Hoppertunity

Northview PA in Peach Bottom, Pennsylvania

Multiple Grade 1 winner and multimillionaire Hoppertunity will enter stud in 2019 at Northview PA in Peach Bottom. With career earnings of $4,712,625, the 7-year-old becomes the richest horse ever to stand his first season in the Mid-Atlantic region. His stud fee is $5,000 live foal, with shares and lifetime breeding rights being offered.

In a career that spanned five seasons and 34 starts, Hoppertunity had 22 top-three finishes while consistently racing at the highest level from coast-to-coast. His nine stakes wins were all graded, with Grade 1 scores in the historic Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park and Churchill Downs' Clark Handicap. He made two trips to Dubai and hit the board in the 2016 Dubai World Cup-G1 when third behind California Chrome. He won the San Antonio Stakes-G2 twice at Santa Anita and the Brooklyn Invitational Stakes-G2 at Belmont.

Hoppertunity recorded his first stakes win in the Grade 2 Rebel Stakes at Oaklawn Park before finishing second to California Chrome in the Santa Anita Derby-G1 next out. He went into Derby Week at Churchill Downs as the second choice for the Kentucky Derby-G1 until a foot issue forced his defection two days before the race. He returned at the end of the year to nail down the Clark Handicap over older horses.

"I could go on and on about his racing statistics, but everyone can look them up," said Northview's general manager David Wade. "What most haven't seen yet is this horse. I went to Santa Anita to inspect him for purchase and I thought they had brought me the wrong one. How could a horse that's run 34 times, 31 of them stakes races, have legs this clean and joints this tight?"

Hoppertunity was trained throughout his career by Bob Baffert for Karl Watson, Mike Pegram and Paul Weitman. The bay recorded 15 triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures, and only twice in his career was he worse than fourth. He won at distances up to a mile and a half, broke his maiden at one mile at Santa Anita, and faced the best runners in training year after year.

"Speed, class, stamina, and soundness will make you a multimillionaire in this business. Hoppertunity has them all," said Baffert.

A son of Grade 1-winning Any Given Saturday from the male line of Forty Niner, Hoppertunity is out of the graded stakes-placed Unaccounted For mare Refugee. He is a half-brother to Grade 1 Del Mar Debutante and Grade 1 Chandelier winner Executiveprivilege, an earner of $999,000 from 10 starts. Refugee's weanling filly by Tapit sold for $1.3 million at the 2015 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. The mare has since had foals by War Front and American Pharoah.

Hoppertunity's third dam is champion and Hall of Famer Davona Dale, winner of the Filly Triple Crown of the Coaching Club American Oaks-G1, Mother Goose-G1 and Acorn-G1 as well as the Grade 1 Kentucky Oaks, Fantasy and five other stakes. Her foals include Belmont Stakes-G1 placed Le Voyageur.

Hoppertunity and the rest of the roster, including the region's leading sire Jump Start, will be available for inspection at Northview PA's open house on Saturday, Nov. 17.

Warrior's Reward

WynOaks Farm in Delta, Pennsylvania

Young graded stakes sire Warrior's Reward will be standing the 2019 season at Barbara and Chip Wheeler's WynOaks Farm in Delta. The Grade 1-winning sprinter by Medaglia d'Oro is currently ranked 38th in the nation on the leading general sires list, above any other Mid-Atlantic stallion. The 12-year-old dark bay will stand for $4,500 live foal in 2019, with special discounts for mares foaling in Pennsylvania.

With five crops of racing age, Warrior's Reward has sired 21 stakes winners, eight in 2018, led by graded winners Axelrod and Warrior's Club, both entered in this year's Breeders' Cup. The 3-year-old Axelrod takes aim at the $6 million Breeders' Cup Classic-G1, drawing post 12 for the main event on the Saturday, Nov. 3 card at Churchill Downs. An earner of $732,925 from 10 starts, he goes into the Breeders' Cup having won the Smarty Jones Stakes-G3 at Parx and the Indiana Derby-G3. The swift Warrior's Club, a career earner of $704,104 who captured this year's Commonwealth Stakes-G3 at Keeneland and was second in Saratoga's Grade 1 Alfred G. Vanderbilt Handicap and the Grade 2 Churchill Downs Stakes on Derby Day, will break from the four-post in the $2 million Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1.

