Banjo Picker enters Parx Racing Hall of Fame

By Nikki Sherman

The majority of horse races in the country are for claimers, but that doesn't stop every horseman from fantasizing that their next claim will become a champion. While not every horse will transform from a $50,000 claim to a $5.2 million-earner—like 2015 National Museum of Racing & Hall of Fame inductee Lava Man—every once in awhile a dream will come true.

Perhaps the greatest claim in the history of Philadelphia Park occurred when Banjo Picker changed hands on Aug. 21, 2004, after trainer Steve Krebs claimed the gelding for $15,000 on behalf of owner Danny Limongelli. Banjo Picker would go on to become one of the most consistent and longest-lasting Pennsylvania-Bred sprinters of all time.

"We were interested in him because he was a PA-Bred," remembers Krebs. "We were always looking for PA-Breds. We never thought he would become what he became, but that's what interested us the most. We always paid more attention to the PA-Breds running here at Philly Park."

Banjo Picker rewarded his new connections by winning six of his next 10 starts, including three straight in the fall of 2004 and winter of 2005.

"I didn't know he would be the way he was until we had run him 2-3 times, and then I said 'wow, maybe we have something special here,'" Krebs said. "[I thought he had a chance as a stakes horse] after he won the two other than. The way he did it, I said we could probably win a little PA stake with this horse. The next year we targeted our first stake, which we did end up winning."

That hard-fought stretch run in the $50,000 Lyman Sprint Championship became a trademark of Banjo Picker, who nearly always was right there when the leaders hit the wire. The biggest victory of his career was by less than a head as he led gate to wire in the $100,000 Gravesend Handicap-G3 at Aqueduct.

"He just seemed to know where the wire was," notes Krebs. "The Gravesend was classic Banjo Picker: here comes a horse up the inside; here comes a horse on the outside. Then just as somebody tries to pass him, he comes back. Funny thing about that is I was watching it down in the trainer's lounge at Aqueduct and I was screaming and hollering. Billy Turner was there—from Seattle Slew fame—and they were all laughing at me. When they hit the wire, I ran out—I thought I won, and I got halfway down the hallway—then I came running back and I said, 'Did I win it? Did I win it?' They were just hysterically laughing. Of course, he was the winner!"

Banjo Picker would go on to win nearly $650,000 over 52 career starts and, in addition to the Gravesend Handicap and Lyman Sprint Championship, captured consecutive runnings of the Devil's Honor Handicap as well as the Le Grande Pos Handicap and Power by Far Handicap. He was crowned Older Horse of the Year twice at Philadelphia Park and became a favorite among horsemen.

"He was a very, very intelligent horse and just a pleasure to train. He made everyone around him look good," Krebs admits. "Tara Hemmings, who rode him in all of his races, galloped him every morning. He would go out to the track to train and he would stand on the rail for a half hour, 45 minutes every day watching other horses go by."

When it was time for Banjo Picker to retire from racing, his connections decided to give the gelding a new job that would utilize his intelligence as well as his enthusiasm for the track. After a short break at the farm, Banjo Picker returned to Philadelphia Park as a pony, where he taught youngsters about racing in the Krebs' barn. Every once in awhile, Hemmings would let him stretch his legs and gallop around the track by himself, which would in turn send rumors rippling through the backstretch as horsemen wondered whether he would return to racing.

In September of 2012, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association held the inaugural Banjo Picker Sprint Stakes during their annual Pennsylvania's Day at the Races. Banjo Picker and Hemmings were given the honor of leading the post parade for the $75,000 race.

Krebs remembers the pageantry fondly. "That was so special when he led the post parade. A cool little story is that year, trainer Marty Ciresa had a horse in the [Banjo Picker Sprint Stakes] and before he put his rider up, he came out to the walking ring and rubbed Banjo's forelock for luck. His horse Sloane Ranger then won the race!"

On Sept. 17, 2016, Banjo Picker became just the fifth Pennsylvania-Bred to be inducted into the Parx Racing Hall of Fame, joining an elite group of horses that includes Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes hero Smarty Jones, Pennsylvania Derby winner Devil's Honor, near-millionaire Whistle Pig, and warhorse Win Man. Ironically, both Banjo Picker and Whistle Pig were bred by Mrs. Elizabeth R. Houghton.

