Mor Spirit: From Pennsylvania to Kentucky via California

By Emily Shields

Stuart Grant is frank, charismatic, and cheerfully calls Mor Spirit the “most humbling animal I’ve ever had.”

“I love him, and I’m rooting for him, of course, but I sold him for $85,000,” Grant lamented. “He’s worth a few million now.”

Pennsylvania-bred Mor Spirit has spent the last seven months striding towards a run at the Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands on the first Saturday in May. The Bob Baffert-trainee, who is now owned by Michael Lund Petersen, arrived at Churchill Downs in late April following a second-place effort as the favorite in the $1 million Santa Anita Derby-G1.

While Grant has had his share of stakes success, watching a horse like Mor Spirit is both gratifying and frustrating. The Brooklyn native, who grew up to be a Delaware-based attorney, always liked horses, but didn’t buy one until 2002. “We did it because we could,” Grant said, crediting the tolerance of his wife, who allowed him to chase his dreams. “The very worst thing that could have happened, happened,” he said. “We claimed a horse and won a few races. Never base a decision on a sample size of one.”

In just a decade, Grant’s racing banner Elkstone Group LLC had 200 head of horses and owned three farms either whole or in part. “It’s a significant breeding and racing operation,” Grant said.

Grant is quick to point out the joint effort behind the mating that produced Mor Spirit. “The cross itself was a team approach,” he said. “My bloodstock guy Clark Shepherd has a magic system ranking the stallions that are in my price range, and Bev Grovert in Paris, Ky., talks to me about physicals. I ultimately make the decision based on their input and my own gut feelings.”

The son of Eskendereya—Im a Dixie Girl, by Dixie Union, was born April 1, 2013, at Derry Meeting Farm in Cochranville. He was originally slated to go through the auction ring at the Fasig-Tipton July sale, but turned up lame the morning of the sale after kicking his stall wall. Grant was forced to wait until the Fasig-Tipton October Sale, where Mor Spirit brought over $100,000 less than his breeder had hoped. Just five months later, he was resold as a juvenile at the Fasig-Tipton March Sale of Two Year Olds in Training for $650,000.

After finishing his schooling via Baffert’s Santa Anita barn, Mor Spirit was well regarded before his debut. Traffic trouble kept him from breaking his maiden first out in a six and a half-furlong sprint for juveniles. He finished second, well ahead of the third place finished Urlacher. Mor Spirit met that rival again in his second start, but after the two briefly dueled Mor Spirit kicked clear to win the one-mile contest by 4¼ lengths while Urlacher finished 8¼ lengths clear of the third place finisher.

In his stakes debut, Mor Spirit finished second behind Airoforce in the \$200,000 Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes-G2, a race often sought after by trainers seeking to gauge how their juveniles might handle the quirky dirt surface at Churchill Downs. Mo Tom and Gun Runner, both considered as strong Kentucky Derby contenders, finished third and fourth in the 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ -mile race.

Despite the presence of his three-time stakes-winning stablemate Toews On Ice, Mor Spirit went off favored in the \$350,000 Los Alamitos Futurity-G1. The historic 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ -mile race, formerly the Hollywood Futurity, has produced six Kentucky Derby winners from its starters, including Real Quiet and Giacomo in the last two decades. Other recent standout Futurity graduates include Preakness winners Oxbow and Lookin At Lucky. Trainer Baffert had already won the race seven times.

Mor Spirit settled back second last in a field of seven, then offered what has become his signature grinding drive to get up and secure Baffert his eighth win in the race by 1 $\frac{1}{4}$  lengths over Toews On Ice, who was six lengths ahead of the third place runner. Although Mor Spirit hadn't done enough to wrestle away the Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old from Nyquist, his accomplishments earned him a place on many early Derby watch lists.

In his sophomore debut, the $150,345 Robert B. Lewis Stakes-G3, Mor Spirit closed doggedly in the lane to eventually clear runner up Uncle Lino and win. He has not won since, but added two solid second place efforts to his resume in the $400,345 San Felipe Stakes-G2 and Santa Anita Derby. He arrived in Kentucky with three wins and four seconds in seven starts and earnings of $658,400.

