Warrior's Reward offers great value and potential

by Emily Shields

Bolstered by an exceptional breeders' award program, the stallion market in Pennsylvania has gained considerable momentum lately. Yet another top prospect has been added to the region for 2019, with Warrior's Reward coming in from Kentucky to settle at WynOaks Farm near Delta.

The stallion's $4,500 fee looks paltry compared to what he offers: a solid pedigree, a Grade 1-winning record, and average earnings per starter of $47,553. With just five crops on the track to date, Warrior's Reward has progeny earnings of over $17 million. Although $3.4 million of that was earned by juveniles, Warrior's Reward is adept at siring horses of all types.

"He can produce any kind of runner on any kind of surface," said Donald Brown, managing partner of Warrior's Reward. "He's had Breeders' Cup horses, he's had graded stakes winners, and he's had horses in claimers that go long and short. They dirt, they turf. He's capable of getting anything."

Warrior's Reward, by Medaglia d'Oro and out of the Seeking the Gold mare For All You Do, is the sire of Puerto Rican champion 3-year-old Exclusivo, 2018 Grade 3 winner Warrior's Club, and stakes winners Medal of Courage and Yockey's Warrior. The most notable runner he had the past year is Axelrod, who won the Indiana Derby-G3 and the Smarty Jones Stakes after placing in the Affirmed Stakes-G3 at Santa Anita. He finished second in the Pennsylvania Derby-G1 at Parx before trying the Breeders' Cup Classic-G1, ultimately earning $692,080 during the year.

Other stakes winners by the now 13-year-old stallion include T Rex Express, Battle Station, Requite, Strawberry Baby and Warriorscoutoutplay. He also sired 2015 stakes winners at Belmont Park, Gulfstream Park, and Woodbine Racetrack. His Tencendur ran in the 2015 Kentucky Derby after finishing second in the Wood Memorial Stakes-G1. Warrior's Reward has had 65 percent winners from starters, and was ranked 38th on the 2018 General Sires List ahead of the likes of Tiznow, Bodemeister, and Awesome Again.

Bringing Warrior's Reward to Pennsylvania was a lightning fast process. "We were shopping for a stallion and had put the word out," Brown said. "We got a list of names. Warrior's Reward was on it, and I knew immediately that's who we wanted, that was the one. The horse was only on the market about 24 hours."

Warrior's Reward has been shuttling the Southern Hemisphere season in Australia and was not scheduled to arrive in Pennsylvania until Dec. 20. "We are planning and hoping to do a stallion viewing with him on Jan. 5," Brown said.

Barbara Wheeler, who owns WynOaks Farm with her husband, Chip, said, "We are absolutely excited about having him. He's going to be a great addition to the Pennsylvania breeding program. He is a well-established stallion, especially after the accomplishments his offspring had this year."

Warrior's Reward had previously been standing at Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky, where he entered stud in 2011 for a fee of $15,000 after a successful racing career. He broke his maiden first out at Gulfstream Park, then won an allowance race at Churchill Downs four months later before embarking on a slew of stakes starts. Warrior's Reward finished second or third in the Dwyer Stakes-G2, Jim Dandy Stakes-G2, and the Northern Dancer Stakes-G3, but the best was still to come.

As a 4-year-old in 2010, Warrior's Reward won an allowance race before taking Aqueduct's Carter Handicap-G1, defeating the likes of Musket Man and future standout sire Munnings. He then placed in two more graded stakes events before trying the Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1 at Churchill Downs; Warrior's Reward finished fifth of 12 and has the distinction of defeating future grass titan Wise Dan in that race. Warrior's Reward retired with four wins and 11 top three finishes from 17 starts for earnings of $565,716.

Now that the impressively built stallion has moved from Kentucky to Pennsylvania, Brown has opted to do something a bit different with the horse's stud fee, officially listed as: "$4,500 Live Foal stands and nurses. Special consideration for mares foaling in Pennsylvania."

Brown explained, "The way the Pennsylvania breeding program works, there is a reward for stallion owners here in the state when there are offspring that race here. We thought that people who race in Pennsylvania should get a discount, because we have a chance of getting that money back down the road. If we have a lot of offspring on the ground in Pennsylvania, the return could be more than the $4,500 if someone gets a really nice runner."

For Brown, the draw lies in Warrior's Reward's pricing. "I love the value in him," he said. "He's a proven stallion that ranks anywhere from 30th to 40th in the overall general sire rankings, and at his price point he's simply a value. You usually have to pay a lot more to go to a stallion in that range."

Warrior's Reward will be one of two stallions at WynOaks this season; Weigelia also stands there. Wheeler is looking forward to that prospect, and joked, "It will make things a little busier to have both of them, but we're okay with that!" ■

Elusive Quality—I'll Get Along, by Smile

Hitting a homerun with addition of Hoppertunity

by Emily Shields

It isn't every year that a horse with as much class as Hoppertunity retires to the breeding shed.