Upon learning of Banjo Picker's induction into the Parx Racing Hall of Fame, owner Limongelli was both floored and ecstatic. "Oh my God, what a great feeling!" he said. "For me it's great because I've been doing this for 30 years. He was one of the best I've ever had."

"Mr. Limongelli always wanted to make sure that he had a good home when it was time to retire," said Krebs. "That's where Barbara Luna stepped up to the plate."

Banjo Picker now resides at Luna's War Horses at Rose Bower in Appomattox, Va., where he has been retrained as a Western Pleasure horse and is also a pasture mate for some of the older residents.

"Banjo Picker arrived here two years ago at the age of 14. He is very big, but is classy enough to have beginners work around him, lead him, and brush him," noted Luna. "That just goes to show the class of a PA-Bred Champion like him!" ■

A Letter From the Executive Secretary

Early in September we held Pennsylvania's Day at the Races at Parx, where we saw some incredible PA-Bred stakes winners. I was excited to see so many PHBA members—comprised of both breeders and owners—come together to celebrate our PA-breds and breeding program, despite the political turmoil in regards to breeder awards.

We hope to continue the high spirits and good luck from Pennsylvania's Day at the Races into the fall months for broodmare domicile.

As a reminder, broodmares must be in the state by Nov. 1, or within 14 days of a sale. Previously the deadline was Oct. 1, so please make note of this change. Coinciding with the new dates, broodmare domicile reports must be submitted to the PHBA by Nov. 15.

Forms can be found online at www.pabred.com/forms. It would be greatly appreciated if you can fill out and submit the form online. If you are unable to submit the form online, you may either print out a report and mail it in, or let us know and we'll mail a copy to you.

PA Breeder Richard Wukich along with Carmen Shick meet with House Representative Tedd Nesbit in reference to Pennsylvania thoroughbred breeding issues. We thank Representative Nesbit for his continued interest in the breeding industry and for taking the time to meet with the breeders.

PA-Breds Shine at Pennsylvania's Day at the Races

By Devon Smith

Despite the cloudy skies from Hurricane Hermine, PA-Breds shone at Parx Sept. 3. The 16th annual Pennsylvania's Day at the Races kicked off Parx's fall season after their three-week-long break. The action-packed card featured over $800,000 in purses, including five restricted stakes races, and showcased over 80 PA-Breds that turned for home. Also included was the newly-added open stakes, the $150,000 Princess of Sylmar for 3-year-old fillies.

The Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association celebrated Pennsylvanian breeders, owners, and trainers with a buffet lunch, complete with a private third floor view of the track. Also present was PTHA's Turning for Home—a 501(c)(3) non-profit that provides Thoroughbred racehorses with safe retirement. Guests had the chance to enter a raffle to win a basket filled with Turning for Home swag, as well as baskets from a Kennett Square winery and golf course—both local to the PHBA.

Additionally, owners, trainers and breeders of the stakes-winning PA-Breds were invited to join PHBA's Executive Secretary Brian Sanfratello and Racing/Stallion Manager Wendi Graham in the Hall of Fame Room for a champagne toast to celebrate. Stakes winners received a PHBA duffel bag for both the owner and trainer and an engraved shank for the winning PA-Bred—both of which were presented by a PHBA Board Member in the winner's circle. Stakes participants all received a PHBA Patagonia backpack, filled with pint glasses and leather coasters, while overnight participants received a PHBA tote bag filled with a blanket, hat and tumbler.

Among the 11 races on the program was the $100,000 Banjo Picker, a 6-furlong sprint for horses 3 & up. The winner was A Fleet Attitude, ridden by Frankie Pennington. The 6-year-old gelding by Afleet Alex, bred by Charles Zacney and Tim Ritchey, is owned by Morris Kernan Jr., and is trained by Marcos Zulueta. He won by a half-length after a battle with Purcell late in the stretch. This year PHBA had welcomed co-breeder Charles Zacney to their annual Iroquois Awards Banquet as the guest speaker for the event. Zacney is a partner in Cash is King LLC, which owns Cathryn Sophia, winner of the Princess of Sylmar Stakes, and A Fleet Attitude's sire, Afleet Alex.