Warrior's Reward ranked in the top 10 in the nation as a first-crop sire, as well as on the second-crop and third-crop sire lists. He has total progeny earnings in excess of $16.8 million, with nearly $5 million in 2018. He is also the sire of 2018 stakes winners T Rex Express, who captured the West Virginia Breeders Classic Distaff in October; 3-year-olds Georgia's Reward, winner of Oaklawn's Rainbow Miss Stakes in five starts, and New York stakes winner Battle Station; Yockey's Warrior, back-to-back winner of Fair Grounds' Thanksgiving Handicap who captured the Duncan F. Kenner Stakes in his only start of 2018; Puerto Rican Group 2 winner Exclusivo and 15-time winner Medal of Courage.

Warrior's Reward was the fastest 3-year-old colt in his year, recording a 113 Beyer and winning at 7-furlongs at Churchill Downs in 1:21.60 over Munnings, Reynalduthewizard and Custom for Carlos, and finishing second or third in the Grade 2 Jim Dandy, Grade 2 Dwyer and Grade 3 Northern Dancer Stakes that year. He returned at 4 to capture the Grade 1 Carter in 1:21.62 for 7 furlongs and added graded placings in the Churchill Downs Stakes-G2 and Phoenix Stakes-G3 before retiring to stud with a record of four wins from 17 starts and earnings of $565,716.

A son of champion sire Medaglia d'Oro out of a Seeking the Gold mare, Warrior's Reward is from the family of Canadian Horse of the Year Catch a Glimpse, English champion Forest Flower, English classic-winning millionaire Night of Thunder, and Grade 1 winner High Yield.

SOCIAL INCLUSION and EASTWOOD

Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville, Pennsylvania

Social Inclusion, an impressive track record-breaker and classic performer, and Eastwood, a sound and speedy son of Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Sprint winner and prominent sire Speightstown, will stand at Glenn and Becky Brok's Diamond B Farm near Mohrsville, Pa., for the 2019 breeding season.

Social Inclusion, who will stand for $5,000 live foal, is one of the fastest sons of the exceptional stallion Pioneer of the Nile, who also sired Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. Social Inclusion and American Pharoah are his track record-setting sons.

Demonstrating pure, raw talent in his first two starts, he broke his maiden first time out by 7½ lengths, going six furlongs in 1:09.35 at Gulfstream Park. Next out in open allowance company, he won in wire-to-wire fashion, defeating future champion older horse Honor Code by 10 lengths and covering 1⅙ miles in a track record 1:40.97.

Social Inclusion followed with third-place finishes in the Grade 1 Wood Memorial (won by Wicked Strong), Grade 1 Preakness Stakes (won by California Chrome), and Grade 2 Woody Stephens (won by Bayern). He completed his race career with earnings of $450,800.

Social Inclusion relocates from John and Susan Sykes' Woodford Thoroughbreds near Ocala, Fla. He is out of the Grade 2 stakes-placed Saint Ballado mare Saint Bernadette, and a full brother to 2018 stakes-placed full brother Road to Damascus. His first foals arrived this year.

"He was a super impressive racehorse. . . we are always trying to get good sire power in Pennsylvania and I think we've succeeded in identifying a horse like him," Brok said. "He's got a great disposition.

He's a big horse, standing 16.3 hands; he's got a lot of bone, with a big hip and shoulder. He's built like a horse that can get you both speed and distance."

Eastwood was an $800,000 sales purchase at the 2013 Fasig-Tipton summer horses of racing age sale, the second highest-price of the sale, after posting eye-catching victories in his first two starts as a 3-year-old.

