2018 PA Day At the Races: a million-dollar celebration

By Jennifer Poorman

The 18th annual Pennsylvania's Day at the Races, held Saturday, Sept. 1 at Parx Racing, proved to be a great day of PA-Bred racing, featuring $1 million in purses for the first time in the event's history. One-hundred PA-Breds showcased their talents as they battled down the stretch in the card's 11 races, five stakes.

The Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association treated Pennsylvania breeders and their guests, owners and trainers to a buffet lunch, complete with a private third-floor view of the track. Raffle prizes included PHBA bags full of PA-Bred swag; a hand-painted cornhole game set, courtesy of J & M Custom Cornhole; and baskets loaded with horse-related items donated by the PTHA, Turning for Home and the Daily Racing Form. The stakes-winning owners received a leather PHBA overnight bag, and winning stakes trainers were presented a cooler with the name of the stakes race embroidered on it for the winning PA-Bred, presented in the winner's circle. All stakes participants received a Patagonia backpack filled with PHBA goodies. All breeders and their guests who attended the luncheon received a PHBA tote bag filled with a blanket, hat and coffee mug.

Kicking off the day's stakes action was the Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial, for fillies and mares, 3 and up. Zipper's Hero, a 5-year-old mare bred by Peter Giangliullo by Castle Rock Farm stallion Partner's Hero, broke a step slower than the rest of the field but spurred to a clear lead after the opening quarter. Leading by 2½ lengths entering the far turn, the even-money favorite remained in control down the stretch to defeat Risque's Diamond by 3 lengths.

It proved to be the most emotional race of the day. Dr. Garofalo was the treasurer of the PHBA board before she passed away in 2010 from acute myeloid leukemia. Her equine practice in West Chester, Smokey's Run Farm, focused on equine reproduction, and the stakes in her name is a special one to the PHBA. Dr. Garofalo's mother, Vera Vann-Wilson, and brother, Ted Vanderlaan, were in attendance to present the winning trophy.

"It's such an honor to be here, and I'm grateful to you all for continuing the race in her memory," Ted Vanderlaan expressed to PHBA staff in the winner's circle. "She would love this." The emotion didn't stop there. With the win, trainer Eddie Coletti Jr. surpassed $1 million in earnings for the year, a career first. Zipper's Hero provided the first stakes victory for owner Mario Mangini, and Johan Rosado rode his first stakes winner for Coletti. It was the biggest winner's circle celebration of the day, and congratulations to all on their achievements!

The Mrs. Penny Stakes was moved to the main track due to rainfall the night before. Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Moorhead's homebred Rose Tree relished the change as she continued her incredible comeback year with a second stakes win in a row. Racing about 6 lengths behind the leaders on the backside, the 4-year-old Harlan's Holiday filly gained from there and took command on the far turn under regular rider Andrew Wolfson. Imply, winner of the Lyphard Stakes in June, chased after her through the stretch, but Rose Tree was able to hold her off and win by a neck. Trained by Hall of Famer Jonathan Sheppard, Rose Tree paid $10 to win. "She held on gamely. She's a very nice filly," Sheppard told PTHA's Dani Gibson in a postrace interview.

The Banjo Picker Sprint Stakes was one of the most anticipated of the day, featuring last year's winner The Man, bred by Glenn E. Brok LLC. Despite another wardrobe malfunction this year, he proved to be the best again, in more ways than one. Untacked in the walking ring and retacked in the paddock stall with minutes to spare, the cool-under-pressure 6-year-old trained by John Servis let everyone know that he really is "The Man." (Last year's malfunction came after the race, when he stood quietly in the winner's circle to have a shoe pulled that came partway off during the race.) With regular rider Jorge Vargas Jr. aboard, The Man broke well, dueled to the outside of his rivals and picked up a short lead off the turn. Midtowncharlybrown waited for room, and Pop Keenan made a late run but couldn't catch The Man. "We have won nine races out of 11. You cannot ask for a better horse," said Vargas postrace. This win was his seventh in eight tries at Parx.

The first of two upsets came in the Roanoke Stakes. Michael Jester's homebred Grasshoppin, off at 12-1, had a perfect trip under Edwin Rivera. The 7-year-old son of Cat Thief trained by Claudio Gonzalez sat a length back of early leader Navy Commander down the backstretch and kept position after fractions of :23.62 and :47.41. He caught up to the leader around the final turn and pulled away in the stretch. Under urging by Rivera, he finished in 1:44.42, paying $27. Grasshoppin finished third in the same race last year, and the connections were thrilled with the turnaround. "To be able to come back this year... he's not a young horse, and to run as hard as he does, it really shows you the great athlete he is," Jester said after the race.

The second upset came in the final stakes of the day, the Power by Far for fillies and mares, run for the first time on the PA Day At the Races card. Going 5 furlongs on the main track after the race came off the turf, She's Chubs (12-1) finished 1¼ lengths in front of Charlybrown's Rose, with favorite Pink Princess finishing third.

Biding her time a couple of lengths behind early front-runner Captain Sam, She's Chubs closed the gap after the first quarter-mile in :21.67. Under urging from Roberto Rosado, she surged ahead at the eighth pole and finished in :58:68.

Bred and owned by Rebecca and John Phillip Taylor and trained by Scott Lake, the 5-year-old daughter of retired Pennsylvania sire Albert the Great racked up her first stakes win in her stakes debut, paying $26.40. "So happy for the owners," trainer Scott Lake told PTHA's Gibson. "We entered this horse 13 times, couldn't get a race to go. Last minute we decided we were going to run off the turf, and it was just tremendous."

We extend a sincere thank you to all of our members and guests who attended, as well as the board members and special guests who presented the gifts in each race. We're looking forward to a successful and productive 2019 breeding season and wish everyone the best of luck in the coming year.

A few words from the Executive Secretary

September 1 was the 18th Annual Pennsylvania's Day At the Races at Parx, where over 400 breeders and guests along with owners and trainers saw amazing PA-Breds win coveted stakes titles and came together to celebrate our state-breds and breeding program. Congratulations to all the competitors!

We hope to continue the high spirits and good luck from Pennsylvania's Day At the Races into the fall months for broodmare domicile. Mares bred to PA stallions were up again this year, and we're optimistic about a continued increase in years to come. As a reminder, broodmare domicile forms are due to the PHBA by Dec. 1, 2018.

Broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, or within 14 days of a public sale. If you're breeding back to a registered PA stallion, you must complete the domicile report within 14 days of entering the state and reside continuously for 60 days through foaling.

Forms for the 2019 foal crop can be found online at www.pabred.com.

It would be greatly appreciated if you can fill out and submit the form online. Please do not use any prior year forms. If you are unable to submit the form online, you may either print out a report and mail it in, or let us know and we'll mail a copy to you.