Zacney wasn't the only person who celebrated twice – Pennington also won the \$100,000 Roanoke Stakes with Kobel, a 5-year-old dark bay gelding by Sequoyah. Bred by Donald Clifford Wilson, owned by Richard Malouf, and trained by Scott Lake, Kobel was a front-runner throughout the 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ miles, leaving betting favorite Res Judicata to settle for second.

In a different turn of events, Valued Strike overtook front-runner Persnickity mid-stretch in the $100,000 Mrs. Penny Stakes for fillies and mares. Jockey Trevor McCarthy pushed the 4-year-old Smart Strike filly to victory, making her 5-for-9 in her career starts. Although they weren't at Parx, breeder and owner George Strawbridge Jr. (Augustin Stable) and trainer H. Graham Motion celebrated their stakes-winning filly from afar.

Trainer Michael Lerman and friends were there to take in the excitement when 4-year-old filly Black Mission Fig won the $100,000 Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial Stakes with Paco Lopez in the irons. The Fusaichi Pegasus filly, bred and owned by Gold Square LLC, made her first start at Parx on PA Day at the Races and will hopefully be back to race more after such a favorable upset against even-money Disco Chick.

Lerman, along with friends, joined PHBA staff in the Hall of Fame Room after celebrating in the winner's circle. Along with them was Dr. Teresa Garofalo's brother, Ted Vanderlaan. The Garofalo Stakes is a particularly special one to the PHBA—Garofalo was the treasurer on the board before she passed away in 2010 from acute myeloid leukemia. She was a joyful, loving and generous woman who owned an equine practice in Chester County, focusing on racehorses and equine reproduction; therefore, she was very close to the PA-Bred community. As Vanderlaan raised his glass, he said that Teresa would be very proud.

The last stakes winner of the day was, appropriately, Winning the Medal in the $100,000 Marshall Jenney Handicap, in a blanket finish despite starting the 5-furlong sprint breaking from an outside post. The Medallist gelding is living up to his pedigree, with the Jenney being his first stakes win—bringing his lifetime earnings up to $195,725. Breeder and owner Rick Molineaux (R&L Racing), trainer Patricia Farro and jockey Emmanuel Esquivel accepted the trophy.

After Winning the Medal's victory, Molineaux headed up to the Hall of Fame Room with his wife, daughter, and two granddaughters. As he popped open the champagne and clinked glasses with everyone in the room, he pulled a Smarty Jones button out of his shirt pocket. He held it up and said that his granddaughter gave it to him before the start of the race. He recalled her saying, "It will bring you good luck!" And it did just that. Sanfratello joked that Molineaux will have to bring the button to every race now—and he said he'd be sure he would. ■

SIX-FIGURE PA-BRED YEARLINGS AT KEENELAND

Brushwood Stable's Malibu Moon filly out of Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic-G1 winner Unrivaled Belle brought the top price of all PA-Bred offerings at this year's Keeneland September Yearling sale. North Hills Co. Ltd. went $550,000 on the opening day of the sale, Sept. 12, for the chestnut filly, the third foal out of the daughter of Unbridled's Song who earned $1,854,706 while winning or placing in nine graded stakes. The second dam is multiple graded winner Queenie Belle.

Shadai Farm paid $300,000 for another Brushwood Stable youngster, a Tapit filly out of Storm Cat's daughter Wile Cat. The gray filly is a half-sister to Group 3 winner and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint-placed Shumoos; her second dam multiple Grade 1 winner Strategic Maneuver.

A total of seven PA-Breds brought six figures. Others hitting the mark were (with breeder and buyer):

$230,000. Bay colt by Paynter—Lady Pomeroy, by Pomeroy; Whysper Wynd Farm LLC; Martin Anthony.

$180,000. Chestnut colt, Curlin—Thrill Seeker, by Housebuster;

Pewter Stable; Repole Stable/J.J. Crupi, Agent.

$160,000. Dark Bay or Brown filly, Scat Daddy—Randie's Legend, by Benchmark; HnR Nothhaft Horseracing LLC; Jim & Susan Hill.