The strapping chestnut's career debut was a six-furlong contest at Belmont Park, which he won by more than two lengths, followed by a gutsy allowance score at the same distance.

Later in his career, Eastwood scored impressive victories in a pair of allowance contests at Saratoga and Keeneland. Still running sound as a 7-year-old, he was runner up in the 2017 Grade 3 Los Angeles Stakes at Santa Anita Park, defeating Kentuckian and Grazen Sky. Eastwood retired from racing with earnings of $265,545 in a dozen starts.

The first foal out of the Deputy Minister mare Fifth Avenue Ball, Eastwood was originally a $240,000 purchase at the Keeneland November breeding stock sale. Five of the first six foals out of the mare have sold at auction for six-figures.

"Speightstown is revealing himself as a sire of sires," said Glenn Brok. "We're excited about bringing this son of Speightstown come to Pennsylvania."

Eastwood will stand for $2,500 live foal.

SMARTY JONES: Equistar in Annville

One of Pennsylvania's all-time greats, Smarty Jones, returns to the state of his birth for a second time to stand at stud, taking up residence at Rodney Eckenrode's Equistar Farm in Annville for the 2019 season. His stud fee has been set at $3,500 live foal.

The 2004 Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner stood in his home state from 2011-'15, first at Ghost Ridge Farms and then Northview PA, before being relocated to Calumet Farm in Lexington, Ky. He has regularly shuttled to Uruguay since 2011, and was that country's leading sire in 2017 when represented by champion 2-year-old filly Bamba y Bamba.

With 11 North American crops of racing age, Smarty Jones has sired earners of more than $38 million. His 33 stakes winners include a dozen graded/group winners, including millionaire and four-time Singapore champion Better Life, Japanese millionaires Keiai Gerbera and Noble

Jewelry, and Grade 1-winning sprinter Centralintelligence. Smarty Jones has 2018 progeny earnings of more than $1.3 million (through late October). His current stakes winners are Pennsylvania-breds Midnight Poker and Someday Jones.

Bred by Roy and Pat Chapman and campaigned in the name of their Someday Farm, Smarty Jones was undefeated in his first eight starts, earned a $5 million bonus from Oaklawn Park for winning the track's traditional Kentucky Derby preps, the Rebel Stakes and Arkansas Derby-G2, plus the Kentucky Derby-G1, and finished second in his only loss, the Belmont Stakes-G1, his final start. The son of Elusive Quality and Smile's stakes-winning daughter I'll Get Along retired with earnings of $7,613,155 and remains the richest Pennsylvania-bred of all time.

MAST TRACK: Fox Tale Stud in Coopersburg

Mast Track, a track-record setting Grade 1 winner bred by the late legendary trainer Bobby Frankel, has moved from California to Fox Tale Stud in Coopersburg for 2019. Owned by Adena Springs, the bay 14-year-old will stand for a fee of $2,000 live foal.

Racing four seasons, Mast Track earned $923,835 from 24 starts and won short and long, on the turf and main track. His most impressive effort was the 10-furlong Hollywood Gold Cup-G1 in which he defeated the likes of Student Council and Perfect Drift in track record time of 2:01.37 on the all-weather track. He captured the Native Diver Handicap-G3 at nine furlongs, and counted graded stakes-placings in the Grade 1 Pacific Classic and Grade 2 San Diego Handicap, the latter missing by a nose.

Mast Track is the sire of 52 foals of racing age, with 40 starters (77 percent) and 28 winners (70 percent of starters), with progeny earnings in excess of $1.2 million.

By Grade 1-winning sprinter Mizzen Mast, the sire of 56 stakes winners, seven millionaires, including two-time Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint-G1-winning filly Mizdirection, Mast Track is out of group-placed Nawal (Fr), the dam of French Group 1 winner Jemayel and two other stakes horses and granddam of graded winner Ready to Act. His pedigree is free of Nearctic, Northern Dancer, Raise a Native, Mr. Prospector, Bold Ruler and Seattle Slew.