Although Grant no longer has a say in Mor Spirit's career, he does still own the horse's dam, Im a Dixie Girl. The graded stakes-placed mare had already produced the $235,115-earner Sheikinator, and foaled another Eskendereya colt just a month ago. "People keep asking me what he's like, and if he's good," Grant explained. "I couldn't tell you that Mor Spirit was going to be a Derby horse as a yearling, and his brother is just a few days old!" Im a Dixie Chick is booked to American Pharoah for 2016.

Grant believes strongly in the Pennsylvania breeding program. "I love the program," he said, "it's great. You can get breeding bonuses in other states, but Pennsylvania has more restricted races both on the stakes and maiden special levels. Then in the open races you still run for a 40 percent bonus. It's phenomenal."★

A Few Words From the Executive Secretary

It's that time again! On the first Saturday in May the most exciting race of the year will take place. Will Pennsylvania have bred another Kentucky Derby winner? Will it be the Elkstone Group's Mor Spirit or Blackstone Farm's Tom's Ready? We wish both connections the best of luck. What's great about breeding is that you never know if you'll be the next person in that coveted winner's circle.

It's not too late to pick your next champion and share in one of the best breeding programs in the country. Go to our website and view or download a copy of our 2016 Stallion and Boarding Farm Directory or give us a call for a free copy.

Don't forget about our Annual Membership Meeting at the Kennett Square CC on May 18th @ 4 p.m. and mark your calendar for our Awards Banquet, 5 p.m. on June 24th at The Hotel Hershey.

Kentucky Derby Doings— PA-Breds now at Churchill Downs

Kentucky Derby hopefuls Mor Spirit and Tom's Ready have arrived at Churchill Downs to prepare for the classic. Both colts are firmly seated on the Kentucky Derby leaderboard—Mor Spirit (bred by The Elkstone Group LLC), ranked eighth with 84 points, and Tom's Ready with 44 points.

Michael Lund Petersen's Mor Spirit arrived in Louisville on April 22 and galloped over the main track on April 24. The Bob Baffert trainee has raced exclusively in graded stakes company this year, with a win and two seconds, most recently placing in the Santa Anita Derby-G1.

Tom's Ready, bred by Blackstone Farm LLC, has also raced exclusively in graded stakes this year, his most recent effort resulting in a second-place finish in the Louisiana Derby-G2. The dark bay son of More Than Ready owned by G M B Racing is trained by Dallas Stewart, who prepared longshots Golden Soul and Commanding Curve to second-place finishes in the Derby in 2013 and 2014.

PA-Bred Graded Stakes Winner: Finest City

Finest City, a 4-year-old daughter of City Zip, recorded her first stakes win in graded company when taking the Great Lady M Stakes-G2 at Los Alamitos on April 23. Owned by Seltzer Thoroughbreds, she rallied four wide around the turn in the six and a half-furlong main track test and drew off to win by a length and a quarter. Her final time of 1:14.48 was a new track record.

The filly was the first starter for her trainer Ian Kruljac last summer, and is the first graded stakes winner bred by Hank Nothhaft's HnR Nothhaft Horseracing LLC, which the racing stable noted on its Facebook page. Nothhaft purchased Finest City's dam, Be Envied (by Lemon Drop Kid), with the future graded stakes winner in utero, spending $37,000 at the 2011 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. Finest City was sold for $50,000 as a weanling at Keeneland the following November, and went back through the sales ring as a yearling at Keeneland in September, where her current owners spent $85,000 to take her home.

Nothhaft still owns two of Finest City's half-sisters: the 3-year-old Move (by his late stallion Silver Train, who stood at Northview PA his final seasons in the U.S.) and 2-year-old Grand Prix, a daughter of Tale of the Cat who didn't reach her reserve when offered at Keeneland as a weanling and yearling.