$105,000. Chestnut colt, Giant's Causeway—Silky Smooth, by Mr. Greeley; Chadds Ford Stable LLC; Woodford Sales.

$100,000. Bay colt, Medaglia d'Oro—Laughing Lashes, by Mr. Greeley; Brushwood Stable; Kerri Radcliffe (Agent). ■

BULLSBAY LEADING PENNSYLVANIA 2-YEAR-OLD SIRE

Northview PA's third-crop sire Bullsbay is the state's leading juvenile sire by earnings and number of stakes winners through late September. The Grade 1-winning son of Tiznow has six starters from 11 foals in his current crop of 2-year-olds—two are stakes winners.

Greatbullsoffire, out of the Great Notion mare Great Hostess, captured the Strike Your Colors Stakes at Delaware Park in his stakes debut on Aug. 4, and returned to finish third in the Laurel Futurity. Bred in Maryland by Sycamore Hall Thoroughbreds and owned by Kathleen Willier, Greatbullsoffire has two wins and a second in three starts, for earnings of $67,140.

Michael Sterling's West Virginia homebred Unrideabull, out of And Nobody Knows, by Colonial Affair, is undefeated in two starts after taking the Henry Mercer Memorial Stakes at Charles Town on Sept. 17 by six lengths.

Bullsbay has 48 foals of racing age in his first three crops. Of his 32 starters, five are stakes performers, four who won or placed in stakes at 2. His 2-year-old runners this year have earned $137,253 to date. ■

PA-Bred Stakes Recaps at Presque Isle Downs and Parx Racing

The 2016 PA-Bred stakes schedule has a total of 22 stakes, each worth $100,000, for a total distribution of $2.2 million.

Go to the Pennsylvania tracks' websites for the stakes books and to nominate.

Mark McDermott Stakes

For the fourth time in five years, The Elkstone Group won the Mark McDermott Stakes with a homebred. But this year was the first time with a filly. Diamond Dollar, one of two fillies in the seven-horse field, turned away the boys to win by one and a quarter lengths on Sept. 4 in her stakes debut.

Diamond Dollar, first or second in her previous three starts, went off as the luke-warm 5-2 choice. The Ron Potts-trainee broke her maiden in her prior start by five and a half lengths, setting every fraction of a six and a half-furlong Presque Isle maiden special weight. Shortened up for the Mark McDermott, she bided her time behind early leaders Sixers City and Get Sassy (the other filly in the race) before angling out and reeling in Sixers City, who had shaken off Get Sassy and had a clear lead in the stretch.

A daughter of Not For Love, Diamond Dollar is out of graded stakes winner Ruby Rubles, a daughter of Scarlet Ibis who won Aqueduct's Bed o' Roses Breeders' Cup Handicap-G3 in 2000. Ruby Rubles was purchased by Stuart Grant's The Elkstone Group from an Adena Springs sale in 2003 for $43,000, but for the next decade had a spotty production record. Her first live foal was born in 2006—the filly named Chelsea Barton became a stakes-placed winner.

Total: $2,200,000

PA-Bred Stakes Recaps: Presque Isle Downs and Parx Racing

Ruby Rubles has had five foals of racing age since, all of them winners. The mare produced a son of Not For Love in 2015, a filly by Street Boss this year, and was bred to Discreetly Mine for 2017.

The Elkstone Group's previous McDermott winners were Pitch N Roll (2012), Duff (2014) and Balk (2015).

Mrs. Henry D. Paxson Memorial Stakes

Tulsa Queen picked a perfect time to record her first win—surprising four others as the longest shot on the board in the Mrs. Henry D. Paxson Memorial Stakes for 2-year-old fillies on Sept. 18. And not only did she win, she won big, scoring by more than five lengths.

Bred and owned by Anne L. Walsh and trained by her son Ryan Walsh, Tulsa Queen tried three times to break her maiden, all at Presque Isle, since July. The daughter of Cactus Ridge hit the board each time, but her rallies would come up short. In the six-furlong Paxson, she again trailed early, but caught up quickly and by the time she hit the top of the stretch she had the lead and drew off steadily. Among those finishing behind was odds-on Diamond Dollar.

