PA Sire Power: An Alphabetical Farm Tour

By Linda Dougherty

The Pennsylvania breeding program continues to be one of the most lucrative in the country, distributing more than $30 million annually in the last five years. And now breeders seeking stallions for their mares can look forward to a stable breeding fund that will function without political interference, thanks to the new expanded gaming bill signed by Gov. Tom Wolf in late October.

And the good news continues: As reported by The Jockey Club's Report of Mares bred for 2017, among the top 10 states and provinces only Ontario, Pennsylvania and Indiana stallions covered more mares in 2017 than in 2016.

Opportunity and value abound within the 2018 Pennsylvania stallion roster. What follows is a listing of both proven sires and several young stallions, all ready for the upcoming breeding season.

Recently, however, the farm announced the loss of its promising freshman sire, El Padrino, who unfortunately was euthanized November 22 due to complications from colic.

Making the loss more profound is the fact that El Padrino's first foals came out running in 2017, with nine winners that earned nearly $400,000 (through Nov. 27, according to Equineline).

On September 30, El Padrino, an 8-year-old son of Pulpit, was the sire of two stakes winners on the Delaware Park card – Enchanted Star, who won the Small Wonder Stakes, and Whereshetoldmetogo, who captured the First State Dash Stakes.

By Linda Dougherty

When a slight tendon and hip injury sent Page McKenney to the sidelines in April 2016, no one could predict whether the Pennsylvania-bred gelding would return to the races, much less resume winning added-money events.

Yet the 7-year-old son of former Pennsylvania stallion Eavesdropper, bred by Dr. James E. Bryant and his wife, Linda P. Davis, and co-owned by them and Adam Staple under their Jalin Stable banner, put all of their fears to rest by picking up where he left off. On Jan. 21, Page McKenney made a triumphant return by capturing the Native Dancer Stakes at Laurel Park, and went on to compile a stellar record in 2017 that was every bit as good as in years past.

"We were riding high that he had made it back to the races," said Bryant, "but at the same time we were holding our breath. We weren't sure what to expect. But he showed grit, determination, and his will to win was still intact. He did himself proud."

"We were concerned whether he was going to come back and run the way he had been. He had been training well so I didn't see any reason why he couldn't, but there's always a concern," said trainer Mary Eppler.

After the Native Dancer, Page McKenney won the Lyman Stakes and the Roanoke Stakes, and placed in the John B. Campbell Stakes and the Mountainview Stakes. But perhaps one of his best races of the season was in the \$150,000 Pa Derby Champion Stakes at Parx Racing at 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ miles Sept. 23, when he overcame a stumbling, troubled break to rally from just off the pace to defeat a salty group of campaigners by a half-length.

"I felt so good for the horse," said Bryant, in recalling the race. "He persevered and prevailed, and stuck right with [favored] Matt King Coal nearly all the way and passed him in the stretch. Page loves to win, and he knows when he wins."

This year, Page McKenney made eight starts, winning four times and placing twice, and earned $353,400. That lifted his career totals to 20 wins from 52 starts – 13 of them stakes – and $1,759,378.

The gelding is a perfect example of how even the smallest of breeders can produce a horse with outstanding ability.

Bryant, who practices internal medicine, and Davis live on a 110-acre farm outside of Richmond, Va., near the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay. There, they have only a few broodmares and assorted other animals. The couple at first bred sport horses, and then began breeding thoroughbreds "with very modest stock," said Bryant.

Bryant describes himself as the pedigree person, while Davis is the one who specializes in the physical attributes of stallions and mares.

The mating that produced Page McKenney happened somewhat by chance. The couple visited the former Reigle Heir Farm near Grantville, Pa., in 2009 to see another stallion that they thought would be a good match for their mare Winning Grace, a daughter of Yarrow Brae. A handler asked whether they wanted to see Eavesdropper, a son of Kingmambo and a half-brother to top sire A.P. Indy, and Davis was impressed.