AIROFORCE: Cabin Creek Farm in Bernville

A multiple graded stakes winner and Breeders' Cup placed at 2, Airoforce joins the roster at Cabin Creek Farm in Bernville for his second season. His 2019 fee is $2,000 live foal.

A son of Travers Stakes-G1 winner Colonel John, the gray/roan 5-year-old is the first foal for the multiple stakes-placed Cuvee mare Chocolate Pop. He sold for $350,000 as a 2-year-old at the Ocala April sale, and won three of his four starts that fall.

After breaking his maiden by daylight first time out, Airoforce won the Grade 3 Dixiana Bourbon Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf and headed to the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf-G1 as the favorite. He missed by a neck to Hit It a Bomb. The final race of his juvenile season was against a high-powered field that included Gun Runner, Mor Spirit, Mo

Tom and Tom's Ready sent out for the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes-G2 at Churchill Downs. He scored by nearly two lengths over Mor Spirit, with Gun Runner fourth.

Airoforce added two seconds in graded turf stakes to his record at 3—finishing a nose back of Camelot Kitten in the National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame-G2 and missing to Catch a Glimpse, while finishing ahead of Oscar Nominated, in the Penn Mile-G3. He retired with earnings of $679,130 while first or second in six of his 12 starts.

Airoforce is from the family of champions West Coast and Caressing, millionaire and three-time Grade 1 winner Sea Cadet. He stood his first season in 2018 in Indiana.

Kolybabiuks living the dream at Freedom Acres

by Emily Shields

Dr. Yaroslav “Jerry” and Maria Kolybabiuk call their peaceful New Jersey farm Freedom Acres for the purest of reasons. She was born in Germany, he in Austria, with Ukrainian parents and a Venezuelan upbringing. They came to America to pursue their dreams, both professionally and socially.

Dr. Kolybabiuk established a general surgery practice, and only just retired eight years ago. On his rare off days, he built Freedom Acres by hand. “Every piece of wood in the barn, every piece of fencing, I built it all myself,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said. “This is where we got our freedom back.”

It took Dr. Kolybabiuk 10 years to finish building the barn, which sits centrally on their 21 acres just over the Pennsylvania/New Jersey border. “We are one of the first New Jersey farms to start breeding in Pennsylvania,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said. “We started the farm in 1985, and we had babies all over this place, but when the Pennsylvania program got so good, we decided to make a move.”

Now the foals are born at Northview PA in Peach Bottom and come back to Freedom Acres over the summer. “We are essentially from Philadelphia anyway,” Dr. Kolybabiuk explained. “As the Pennsylvania program developed into a very successful, fantastic program, we had to get involved.”

Their involvement has already paid dividends, but winning stakes races is nothing new to the Kolybabiuks. They paid $13,000 for a Drone mare named Got a Cold, “and all she did was give us stakes horses,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said. Dixie Fever, Freedom Quest, and Freedom’s Honor are all stakes runners bred by the Kolybabiuks. The same mare also produced Freedom’s Dawn and American Freedom, matching stakes-performing grays who are living out their days on the farm.

American Freedom retired as a 10-year-old after earning $645,829 in 63 starts. His 15 wins included the Grade 3 Red Bank Handicap at Monmouth Park. Freedom’s Dawn hit the board in Monmouth’s Colleen Stakes and earned $186,650.

The two spend their days palming around in a paddock outside the Kolybabiuk’s back porch, a beautiful venue overlooking the tranquil setting.

Now in their 70s, it is time for the Kolybabiuks to find some farm help. “Maria and I do everything,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said.

“We muck the stalls, tend the paddocks, and do all the feeding,” Maria confirmed. “We’re too old to do the foaling ourselves now anyway.”

Eight years ago, Dr. Kolybabiuk sold his practice, taking on the care of the farm full time. It paid off, as the most important runners of his career have come recently.