Thanks to the efforts of the team at Northview Stallion Station, the remarkable, iron-willed racehorse is taking up residence in the Mid-Atlantic region for his very first season at stud at Northview PA. Between his proven female family and his undeniable resilience through a brilliant career, Hoppertunity is presenting local breeders with a rare opportunity.

Getting a horse of his stature—Hoppertunity earned $4.7 million with nine wins in 34 starts—to bypass Kentucky could have been a challenge, but Northview's General Manager and Director of Sales David Wade has been eyeing him for some time. "He was our first choice for Pennsylvania," he said. "There are criteria we have when selecting a new stallion—sire, female family, race record, and conformation. Obviously, if a horse is strong in all of those areas, he is priced too high for a regional market and he goes to stud in Kentucky."

Hoppertunity did have one area that gave potential buyers in the Bluegrass State pause: he is a son of Any Given Saturday, a royally-bred Grade 1 winner who moved from Kentucky, to Pennsylvania, and ultimately to South Korea as a stallion. "Being by Any Given Saturday, he wasn't pursued by the larger Kentucky farms," Wade explained. "But, the tail male or direct sire line is Distorted Humor, Forty Niner, and Mr. Prospector, so when you combine that with the race record and female family it was a no-brainer."

The race record stands out, even amongst some of Kentucky's best. A foal of 2011, Hoppertunity did not start until January of his sophomore season, breaking his maiden by 3 lengths in his second try. The horse that beat him on debut 26 days earlier was none other than future Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 hero Bayern, who retired three years before his one-time rival.

In just his fourth start, Hoppertunity won the Rebel Stakes-G2 at Oaklawn Park, stamping himself as a late but legitimate Kentucky Derby threat. He ran second to California Chrome in the Santa Anita Derby-G1 in his final prep race, but was withdrawn from the Run for the Roses just 48 hours before the race. He had been the morning line second choice.

After some time off, Hoppertunity made the most of a return to Churchill Downs, winning the Clark Handicap-G1 to close out the 2014 season. The Bob Baffert-trainee returned as a 4-year-old to win the San Pasqual Stakes-G2 in mid-January. Although he didn't win for the rest of the season, he raced through late November and knocked heads with some of the very best while never worse than fourth and earning nearly $600,000 that season, while simultaneously serving as a gallop partner for 2015 Triple Crown winner American Pharoah.

With his stablemate retired, Hoppertunity won the 2016 San Antonio Stakes-G2 by a nose over Imperative in February, then finished third in the Dubai World Cup-G1 in March before capturing a second Grade 1, the $1-million Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park. His earnings for the year totaled $2,337,750.

He defended his title in the 2017 San Antonio-G2 at Santa Anita, captured the Tokyo City Cup Stakes-G3 in his first start of 2018, and added the Brooklyn Invitational Stakes-G2 at Belmont that June. He was third or better in 22 of 34 starts, and raced his entire career for the ownership group of Karl Watson, Mike Pegram and Paul Weitman.

Conformation-wise, Hoppertunity was a $300,000 purchase at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale in 2012. Wade said, "Our offer was contingent on a veterinary exam and a conformation exam so I flew to Santa Anita the next day to see him. Conformation is one criteria we don't compromise on because the bulk of our clientele inspect our stallions. I've turned down a number of stallion prospects in the past based on their physicals but Hoppertunity didn't disappoint. In fact, I couldn't have been happier."

Lastly came his female family, which is currently active in the market. Hoppertunity's dam, the graded stakes-placed Unaccounted For daughter Refugee, has produced dual Grade 1 winner Executiveprivilege, and the stakes-placed filly Profit. She has nine winners from 12 starters for progeny earnings over $6.1 million. Refugee's dam, the Danzig mare Polish Maid, is out of National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame member Davona Dale.

Wade expects Hoppertunity to suit Pennsylvania and the rest of the region well. "Hoppertunity matches up well with multiple sire lines, but one I find interesting is Not For Love," he said. Hoppertunity's half-sister Profit is by Not For Love. "We know Not For Love works with his family," Wade said. "Having stood Not For Love his entire career at our Maryland farm, there are a lot of Not For Love mares in this area."

Hoppertunity arrived in Pennsylvania on Oct. 26 and is doing well, according to Bloodstock Manager Paul O'Loughlin.

"He settled in really well," O'Loughlin said. "He's a class act, and he is filling out well, and selling out well. He is going to breed about 100 mares. He has been very popular from all over the country. It's not every day that you get a horse in the Mid-Atlantic region that danced every dance and won $4.7 million. He raced all over the United States and Dubai, and wasn't afraid of anyone. Not to mention he used to be American Pharoah's dance partner."