"She loved Eavesdropper's presence, and his eye," said Bryant. "She was really taken by him."

The following March, a chestnut colt was foaled at Northview PA in Peach Bottom, because Winning Grace was scheduled to be bred back to its stallion Love of Money.

"We knew Page was special right from the start," said Bryant. "He was always self-confident, brave, and very smart."

The couple decided to name the foal after Davis's Aunt Page, who had recently passed away at age 83, while combining it with a surname from her family tree, McKenney.

Page McKenney began his career with Jazz Napravnik, and made his first start at Colonial Downs in July 2012. It wasn't until his 13th start, in June, 2013 at Colonial, that the gelding finally broke his maiden. But right after that first victory, at Penn National on July 20, the Bryants were shocked when Page McKenney was claimed by Adam Staple and sent to the barn of Eppler. Bryant recalls that Davis took it very hard, but they were grateful when Staple offered to let them have a percentage of ownership.

Among the gelding's stakes wins over the next four years were the Grade 3 General George Stakes, the John B. Campbell Handicap, the Native Dancer Stakes (twice), the Robellino Stakes (twice), and the Richard W. Small Stakes (twice). He placed in the $1 million, Grade 2 Charles Town Classic (twice), and the Grade 2 Pimlico Special and Grade 3 Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Handicap.

When he's done racing, Page will have a home at the Bryant's farm for the rest of his life. As for his dam Winning Grace, she died six weeks after foaling a colt by Love of Money, who was christened Axel Woes. Eavesdropper, meanwhile, stood one season in Pennsylvania before being sold. He now stands at Emirates Park in Australia.

Bryant is unsure about Page McKenney's plans going forward, because they are still puzzled about his fifth-place finish in the Richard W. Small Stakes Nov. 11, in which he emerged with cuts on three legs.

"He was jostled around, but there was no real explanation for him stopping," said Bryant. "However, he ate up after the race and scoped okay, and we're thinking maybe he was showing the effects of a long campaign this year."

Whatever the future holds for Page McKenney, he will forever hold a special place in the hearts of all who have known him.

"He's one of my favorite horses. Everybody loves him," said his jockey Horacio Karamanos. "He's very professional. You see him in the morning and he looks like a pony, but when he comes over in the afternoon he's a different horse. He's got a lot of class."

"The notion of having a regional, blue-collar, popular horse means more to me than anything," said Bryant. "It's been a joy to have him. I love him like a son — he has all the attributes of a Thoroughbred that you'd ever want."

Making the Grade

DAISY

Fox Hill Farm colorbearer Daisy, a 2-year-old Blame filly from a family of graded stakes winners, won her first two starts including Aqueduct's Tempted Stakes-G3 on Nov. 3 by nearly five lengths. Bred by legendary Hall of Fame trainer Jonathan Sheppard out of Lovely Stay, whom he trained and later purchased at auction, Daisy was the first yearling sold by Sheppard at the Saratoga select sale, when she brought $80,000. Daisy is entered in Aqueduct's Demoiselle Stakes-G2 on Dec. 2.

SPRING QUALITY

The latest graded stakes winner bred by George Strawbridge and racing in his Augustin Stable colors, 5-year-old Spring Quality has made the most of his limited outings—his five wins from nine starts include the Robellino Stakes at Penn National in August and Aqueduct's Red Smith Handicap-G3 at 1 $\frac{3}{8}$ miles on the turf on Nov. 11 in which he “vied with vigour” down the stretch and drew off. He is trained by Graham Motion.

DADDY IS A LEGEND

Hank Nothhaft's HnR Nothhaft Horse-racing is credited as breeder of another graded winner after 2-year-old Daddy Is a Legend's win in her stakes debut in the Jimmy Durante Stakes-G3 over the Del Mar turf on Nov. 25. Sold as a weanling for $140,000 at the Keeneland November sale, the Scat Daddy filly is out of Randie's Legend, purchased by Nothhaft as a yearling in 2008. A “TDN Rising Star” when she broke her maiden at Keeneland on the grass on Oct. 27, Daddy Is a Legend races for Jim and Susan Hill and is trained by George Weaver.

