PA Day at the Races

By Jennifer Poorman

The Garofalo family and PHBA board member Greg Newell present the trophy to Hank Nothhaft, breeder and owner of Grand Prix, winner of the Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial Stakes

Pennsylvania's Day at the Races 2017 kicked off Parx Racing's fall season, and proved to be another exciting day in PA racing. Despite the rain that threatened then rolled in before the first stakes race, over 80 PA bred's showed what they're made of as they battled down the stretch in each of the 10-race card.

The Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association treated Pennsylvania breeders and their guests, owners and trainers to a buffet lunch, complete with a private third-floor view of the track. Keith Jones, retired NHL player, and current hockey studio analyst for NBCSN and member of the WIP Morning Team, was the PHBA's special guest of the day. Raffle prizes included: a framed Secretariat photo signed by Ron Turcotte and Bill Nack; a framed Lil E Tee photo signed by Pat Day; a Fusaichi Pegasus halter donated by Coolmore's Ashford Stud; a Toro mower and Toro blower generously donated by Equine Equipment; a cornhole bean bag toss game set with an American flag design, courtesy of J & M Custom Cornhole; and baskets loaded with horse-related items donated by the PTHA and Turning for Home.

Stakes winners received a PHBA travel suitcase for both the owner and trainer, along with an engraved shank for the winning PA-Bred, presented in the winner's circle. All stakes participants received a Patagonia backpack filled with PHBA goodies. All breeders and their guests who attended the luncheon received a PHBA tote bag filled with a beach towel, hat, stainless steel coffee mug, magnet and eyeglass wipe.

Kicking off the stakes program was the $100,000 Banjo Picker, a 6-furlong sprint for 3 year olds and up on the dirt. The winner was The Man, ridden by Jorge Vargas, Jr. The five-year-old by Ecclesiastic, bred by Glenn E. Brok, LLC, is owned by Natalie Baffert and Bernard Schiappa, and is trained by John Servis. The race ended with an exciting stretch run between The Man and Favorite Tale. The Man was looking for his seventh win in a row, while Favorite Tale was battling for the comeback tale of the season, running in his first start after an 18-month layoff. As they battled in the stretch, head to head, the cheers from both camps and the fans were deafening. The Man edged out Favorite Tale by a neck for the win. The celebration in the winner's circle by The Man's connections was contagious, with hugs, high-fives and pats for the horse all around. Just when we thought it was over, trainer John Servis, feeling the horse's legs, discovered a loose shoe. The Man proved to be a winner yet again, as he stood quietly for more than a few minutes while waiting for the blacksmith to arrive to pull the loose shoe.

Another big win was yet to come in the $100,000 Roanoke Stakes for 3 year olds and up on the dirt at 1-1/16 miles. Seven-year-old Page McKenney, winner of over $1.5 million in earnings, went off as the heavy favorite. Bred by Dr. James E. Bryant & Linda P. Davis, owned by Adam Staple and Jalin Stable, and trained by Mary Eppler, he sat behind the leaders after breaking from the inside post. Under his regular rider, Horacio Karamanos, Page McKenney tracked behind, and showing his true competitive nature, as he has throughout his career, never gave up. He took on his competitors in the stretch, took the lead near the wire, and won with the determination that he's known for.

As the rain continued to fall, the $100,000 Marshall Jenney Stakes for 3 years old and up at 5 furlongs was moved off the turf. Jockey Brian Pedroza, under four-year-old filly Great Soul, by Great Notion, opened a three-length lead with an eighth of a mile to go, and held off latecomer Imply for the win. Great Soul was bred and is owned by Steve and Jane Long, and trained by Tom Proctor.

Ted Vanderlaan, brother to Dr. Teresa Garofalo, namesake of the fourth stake race of the day, was in attendance to cheer on the winner, Grand Prix, and celebrate his sister. Dr. Teresa Garofalo was the treasurer of the PHBA board before she passed away in 2010 from acute myeloid leukemia. Her equine practice in West Chester, Smokey's Run Farm, focused on equine reproduction, and the stake in her name is a special one to the PHBA. The winner, three-year-old Grand Prix, half-sister to Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint 2016 winner Finest City, had her own cheering section with breeder and owner Hank Nothhaft and the crew that traveled to PA to watch the filly run. Under jockey Jose Ferrer, the daughter of Tale of the Cat went to the front after the first sixteenth of a mile and never looked back to win by a length and a half. Grand Prix won the New Start Stakes at Penn National back in June, and the win in the Garafalo gives her a second black type win.

Winning the Medal and his connections celebrated for the second year in a row as the six-year-old son of Medallist rallied to win the $100,000 Mrs. Penny Stakes again this year. Even with the race being forced off of the turf due to the nonstop rain, the gelding forced the biggest upset of the day, blasting from last at the half-mile pole, flying by his competitors to take the lead for the win. Bred by Rick Moliniaux, owned by R and L Racing and trained by Patricia Farro, he went off at 15-1, paying $32.

We extend a sincere thank you to all of our members and guests who attended, as well as the board members and special guests who presented the gifts in each race. We're looking forward to a successful and productive 2018 breeding season and wish everyone the best of luck in the coming year. Visit www.pabred.com for a full gallery of the day's photos!

A few words from the Executive Secretary

September 2nd was the 17th Pennsylvania's Day at the Races at Parx, where about 425 breeders and guests along with owners and trainers saw amazing PA-Breds win coveted stakes titles and came together to celebrate our state-breds and breeding program. Congratulations to all the competitors! We hope to continue the high spirits and good luck from Pennsylvania's Day at the Races into the fall months for broodmare domicile. 2017 was the first year in a while that the mares bred to PA stallions was up significantly (about 18%). Make sure you receive your share of the 40% breeder awards.

As a reminder, we have changed the broodmare and registration requirements. Broodmares must be in the state by December 1st, or within 14 days of a public sale. Previously the deadline was November 1st. Broodmare domicile reports must be submitted to the PHBA by December 15th, 2017. If you're breeding back to a registered PA stallion, you must complete the domicile report within 14 days of entering the state and reside continuously for 60 days through foaling (previously 90 days). Please make note of these changes. Forms can be found online at www.pabred.com. It would be greatly appreciated if you can fill out and submit the form online. If you are unable to submit the form online, you may either print out a report and mail it in, or let us know and we'll mail a copy to you.

JOIN THE PHBA

Whether you are currently a breeder or an owner, or if you are just considering getting involved in this exciting industry, there are many reasons to join the PHBA. The PHBA is devoted to those involved in Pennsylvania's Thoroughbred breeding industry. A not-for-profit organization founded in 1948, we provide a number of services to members, including informational assistance, educational opportunities and a variety of social events.

The goal of the organization is to advocate on behalf of the state's breeding industry. We are mandated by statute as administrator of the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund program, and as official registrar of the Pennsylvania-Bred roster of eligible program participants.

Working with industry leaders over the years, PHBA has achieved several goals that have brought reform and benefits to breeders, owners, race tracks and the public. The PHBA is vital to everyone involved in breeding throughout Pennsylvania. Your support and participation can help Pennsylvania's breeding industry continue to grow and prosper.