Finest City was unraced at 2 and, after overcoming a variety of injuries and a number of layoffs, broke her maiden in her second start, and her first for Ian Kruljac, at Del Mar last August. She won in allowance company two months later, and got her first black-type when second, missing by a head, in the Grade 2 Santa Monica Stakes in her first start this year. From 10 lifetime starts, Finest City has earned $275,594 with three wins, three seconds and a third.

JET AWAY JANE GONE

Ted and Robin Stepanoff have reported that their 2008 Pennsylvania champion older mare Jet Away Jane passed away due to complications from colic on the morning of Friday April 22. She was 13.

Campaigned in the name of the Stepanoffs' Golden Oak Farms, Jet Away Jane was the second stakes winner to descend from the first mare the couple ever owned, Ack's First Step. Purchased in 1991 from longtime Pennsylvania breeder Paul Labe for $1,500, Ack's First Step (by Ack Kerala) came with a free breeding season to Labe's stallion Beyond the Mint. The resulting foal, the first bred by the Stepanoffs, was Mints First Star, the dam of Jet Away Jane.

Jet Away Jane, a foal of 2003 by Unbridled Jet, was incredibly consistent over the four years she raced. From 33 starts, she won 10 times, and was second or third in 20 other outings, while earning $543,937. She won four added-money races her championship season at 5—the Foxy J.G., Day Lilly and Langhorne Stakes and Ambassador of Luck Handicap— and won the Russian Rhythm Handicap the year before. She was also eight-times stakes-placed.

The mare's first two foals have earned six figures (Kid Brown, $214,413; Alice's Girls, $105,058), and her current 3-year-old Anissa placed twice in four starts. Jet Away Jane foaled a healthy colt by Jump Start on April 9. Originally, the family planned to sell the foal as a yearling, but they have now decided to keep him and race him themselves in honor of "Jane." *

SIX-FIGURE PA-BREDS AT OBS TWO-YEAR-OLD SALES

The two sales of 2-year-olds held by the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company in Florida saw four PA-Breds sell for $100,000 or more, and all but one of the 15 offered were sold.

The top priced PA-Bred at $130,000 was a colt by Overdriven out of the unraced Grand Slam mare Miss Foreesta, sold at the spring sale that ran from April 19 through April 22. Jonathan Thomas signed the ticket as agent for Repole Stable. From the family of graded stakes winner Move, the bay colt worked an eighth-mile at the under tack show in 9.4, the co-fastest time of the sale. Bred by Eico Stable and Glenn E. Brok LLC, the colt was consigned by Eisaman Equine.

Also sold in April for six figures was a son of Mizzen Mast—Taanis, by Dayjur. A half-brother to graded stakes-placed Jockey Ridge, the gray/roan colt bred by Gum Tree Stables LLC and Thomas Clark Bloodstock descends from champion Shicklah. He was purchased by Winchell Thoroughbreds for $120,000.

Top Line Sales was agent for a Quality Road colt out of Charlie My Girl, by Unbridled's Song, who brought $100,000 on a bid by Rockbridge Bloodstock. Bred by C Biscuit Racing and Smart Angle LLP, the May 1 foal is a half-brother to a stakes runner and a stakes producer, from the family of graded winners Magic Broomstick and Twilight Time.

The first day of the two-day select sale, held March 15 and 16, saw the only PA-Bred offered sell for $125,000 to Patrice Miller of EQB Inc. The son of Union Rags out of Mini Chat, by Deputy Minister, consigned by Halcyon Hammock Farm as agent, is a three-quarter brother to Grade 1-winning juvenile Dixie Chatter and half-brother to Grade 3 winner Rumor. His second dam is champion Phone Chatter. From the family that also includes Grade 1 winner In Lingerie, the colt was bred by Chadds Ford Stable and sold as a yearling at Keeneland in September for $50,000. ★

YOUNG STALLION MAD FLATTER VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Mad Flatter, an 11-year-old son of Flatter who stood at Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville, was euthanized due to injuries suffered while in his stall. The multiple graded stakes winner was standing his fourth season at stud—his first crop comes to the races this year.