One of the original horses they bought, the Allen’s Prospect mare Survey, produced eight winners from nine starters. One of those, the winning Disco Rico mare Disco Flirt, was a five-time winner and became the dam of their best horse: Disco Chick.

Foaled in 2011, Disco Chick broke her maiden in her third start, Oct. 19, 2013. She was a multiple-stakes placed allowance winner until 2016, when she won three stakes races in a row, including the Skipat at Pimlico. That day she rolled home eight lengths in front of a field that included a runner trained by Bob Baffert. Introducing himself to Baffert was a highlight for Kolybabiuk.

“He trained a horse we bred named Freedom Star,” Dr. Kolybabiuk recalled. Freedom Star, named because the Kolybabiuks thought she was the best runner they’d produced to date, won three straight stakes races, including the Grade 3 Azeri at Oaklawn, and overall won at six different racetracks, earning $332,972.

“He remembered Freedom Star right away,” Dr. Kolybabiuk recalled. “But it was still fun to beat him with Disco Chick.” Disco Chick ultimately won 10 of 42 starts and finished in the top three spots 30 times to earn $735,250. The Pennsylvania-bred, who made her last start in July 2017, brought $180,000 at the Keeneland January Sale this year.

Another Pennsylvania-bred, Dancing Bull, broke his maiden May 28 at Parx. He is a Bullsbay half-brother to Disco Chick. “He’s going to be good,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said, noting that the gelding won by four and a half lengths. He was headed straight to compete against stakes company, but the timing did not work out and he has since run back against allowance company, winning again on Oct. 1.

Although there are only a handful of horses on the farm in the early summer, the farm fills up in the fall, with horses in training in South Carolina and some on the track at Parx. “We’re happy with our Pennsylvania-breds,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said. “Having the horses have helped us live longer, because they constantly keep you busy.”

And they are rightfully proud of the job they’ve done. “It was the experience of a lifetime, I wouldn’t give it up for anything else,” Maria said. “We weren’t rich, we were poor as poor could be.”

“We made it from the very bottom,” Dr. Kolybabiuk said. “That’s the promise of America.”

Second Career for B K's Angus off to a great start

by Linda Dougherty

When Lauren Lindsay first started riding her new off-track Thoroughbred, B K's Angus, she was surprised and very pleased to see how quickly he was making the transition from racetrack to show ring.

"The change from being a racehorse to his new life was easy for him," said Lindsay, who hails from Aiken, S.C. "In 30 days time, we were jumping over fences."

That was nearly a year ago, and since then B K's Angus has done extremely well in competition, winning the Turning For Home Award at the Retired Racehorse Project's Thoroughbred Makeover, as well as the Pennsylvania-bred award sponsored by the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Breeders Association, held at the Kentucky Horse Park Oct. 4-7.

Both awards were based on the highest score earned by the 52 Pennsylvania-breds entered, as well as the 18 horses that competed from Turning For Home; thus, B K's Angus won them both.

The Thoroughbred Makeover showcases the second careers of hundreds of off-track Thoroughbreds, each with 10 months or less of retraining. They compete in 10 different disciplines, including barrel racing, eventing, dressage, field hunters, freestyle, polo, show hunters and jumpers, competitive trail and ranch work, and vie for a share of $100,000 in prize money. Spectators vote for one overall winner among the 10 discipline champions, and that horse is crowned America's Most Wanted Thoroughbred.

All horses that compete in the Makeover are listed online, along with information that includes their pedigrees, race records, breeder, and racing connections at their last start. This year, there were 52 Pennsylvania-breds entered, and 26 horses came from Turning For Home. Penn National Race Course ranked as the top track where entrants last raced, with 47 horses.

Bred by the Briter Farm of Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association's executive director Brian Sanfratello and his wife, Terry, B K's Angus had modest ability on the racetrack, breaking his maiden at Penn National in his second career start as a 3-year-old, but then failed to win again in 11 more tries for trainer Michael W. Salvaggio Jr. The dark bay or brown son of Petionville, out of Assaggini, by Vendor, was retired in August 2017, and taken in by Turning For Home, which is a 501(c)(3) non-profit based at Parx Racing that has provided nearly 2,500 former racehorses with a safe retirement.