Hoppertunity's only adjustment to life as a retired stallion was the move from warm California to Pennsylvania's winter. "It's cold coming from California," O'Loughlin joked.

Watson, Pegram and Weitman have retained a few breeding rights and plan on supporting their former star. Hoppertunity touched many who crossed his path, which Wade experienced during the horse's journey East.

"When Hoppertunity got on the plane to fly East, I was called by his attendant to let me know the colt was safely loaded," Wade recalled. "He told me they had flown together on other occasions and wanted me to know that Hoppertunity had as much class as any horse he'd ever flown with and was looking forward to being with him one last time. I could tell the gentleman wasn't just blowing smoke and that conversation meant a lot to me."

With the horse safely ensconced in Pennsylvania, the wait until breeding season is on.

"Hoppertunity was a sound horse who raced multiple years against top competition every time," Wade said. "There aren't many going to stud nowadays that have the opportunity to show they can do that. If he passes on his soundness, athleticism, and class, we've hit a homerun."

SHAMROCK ROSE

B.f., 2015, by First Dude—Slew's Quality, by Elusive Quality
Bred by Best A Luck Farm LLC

A winner of four straight stakes to complete her 3-year-old campaign, Shamrock Rose made the most of her final start when she got up to win one of the most exciting renewals of the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1, taking the spoils in a four-horse photo finish. Competing solely in stakes competition in 2018, she earned $848,076 with four wins and two second-place finishes in seven starts. Owned by Conrad Farms, who purchased the bay as a 2-year-old at Ocala in the spring of 2017 for $120,000, and trained by Mark Casse, Shamrock Rose also won the Grade 2 Raven Run at Keeneland, the La Lorgnette at Woodbine, and Presque Isle Downs' Malvern Rose, the latter by more than 10 lengths.

Bred by Brushwood Stable

The 2017 Eclipse Award-winning champion female sprinter as a 3-year-old returned in 2018 with a campaign geared at longer distances and more prestige. In four starts, all graded stakes as odds-on favorite, Unique Bella won three times, taking Grade 1 victories in the Clement L. Hirsch at Del Mar and Beholder Mile at Santa Anita, as well as Santa Anita's Grade 2 Santa Maria in her 4-year-old debut by nine lengths. She also finished second in Oaklawn Park's Apple Blossom Handicap-G1 while giving seven pounds to winner Unbridled Mo. While preparing for a fall campaign, the filly owned by Don Alberto Stable and trained by Jerry Hollendorfer fractured a sesamoid during a Saturday morning workout at Del Mar in August, which forced her retirement.

A Letter From the Executive Secretary

We'd like to send out a big congratulations to our PA-Bred Eclipse Award finalists: Unique Bella, bred by Brushwood Stable, in the Older Dirt Female category; and Shamrock Rose, bred by Best A Luck Farm, in the Female Sprint category. Good luck to both connections.

Our 9th annual PHBA Stallion Auction will begin Thursday, Jan. 17 at 12:01 a.m. and end on Saturday, Jan. 19 at 11:59:59 p.m. It will take place online at thoroughlybred.com and links will be posted on pabred.com to access the sale. Be sure to register with a free user account beforehand so that you'll be ready when the auction goes live. Simply click on the "registration" tab on the homepage to start the process. Throughout January, you'll be able to view the stallion seasons offered by going to our website at pabred.com. Seasons will be updated daily.

The new Stallion and Boarding Farm Directory is out. It was mailed out with the BloodHorse magazine to 10 states and Ontario and the interactive version is available at pabred.com. Use it to pick your next champion and purchase that season during the auction.

We wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year and a successful 2019!

PEACE AND JUSTICE PA-SIRED WEANLINGS TOP FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC DECEMBER SALE

Two Pennsylvania-sired weanling colts from the first crop of Peace and Justice were the top two prices at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December mixed sale held Tuesday, Dec. 4 in Timonium, Md.

The colts, consigned by Northview Stallion Station, agent, were led by Hip 141, purchased for $87,000 by LEB (Lane's End Bloodstock). The dark bay or brown colt was bred in Pennsylvania by A1A Racing and is the second foal for the Discreet Cat mare Frolicking Gal, a half-sister to graded stakes winner Azar from the family of graded winners Twilight Agenda, Coal Front and Woodlander.

In the ring three hips later was the Peace and Justice colt out of High Step Arch (by Arch), also bred by A1A Racing, who brought a final bid of $80,000 by Nick Sallusto, agent. The first foal for his dam, the dark bay colt descends from graded stakes winner Peinture Bleue, the dam of six stakes horses, including European Horse of the Year and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe-G1 winner Peintre Celebre and additional group winners Peinture Rare (Ire) and Pointilliste.

