46-1 and rewarding her backers $95 for the win. The gray/roan mare is the first foal, and only stakes performer, for the Wolf Power (SAf) mare Stitznwolf.

The 2016 PA-Bred stakes schedule has a total of 22 stakes, each worth $100,000, for a total distribution of $2.2 million.

RUSSIAN RHYTHM

2000, by Kingmambo—Balistroika, by Nijinsky II. Bred by Brushwood Stable. Owned by Cheveley Park Stud. Trained by Sir Michael R. Stoute.

Special from the start, Russian Rhythm spent only the first few months of her life in Pennsylvania. It was in England where she made her home, and became a star.

Foaled at Betty Moran's Brushwood Stable in Malvern, the chestnut filly was destined to head across the Atlantic as a daughter of top international sire and Group 1-winning miler Kingmambo and the Brushwood homebred Balistroika, a daughter of Nijinsky II and Balidaress (Ire), the dam of four European champions and/or Group 1 winners.

Brushwood sold the filly as a weanling in 2000 at Keeneland for $370,000. She made her way to England and as a yearling was purchased by Cheveley Park Stud at the Tattersalls Houghton sale at Newmarket for the U.S. equivalent of $678,770. That price proved to be a bargain.

Trained by Sir Michael Stoute, the filly won her first three starts at 2, two in group company, and ironically—in her only loss that season—finished second in the Group 1 Cheveley Park Stakes.

Russian Rhythm became a classic winner at 3, taking the one-mile English One Thousand Guineas-G1 at Newmarket when coming from 18th place to get up for the win. Among those she defeated were champions Six Perfections (Fr), Intercontinental (GB), Soviet Song (Ire) and Yesterday (Ire). In her next outing she captured the Coronation Stakes-G1 at Royal Ascot while again defeating Soviet Song. In her first start against older mares, she captured the Nassau Stakes-G1 at Goodwood.

Her only outing at 4 was the final start of her career, a dominating score as the favorite in the Group 1 Lockinge Stakes at Newbury, which drew a 15-horse field that included the previous year's Two Thousand Guineas-G1 winner Refuse to Bend (Ire). It was the first time a filly won the race in 20 years.

Russian Rhythm's career was cut short by a training injury and she was retired to the Cheveley Park Stud broodmare band. She was rated the highweighted filly at 3 in England as a miler (7 to 9 1/2 furlongs) and from 9 1/2 furlongs to 11 furlongs. In 10 career starts she won seven times, was second twice and earned $1,260,794, which at the time ranked her ninth on the all-time Pennsylvania-bred earners list. She currently is 15th on the list.

Russian Rhythm produced six foals at Cheveley Park before she succumbed to colic in August 2014 at age 14. To date, none of her foals have come close to her accomplishments, her only stakes performer the 2007 Pivotal filly Safina, who placed in a minor stakes. Her last foal, now 3, is the Dansili filly Russian Finale, who has yet to start.

But what Russian Rhythm meant to her connections was expressed by Cheveley Park Stud's managing director Chris Richardson, who told the Racing Post after her death: "She was a terrific race mare, probably the best filly [stud owners] Mr. and Mrs. [David] Thompson had ever raced. Thankfully we have five fillies to continue her legacy." Her two oldest daughters are already stakes producers.

PA STALLION DIRECTORY & BOARDING FARM DIRECTORY NOW AVAILABLE

The fourth edition of the Pennsylvania Stallion Directory, featuring photos and statistics on Pennsylvania stallions as well as a directory of farms offering boarding and foaling of mares, is available online as well as at the offices of the PHBA.

The directory is a great resource for planning 2016 matings and making foaling arrangements. Opportunities for PA-Breds remain as strong as ever with more than $30 million is paid annually in PA-Bred awards, purses and bonuses at the three tracks across the state. Those tracks offer 450 days of racing, with 450 races restricted to PA-Breds!

More than half of Pennsylvania's annual foal crop are by Pennsylvania stallions, and are thus eligible to earn Breeder Awards worth 30 percent of the purse in all Pennsylvania races through third place.

To get a copy of the directory, contact the PHBA office (610) 444-1050 or download by clicking here. *