Turning For Home was created by the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, and it addresses the uncertain future for the retiring equine population at Parx Racing. Turning for Home became the first on-track retirement program at a year-round racetrack, and welcomed its first retiree in 2008.

Turning For Home works with a network of partner farms that rehabilitates, retrains and rehomes its horses. It was to Lara Anderson and Daniel Brown's Full Gallop Farm in Aiken that B K's Angus was shipped. Full Gallop is home to top equestrians in the winter months, and hosts recognized United States Eventing Association shows through the intermediate level and schooling horse trials throughout the year.

"Horses get such an education at Full Gallop," said Danielle Montgomery, the program administrator of Turning For Home. "They get serious retraining. And they also find other jobs for horses that may not be suited for the show ring. If you don't give them that education, they're just ex-racehorses."

For Terry Sanfratello, knowing that B K's Angus has done so well in his new vocation has filled her with pride.

"I'm like a proud mama," she said. "I delivered him – I remember he was almost foaled in our field, I brought his dam in when I saw his feet start to show. He was a very big boy, he weighed about 125 pounds. His legs were enormous. But he was also a very easy horse to handle as he grew, and he was really laid back, he was never mean. We nicknamed him 'Gomer Pyle' because he was a little goofy."

Terry Sanfratello said that BK Angus's career ended when a chip in his knee was discovered.

"Our horses are like our babies, and we don't want to see harm come to any of them, so we were thrilled to give 'Angus' to Turning For Home," she said. "We'd rather see our horses go on to have a second career."

After the chip was removed from his knee, 'Angus' got time off before starting to work with Lindsay.

"Sometimes when a horse comes from the track with something like a chip, they're seen as damaged goods," said Lindsay. "But I chose him as my project horse. Then he had a minor injury in the field, a scrape, and he was as quiet as could be when I was taking care of it. From the beginning, he truly was a pleasure. He has his quirks, but he enjoys his job and he is lovely to handle. He's tall, dark and handsome, and he's just stunning, very regal."

After she began working with B K's Angus, Lindsay realized he had plenty of potential and ability, especially for jumping. He was also a ready, willing and able student.

"In the past, Thoroughbreds had a reputation for being hot-blooded, but I think Thoroughbreds have great personalities, like Angus," she said.

"They're always upbeat, they love their jobs and love to please their owners. It's a great breed of horse."

Lindsay also found out that Angus traveled well, experience learned from shipping during his racing days. And despite his relative greenness at his new job in the show ring, he finished 13th of 95 in eventing, and 45th of 135 overall at the Thoroughbred Makeover.

"While not in the top ranks, it was a really good showing for a horse that was new to it all," she said. "I wanted the Thoroughbred Makeover to be a good experience for Angus, so I had no expectations."

"It thrills me to my heart that someone cares for 'Angus,'" said Terry Sanfratello. "And he looks so good in the show ring, I'm very proud."

With such a bright future ahead of him, B K's Angus will now get some downtime this winter at Full Gallop, as Lindsay said she doesn't want to rush or push him.

"I found out that he's an upper-level horse," she said. "And at the Thoroughbred Makeover, I definitely wanted to do my best and make Turning For Home, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders and Parx Racing proud of him. I hope Angus and I did that." ■

A Letter From the Executive Secretary

The 2019 breeding season is shaping up to be our best ever. With new stallions being added to the roster, our breeders have plenty of top-quality choices for their mares. New stallion information is enclosed in this edition. Don't miss the scheduled open houses to see them up close. Stay up to date on the latest information on our Facebook and Twitter pages.