Peace and Justice, a winning son of top sire War Front, entered stud in 2017 at Glenn and Becky Brok's Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville, Pa., as the property of A1A Racing, and covered 38 mares his first year. The two weanlings sold at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale are his first offered at public auction.

Moved to Northview PA in Peach Bottom for the 2018 season, Peace and Justice was bred to 73 mares. An added incentive is offered to mare owners for the 2019 breeding season, as a bonus of $100,000 will be paid to the official breeder of record with the Jockey Club of his first offspring to win a non-restricted stakes race as a 2 or 3-year-old.

An exceedingly fast miler who won at the distance at Belmont Park and Santa Anita, Peace and Justice is out of Strike the Sky, a daughter of Smart Strike who also produced Dixie Stakes-G2 winner Hudson Steele and stakes-placed Lauren Byrd, dam of group winner Hakam and Blue Grass Stakes-G1 runner up My Man Sam. ■

PENNSYLVANIA RANKED THIRD IN NATION BY NUMBER OF GRADED STAKES WINS IN 2018

A total of 11 Pennsylvania-bred runners raced at the highest levels in 2018, winning 14 graded stakes — a number that ranked third in the nation behind only Kentucky and Florida for graded stakes success.

Four of the 11 won in Grade 1 company, with the eye-catching sprinter Army Mule becoming the first. His victory in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct in April to remain undefeated was sensational, and he ranked as one of the best horses in the nation after what would be the final start of his career.

Eclipse Award winner Unique Bella accounted for three graded wins, two Grade 1s — the Beholder Mile-G1 and Santa Maria-G2 at Santa Anita, and the Clement L. Hirsch Stakes-G1 at Del Mar.

A week after Unique Bella's win in the Beholder Mile June 2, Spring Quality got up to take Belmont Park's Grade 1 Manhattan in dramatic fashion on Belmont Stakes Day.

Shamrock Rose followed her first graded stakes victory at Keeneland in the Raven Run Stakes-G2 in October with a momentous score in the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 at Churchill Downs in November.

Juvenile colt Call Paul captured Saratoga's Saratoga Special-G2 in August. Winning in Grade 3 company were Cosmic Burst (Honeybee, Oaklawn Park), Daddy Is a Legend (Lake George, Saratoga), Dixie Serenade (Victory Ride, Belmont), Fahan Mura (Robert J. Frankel, Santa Anita), Page McKenney (Salvator Mile, Monmouth) and Pumpkin Rumble (Valedictory, Woodbine). ■

PA-Bred Stakes Recap at Parx Racing

Pennsylvania Nursery

Call Paul made the most of his first start in Pennsylvania, drawing off to win the final PA-Bred stakes of the season, the Pennsylvania Nursery at Parx Racing, as the 1-5 favorite by a resounding five lengths over Jump for Alex, who held off Splicethemainbrace for the place. Final time for the seven furlongs over a fast track was 1:25.73.

It was the fifth start of the year for the bay colt owned by Michael Dubb, David Simon, Bethlehem Stables LLC and Bruce Irom, and second stakes win. Call Paul burst on the scene at Saratoga in August with a frontrunning victory in the time-honored Saratoga Special, run since 1901. He followed with thirds in the Grade 1 Champagne and Grade 3 Nashua in New York.

Call Paul's first win came in his debut, a maiden special weight at Delaware Park in July, which he won by more than two lengths over eventual Grade 1 winner Mind Control. His seasonal earnings totaled $279,500.

Bred by Beatrice Patterson and Vicky Schowe, Call Paul is one of three winners from three starters for the Forestry mare Avani Force. Sold as a yearling for $20,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling Sale with agent Marshall W. Silverman, the son of Friesan Fire was a pinhooking home-run for Grassroots Training & Sales, who consigned the colt to the Midlantic sale the following May, where Mike Dubb made the purchase for $210,000.

Avani Force produced an El Padrino filly in 2017, who sold for $40,000 at Midlantic yearling sale, and had a Bullsbay filly in April 2018 before being bred to Uncle Lino. ■

ALL BREEDING FUND STAKES WILL INCLUDE A 25% PA-SIRED BONUS FOR 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD.

Pennsylvania Broodmare Domicile Requirements & Registration Eligibility for 2019 Foals

Please note the following broodmare domicile requirements for the 2019 crop of foals. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up again this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority.

- The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
- The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state.
- The dam of the foal arrived after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided SIXTY (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

Domicile forms can be found online at www.pabred.com/forms. Please DO NOT use any prior year forms as they have changed. We prefer online submissions, but if you are unable to submit the form online, you can print out a report and mail it, or let us know and we'll send a copy to you.