EL PADRINO GONE AT 8

The incredibly popular rising young sire El Padrino, the Mid-Atlantic region's leading 2-year-old and freshman sire, was euthanized on Wednesday, Nov. 22 following a series of bouts with colic and subsequent surgeries at New Bolton Center. The syndicated son of Pulpit, who stood at Northview PA in Peach Bottom, Pa., since entering stud in 2014, was 8.

El Padrino launched his stud career after retiring a graded winner, with six on the board finishes in eight starts, while earning \$326,770. A flashy chestnut by one of the world's best sires of sires, El Padrino was the first foal out of the impeccably bred Giant's Causeway mare Enchanted Rock. Sold as a yearling for \$210,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, El Padrino was trained by Todd Pletcher for Let's Go Stable. A maiden winner at 2 by more than a dozen lengths, he finished the year with a third in the Grade 2 Remsen. At 3 he captured the Risen Star Stakes-G2 in near record time of 1:42.96 for 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ miles.

From a family that includes champion Queena, Grade 1-winning second and third dams Chic Shirine and Too Chic, and Grade 1-winning millionaire half-brother, Verrazano, El Padrino was a hit when he entered stud, covering 89 mares his first season and 109 the second. With 53 2-year-olds in his first crop, he has nine winners from 13 runners, led by Enchanted Star and Whereshetoldmetogo, both stakes on the Owners' Day card at Delaware Park in September. He had two maiden winners in 10 days in late November, both at Laurel Park, including first-time starter Eagle Terrace.

MILLION-DOLLAR PA-BRED MARES AT FASIG-TIPTON KENTUCKY NOVEMBER SALE

How much is a Grade 1 win worth? In terms of increasing the value of bloodstock, about a million dollars.

Two famed PA-Bred mares recently retired from racing brought in excess of $1 million at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale held Nov. 6 in Lexington, Ky. Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 and champion female sprinter of 2016 Finest City sold for $1.5 million to Katsumi Yoshida of Northern Farm in Japan. Consigned by Ian Kruljac as agent for Seltzer Thoroughbreds LLC, the 5-year-old daughter of City Zip, trained by Kruljac, retires with earnings of $1,266,394 in 20 starts, with five wins, six seconds and four thirds. She won or placed in 10 stakes, all graded – five Grade 1 – during her career.

Campaigned exclusively in graded stakes competition since March 2016, Finest City's sole victory in 2017 came in the Grade 2 Santa Monica Handicap in January. Bred by Hank Nothhaft's HnR Nothhaft Horseracing, Finest City was sold by her breeder for $50,000 at the 2012 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. She resold for $85,000 at the Keeneland September sale, when purchased by Seltzer Thoroughbreds, who raced her throughout her career.

Katsumi Yoshida's brother Teruya Yoshida purchased Grade 1 winner Illuminant for $1.1 million in the name of Shadai Farm. Retired after winning the Monrovia Stakes-G2 this past May, the 5-year-old mare had earnings of $536,243 in 14 career starts. The biggest of her six wins came in the 2016 Gamely Stakes-G1.

Initially campaigned by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, the daughter of Quality Road went through the Fasig-Tipton November sale a year ago and sold on a bid of $900,000 to SF Bloodstock. This year she competed for the partnership of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Head of Plains Partners LLC and SF Racing LLC.

Bred by Richard Golden's Sycamore Hall Farm, Illuminant was initially sold as a yearling for $32,000 at the Keeneland September sale in 2012. Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners purchased her as a 2-year-old at the OBS March sale for $180,000.