The November sales are a good time to pick up your next PA-Bred or mare in foal. Over 80 are entered, including graded-stakes winners Daisy and Dixie Serenade, bred by Jonathan Sheppard and Fantasy Lane Stable, respectively. Remember that mares in foal must be brought to Pennsylvania within 14 days of purchase to begin the PA-Bred domicile requirement.

Another reminder that broodmare domicile forms are due in our office by December 1. Please see PABred.com for the full requirements to become a registered PA-Bred.

Pennsylvania Broodmare Domicile Requirements & Registration Eligibility for 2019 Foals

Please note the following broodmare domicile requirements for the 2019 crop of foals. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up again this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority.

- The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
- The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state.
- The dam of the foal arrived after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided SIXTY (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

Domicile forms can be found online at www.pabred.com/forms. Please DO NOT use any prior year forms as they have changed. We prefer online submissions, but if you are unable to submit the form online, you can print out a report and mail it, or let us know and we'll send a copy to you.

SIX-FIGURE PA-BRED YEARLINGS AT FT FALL SALES

A total of 54 Pennsylvania-bred yearlings sold at the Fasig-Tipton sales in October for a total of $1,268,200. Three sold for six-figures: two at the Kentucky sale held Oct. 22-25 in Lexington, and one at the Midlantic sale conducted Oct. 1 and 2 in Timonium, Md.

Leading the sales prices was a gray/roan Speightstown colt out of the winning Ghostzapper mare I'm Surprise bred by Blackstone Farm LLC. Purchased out of the Kentucky sale by powerhouse Zayat Stables LLC from the Taylor Made Sales Agency consignment, the colt is a half-brother to California stakes winner She's a Big Winner. His second dam is stakes-placed Wolfer, a daughter of Wolf Power (SAf) and full sister to graded winner Wolf Alert. Wolfer produced $653,459-earner and Kentucky Derby-G1-placed Steppenwolfer.

Also sold in Kentucky was a bay Pioneer of the Nile colt bred by Cornerstone Thoroughbreds LLC. Out of Medea (Ire), by Danehill Dancer, the colt consigned by Indian Creek Farm, agent, brought a final bid of $120,000 from Cromwell Bloodstock. Descending from the highly-successful Brushwood Stable family that includes three-time Grade 1-winning millionaire High Yield, he is the second foal out of his graded stakes-winning dam. Also found in the family is Canadian Horse of the Year Catch a Glimpse and champion and Irish classic winner Forest Flower.

At the Maryland sale, Hillwood Stable LLC went to $120,000 to purchase a Great Notion colt from the Woodford Thoroughbreds consignment. A full brother to multiple stakes winner Great Soul, the colt was bred by Steven Long and Jane Long out of What Am I Gonna Do, a daughter of Pennsylvania sire Partner's Hero.

The Longs have bred four foals out of What Am I Gonna Do. All have sold at public auction – the first, the filly Magic Soul (by Street Magician) was a $33,000 Midlantic yearling and resold for $95,000 at OBS at 2; Great Soul failed to bring her reserve as a yearling but, after racing for the Longs through 2017, brought $220,000 at last winter's Kentucky Mixed sale as a 5-year-old racing/broodmare prospect (she has earned $77,000 and was second in the Lyphard Stakes since); and the Street Magician colt Giant Captain was a $95,000 2-year-old at this past May's Midlantic sale.

The colt's prolific family includes dozens of stakes winners, including graded winner Street Magician and $680,170-earner Strike the Moon. ■

THE JOCKEY CLUB RELEASES 2018 REPORT OF MARES BRED STATISTICS

The Report of Mares Bred (RMB) statistics for the 2018 breeding season released by The Jockey Club show a continued decline nationally. But Pennsylvania numbers remained on the rise, up 8.3 percent compared to 2017, even though the number of stallions standing in the state dropped slightly.

Based on RMBs received through Oct. 16, 2018, The Jockey Club reports that 1,214 stallions covered 30,274 mares in North America during 2018. In Pennsylvania, the number of stallions reported standing decreased by 11.1 percent (32 in 2018 compared to 36 in 2017), but the number of mares bred rose to 610, after 563 were bred the previous year.