Tulsa Queen is the only stakes winner from three named foals for her dam Hot Touch (by Touch Gold) and the mare's first live foal since 2008.

Alphabet Soup Handicap

It seemed just a matter of time before Granny's Kitten would break through with a stakes win, and it came on Sept. 24 at Parx in the Alphabet Soup Handicap. Ken and Sarah Ramsey's homebred Kitten's Joy colt was all out to get it done, digging down in the stretch to win by a neck over early leader I'll Call.

Sent off the favorite in the field of 10 for the mile and a sixteenth turf stakes, Granny's Kitten came in off three consecutive stakes-placings, the most recent a third behind Edge of Reality and Raging Market in the Robellino Stakes. The promising colt had routinely faced graded stakes company earlier in his career, and has been a model of consistency this year, and comes from a family of turf stakes horses.

Out of Granny Franny (by Grand Slam), Granny's Kitten is a full brother to Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Stakes-G1 winner Kitten's Dumplings, who won seven stakes in all and nearly $800,000, and stakes winner and graded stakes-placed Granny Mc's Kitten, an earner of $342,371. Granny's Kitten, who has now earned $342,371 in 14 starts, was foaled in Pennsylvania when Granny Franny was sent to be bred to Diamond B Farm stallion Talent Search, who was campaigned by the Ramseys. Unfortunately Granny Franny didn't produce a foal the next season.

Blasts From The Past

MRS. PENNY

1977, by Great Nephew—Tananarive (GB), by *Le Fabuleux. Bred by Derry Meeting Farm. Owned by Eric Kronfeld. Trained by Ian Balding and Thomas J. Skiffington.

Mrs. Penny symbolized the rapidly escalating quality of Pennsylvania's breeding industry when she blazed to glory as England's champion 2-year-old filly of 1979. If given the customary allowance for her sex, she outranked topweighted Monteverdi (a son of Lyphard) on the 1979 English Tote Free Handicap, having been assigned 131 pounds to his 133.

Mrs. Penny was bred by Marshall Jenney, who purchased her dam Tananarive (GB), by *Le Fabuleux, for $27,000 in the fall of 1976 in France, with Mrs. Penny in utero. Consigned by Jenney's Derry Meeting to the 1978 Saratoga sale, Mrs. Penny was sold on a bid of $40,000 by New York attorney Eric Kronfeld in the name of Maverick Productions. She ultimately proved priceless as both a runner and a broodmare.

First or second in five of her six starts at 2, Mrs. Penny won the William Hill Cheveley Park Stakes-G1, Lowther Stakes-G3 and Cherry Hinton Stakes-G3 that season while racing exclusively in England. She branched out at 3, winning the Prix de Diane de Revlon (French Oaks)-G1 and Prix Vermeille-G1 in France, and was third in her only start in Ireland in the Irish One Thousand Guineas-G1. Her efforts in England that year included a second in the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond Stakes-G1 and a third in the One Thousand Guineas-G1. She earned honors as champion 3-year-old in England and Ireland and was the second-highweighted 3-year-old filly in France.

The blaze-faced chestnut filly returned to the U.S. during her 4-year-old season, her first start the inaugural running of the invitation only Arlington Million, the first-ever million dollar race for Thoroughbreds. She finished seventh behind winner John Henry, and was second in the Manhattan Handicap at Belmont Park next out. She recorded her sole victory in Meadowlands' Grade 3 Queen Charlotte Handicap. She was retired at the end of that year with a record of six wins (all stakes), five seconds and two thirds from 22 starts, and earnings of $689,609.

Mrs. Penny produced nine named foals, all starters, among them stakes winners Northern Park—one of the final two foals by the incomparable Northern Dancer who sold for $2.8 million as a yearling at Keeneland— and Mrs. Jenney, and Italian classic-placed Penny's Valentine. Her descendants include Grade 1-winning PA-Breds Unaccounted For, Mrs. Lindsay and Dame Dorothy and French classic-placed Mr. Owen, as well as Japanese Group 1 winner Curren Black Hill. Mrs. Penny produced her final foal in 1996, a son of Woodman named Hand Crafted, who was unplaced in two starts. ■