The two million-dollar sales mares were the only PA-Breds to sell at the auction; the only weanling offered, a Gemologist filly, was a $40,000 RNA.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER

The highest price for a PA-Bred at Keeneland November was Grade 1 winner Al's Gal, sold to J.S. Company for $950,000 while carrying her first foal (by Medaglia d'Oro). A year earlier at Fasig-Tipton's November sale, she was purchased by SF Bloodstock and New Gate Farm for $800,000 as a broodmare prospect after making her final start in the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf-G1.

A daughter of champion grass horse English Channel, Al's Gal recorded her biggest score on the way to earning $749,775 in the 2016 E.P. Taylor Stakes-G1 at Woodbine. Bred by Malone Racing LLC, she first sold as a weanling at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale in 2011 for $50,000; the next year at Keeneland she was a $30,000 purchase, and sent through the ring again at 2, she brought $40,000 on a bid by Gary Contessa at the Keeneland April sale.

Keeneland's mammoth 12-day breeding stock sale, held Nov. 7 through Nov. 18, saw a total of 29 PA-Breds sell for an average of $127,086. Of the nine sold for six figures, two were weanlings. The top-priced weanling was a bay colt by Into Mischief out of Katherine'skadence, by Mr. Greeley, purchased by Brookstone Farm for $320,000. Bred by C Biscuit Racing, Smart Angle LLP, CJB Holdings LLC Jeff Bozel, et al, the colt is a half-brother to two winners; his second dam, stakes winner Won't She Tell, is a half-sister to Triple Crown winner Affirmed. ■

New Broodmare Domicile Requirements & Registration Eligibility for 2018 Foals

We are pleased to announce that the Registration Eligibility and Broodmare Domicile requirements for the 2018 crop of foals have changed. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up substantially this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority.

- The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category. (Formerly November 1.)

- The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state. (Formerly November 1.)

- The dam of the foal arrived after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided SIXTY (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred. (Formerly November 1 and 90 days.)

PA-Bred Stakes Recap: Penn National

The 2017 PA-Bred stakes schedule has a total of 22 stakes, each worth $100,000. Also continuing is the 25% bonus for all PA-Sired PA-Bred horses finishing first through third in all restricted stakes, which brings the total combined purses to $2.75 million.

Go to the Pennsylvania tracks' websites for the stakes books and to nominate.

Blue Mountain Juvenile Fillies

Bronx Beauty, winner of her first two starts in dynamic fashion, including Monmouth's Colleen Stakes against open company, lost a bit of luster when she came up a bit empty in the Mrs. Henry D. Paxson Memorial Stakes at Presque Isle in September as the favorite and finished fourth.

One of nine fillies to line up for the Blue Mountain Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Penn National the evening of Nov. 22, she went off as second-choice behind dominant Penn maiden special weight winner Indian Beauty, who was making her stakes debut in her second start. Giving six pounds to the favorite, Bronx Beauty rebounded, gunning for the lead in the stretch and getting the victory by a half length. Indian Beauty ran a solid race to finish second – it was 10 lengths back to third-place finisher Golden Promise.

Owned by Two W Stable and trained by Anthony R. Margotta Jr., Bronx Beauty won easily by seven lengths first-time out going four furlongs at Penn in July, leading at every call. She captured the Colleen by four and a half, and became the first stakes winner for her sire Liaison.

Bronx Beauty has three wins from four starts and earnings of $120,720. She was bred by Blackstone Farm out of Forever Sunshine, an unraced daughter Rockport Harbor. Blackstone had purchased the mare for $6,000 at the 2012 Keeneland November sale while carrying her second foal. Bronx Beauty is the only winner from four foals of racing age for her dam, who was sold for $40,000 at Keeneland November after producing a Liaison colt in 2016. ■

ALL BREEDING FUND STAKES WILL INCLUDE A 25% PA-SIRED BONUS FOR 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD.

Proposed 2017 schedule—dates and conditions for all the PA-Bred Stakes are subject to change. Please contact the Racing Offices for the most current schedules.