Bred by Bonnie Heath Farm out of the Honor Grades mare Miss Pangea, Mad Flatter earned $354,843 during his career, and among his eight victories were back-to-back runnings of the Grade 3 Spend a Buck Handicap (in 2010 and 2011).

Mad Flatter's first crop of 2-year-olds numbers 21 foals. He bred an average of more than 28 mares a year.

"It is with great sorrow that we share the loss of our stallion Mad Flatter," Diamond B owner Glenn Brok told The Blood-Horse. "It is tragic, to lose a graded front-end running miler with his pedigree, by Flatter and the strong influence of the prolific family of Weekend Surprise. To come this far and for him to go too soon, is a terrible loss; a loss for our family, the Heaths, and all his breeders, supporters, and fans." *

Blasts From The Past

MORNING MAC

1962, by Cormac—Fairplex, by Star Beacon. Bred by Paul C. Baldwin. Owned by Mrs. John B. Hannum.

The hunter-turned-racehorse Morning Mac became one of those rare individuals to win the Maryland Hunt Cup twice in his career. The blaze-faced chestnut accomplished the feat over a four-year span—between his two wins were a third and a fourth in the world's most challenging timber race.

Owned by “foxhunting legend” Nancy Penn Smith Hannum of Unionville, Morning Mac was bred by Paul Baldwin, who sold him as a 2-year-old to Christine Hannum, the sister of Nancy's husband John. A son of the extraordinary Hunt Cup sire Cormac, Morning Mac came to be owned by the Hannums after Christine stopped hunting.

Nancy, who was Master of Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Hunt for more than 50 years, was asked about her horse in an interview in 1979: “He's such a dandy horse. You can do anything with him. He's not quiet enough for a child because he bucks and plays, but he's great out front. I've hunted hounds off him, whipped off him, and he's done everything I've asked.”

Ridden primarily in races by Nancy's son John B. “Buzzy” Hannum Jr., Morning Mac recorded his first Hunt Cup win at age 8 in 1970 in his first attempt over the huge timber fences in Glyndon. In fact, he had made his first start in a sanctioned race only the week before, when second in the Benjamin H. Murray Memorial at the Grand National meet, missing by a neck to Knockbawn.

The untested gelding's win in his first Hunt Cup attempt was even more remarkable considering he nearly lost Hannum at the third fence. The duo made a spectacular recovery and turned in an impressive final drive to score by more than two lengths over Knockbawn.

In 1973, the fates once again shown favorably upon Cormac's son. Seven horses lined up, including previous Hunt Cup winner Early Earner and future winner *Jacko. At the end of the nearly four miles, falls took out all but Morning Mac, Eastmac and Evening Mail. It proved the easiest of victories for Morning Mac, who strolled home 25 lengths the winner.

Morning Mac made only two starts in each of those four years, but proved extremely successful over one of the hardest courses in the world. Nancy Hannum remarked “He's that kind of a horse. Persistent, with great staying power, a careful jumper who lacks only speed. He always leaves a little hair on the top of his jumps.” *

Blasts From the Past takes a look back at PA-Breds of distinction throughout history. The majority of the biographies were included in the PHBA's 50th year anniversary commemorative booklet, published in 1998.

PA STALLION DIRECTORY & BOARDING FARM DIRECTORY NOW AVAILABLE

The fourth edition of the Pennsylvania Stallion Directory, featuring photos and statistics on Pennsylvania stallions as well as a directory of farms offering boarding and foaling of mares, is available online as well as at the offices of the PHBA.

The directory is a great resource for planning 2016 matings and making foaling arrangements. Opportunities for PA-Breds remain as strong as ever with more than $30 million is paid annually in PA-Bred awards, purses and bonuses at the three tracks across the state. Those tracks offer 450 days of racing, with 450 races restricted to PA-Breds!

More than half of Pennsylvania's annual foal crop are by Pennsylvania stallions, and are thus eligible to earn Breeder Awards worth 30 percent of the purse in all Pennsylvania races through third place.

To get a copy of the directory, contact the PHBA office (610) 444-1050 or download by clicking here. ★