Nationally, the number of stallions declined 9.5 percent from the 1,342 reported at this time in 2017, and the number of mares bred decreased 5 percent from the 31,863 reported last year. The number of stallions covering 125 or more mares increased from 60 in 2017 to 62 in 2018. Based upon historical reporting trends, The Jockey Club estimates an additional 3,000 to 4,000 mares will be reported as bred during the 2018 breeding season.

Of the 32 stallions standing in Pennsylvania, a third covered more than 10 mares in their book. Northview PA's Uncle Lino once again was bred to more mares than any other stallion in the region. After covering 103 mares in 2017, the son of Uncle Mo bred 115 mares in 2018. Others with 20 or more mares were: second-year stallion Peace and Justice (73, Northview PA), the region's leading sire Jump Start (63, Northview PA), second-year stallion Red Vine (53, Xanthus Farms), Uptowncharlybrown (Diamond B) and Weigelia (WynOaks Farm) with 49 each, Lord Shanakill (30, Pin Oak Lane), and Talent Search (Diamond B) and Xixixi (Xanthus Farms), each with 25.

RMB statistics for all reported stallions in 2018 are available through the Fact Book section of The Jockey Club's website at jockeyclub.com. ■

PA-Bred Stakes Recap at Parx Racing

Plum Pretty Stakes

Barlar LLC's multiple stakes-winning homebred Imply pushed her earnings past the half-million mark with a decisive score in the Plum Pretty Stakes at Parx on Oct. 6. The co-favorite in the field of eight, the daughter of former Pennsylvania sire E Dubai rated behind a modest pace before launching her bid heading into the far turn of the mile and a sixteenth stakes. She caught veteran stakes-performer Disco Rose with a sixteenth of a mile to go and drew off to win by four lengths. Her final time was 1:47.64 as she recorded her eighth career victory.

The win pushed Imply's career earnings to $529,868 from 23 starts. It was the second stakes win of the year for the 5-year-old chestnut mare, and her fourth overall. She won this year's Lyphard Stakes at Penn National in June, and earlier in her career scored in the Mrs. Henry D. Paxson Memorial at Presque Isle in her second start at 2, and the Northern Fling Stakes in 2017.

Imply is the richest runner of seven starters for her dam, the stakes-placed Orientate mare Allude. Five of Allude's foals are winners, three of them stakes winners. She is also the dam of the 4-year-old filly Advert (by Lonhro-Aus), who finished third to her year-old half-sister in the Lyphard and was a stakes winner of the Malvern Rose at Presque Isle in 2017, for earnings of $226,458. Dancinginthecircle (2010, Divine Park) won the By The Light Stakes and was third in the Arlington-Washington Lassie-G3. The mare was sold for $100,000 at the Keeneland November sale the year she delivered Advert. ■

PEWTER STABLE

Experience the thrill of Thoroughbred Ownership... with one of the Northeast's leading operations.

A perennial leading trainer, KATE DEMASI has emerged as a major force in the Northeast. In 2016, Kate became the first female trainer in Parx Hall of Fame. She is again among the top 10 in the trainer standings. Adding to her total of well over a 1,000- career wins. 2016 will be her 13th consecutive year with earnings of over a million dollars for her runners! Kate also proudly serves as trainer director for the Pa Horseman's Thoroughbred Association at Parx.

THE DEMASI WAY...

Manageable numbers of horses and two full-time assistants help Kate maintain the quality of her training program. She is consistently able to bring her horses to their full potential by giving each the personal attention he or she deserves.

A LUCRATIVE CIRCUIT...

Year-round racing at Parx Race Track and summer racing at Monmouth Park, along with increased purses from legalized slots has energized Thoroughbred racing in the region, and been a boost for owners seeking the most return on their investments. Let Kate put you in the thick of one of the nation's most lucrative racing circuits.
