Talking Lucky with the McConnells

by Emily Shields

At 3:45 in the morning, John McConnell, his father Daniel Sr., and his brother Dan Jr. bounded from bed and prepared to fly. Men with family and work commitments, they could not afford to miss more than a day away from home. The earliest flight out of Philadelphia International Airport beckoned, shuttling them to Florida for the Gulfstream Park Mile-G2 on March 30.

The McConnells had made this trip before. They took the same route to West Palm Beach on Feb. 23 when their charge Prince Lucky won the Hal's Hope Stakes-G3 at Gulfstream Park in his return to the races. Few things can get them willingly out of bed at that hour, but traveling to see Pennsylvania-Bred Prince Lucky race – and then returning later that same day – is worth it.

"There's nothing like it," John McConnell confirmed. "I consider my dad and my brother to be my best friends, which made it an even more incredible day."

The senior McConnell has been involved as an owner for 30 years. "My earliest memories were going to Delaware Park with my dad on the weekends," John noted. "I was probably there from the time I was four or five years old."

The Wilmington, Del., family has made breeding in Pennsylvania their goal thanks to their single broodmare Lucky Notion. The daughter of Great Notion was a five-time winner in only 12 starts for Dan McConnell, who also co-bred her. "She is a beautiful and smart mare that ran hard and tough and showed her heart every time she ran," the elder Daniel said. "She has clearly passed these traits along to her offspring."

The first of those offspring is the winning Rimrod filly O Aubrey. The second is stakes-placed Saint Main Event, a daughter of Redeemed. The third is Prince Lucky, a son of Corinthian who has now earned $475,970 with six wins in 10 starts. He is being well-placed by trainer Todd Pletcher, who made the ultimate equipment change last year: gelding the unfocused colt.

"That was a very good suggestion from Pletcher, who has been amazing and fantastic to work with," John said. "It definitely seemed to focus the horse, and allowed him to get his mind to business."

It's not that Prince Lucky was slow before. After being broken by Karen Godsey at Eagle Point Farm, Prince Lucky broke his maiden first out at Delaware Park, winning by 5¾ lengths while under the care of trainer Larry Jones. The colt added an allowance race at Laurel and the prestigious Pennsylvania Nursery Stakes at Parx that season.

"We love Parx," John said. "It was incredible to see him win the Nursery there. When we go back there we have incredibly fond memories every time."

But after an off the board effort in the LeComte Stakes-G3 at the Fair Grounds, the McConnells moved Prince Lucky to Pletcher's string. "We were always high on him," John said. "Karen [Godsey] was equally high on him, and that's always given us the confidence in this horse to reiterate our belief in him. She was right on with her analysis of him."

In Pletcher's care, Prince Lucky finished third in the Sir Barton Stakes at Pimlico and then won the Easy Goer Stakes on the undercard of Justify's Triple Crown win at Belmont before going to the sidelines. When he returned in the Hal's Hope, Prince Lucky was measurably stronger, and has proven his prowess by winning three stakes in a row.

"The Hal's Hope was the first day I met Todd face to face, as well as the whole team," John said. "It's a dream come true to work with them.

I also met Nick Bush, his exercise rider, and jockey John Velazquez who is a Hall of Famer. Todd has been so caring towards us."

While the three McConnell men travel around to enjoy the races, John's mother and Daniel's wife Joanna stays home despite being, "the brains of the operation. I'm on the phone with my mom and my dad all the time trying to figure out what we're planning or doing next with breeding," John said.

Joanna's influence is felt across the entire McConnell family. "My mom was always pushing us to pursue our dreams and not be bound by financial constraints," John said. "She pushed education with us, so I'm a lawyer, my brother is a physical therapist, my sister is a lawyer. If I've said it once I've said it a hundred times: this family is made up of hard workers from Delaware."

Those hard workers had just one mare in 2014, Lucky Notion. Now they have ownership of two mares and a half-interest in a third. "We claimed a mare for $5,000 at Parx to breed to Uncle Lino," John said. "We are trying different things, looking for value where we can. We aren't commercial breeders. When you have just the one mare and she produces the Nursery winner, there's really an overemphasis on trying to do everything correctly while not breaking the bank."

When Saint Main Event retires, the McConnells will retain and breed her, as they will with Prince Lucky's juvenile half-sister, Lucky Olivia Rose. She is a daughter of the late El Padrino, who will join Pletcher's string later this year. Pletcher also trained graded stakes winner El Padrino.

"We will grow our broodmare band organically," John said. "All these mares will be sisters to Prince Lucky, which will be incredible."

All of it is because they want to pursue the Pennsylvania-Bred program. "The program is tremendous," John said.

Daniel added, "I believe [Lucky Notion] epitomizes the greatness of the Pennsylvania-Bred program, as she is a PA-Bred that not only ran her entire career in Pennsylvania, but has also produced five PA-Bred foals, including two stakes horses from her first three runners. We are lucky to have her."

Their love of Lucky Notion, who boards at Northview and has been bred to Goldcents this season, is inspiring. "We really love the mare," John said.

"She walks around like a queen," Daniel said, "and some of my fondest memories are taking my grandchildren to Northview to see her and her babies and feed her carrots and peppermints." ■

Winchill Fulfilling Promise for DeMasis

by Linda Dougherty

Kate DeMasi has been around the racetrack long enough to know what qualities in a racehorse will also make a good sire.

Thus, when Winchill, whom she trained on behalf of her own Pewter Stable in partnership with Alex Karkenny and the late Robert P. Levy, was nearing the end of his racing days, it was decided that the combination of his pedigree and athletic ability would translate into a successful career at stud.

There was a lot to like about Winchill. On the track, he won or placed in 12 of 22 starts, competing every year from 2 to 6 and earning $288,294. He won his debut by 5 lengths, and later captured the First Responder Stakes at Parx Racing while placing in three more. In his last seven starts, he rang up Equibase speed figures in excess of 100, topped by a career-high number of 116 while finishing second in the Roanoke Stakes at Parx.

His pedigree made him a very attractive stallion prospect, being a son of leading sire Tapit out of the Phone Trick mare Exclusive Hold, a Grade 2-placed runner who hails from a outstanding female family with Claiborne Farm roots, including champion Group 1 winner and Grade 1 winner Lailani and sires Gay Fandango and Always Fair.

And, like Kate DeMasi and her husband Greg (who handles the stallion end of their business) hoped, Winchill is off and running at stud, as a trio of sophomore runners from his first crop recently found the winner's circle.

On Feb. 11, Word On a Wing became Winchill's first winner when he romped by 16½ lengths in a $37,250 maiden special weight for Pennsylvania-breds at Parx, leading all the way in the six-furlong test for DeMasi, who also owns and bred the 3-year-old gelding.

About two weeks later, across the country at Santa Anita, You Must Chill broke his maiden in a one-mile turf test, never headed under the handling of Mario Gutierrez for trainer George Papadromou.

And on March 23, the Winchill-sired entry of debut runners Zen Archer and Colonel Dax ran one-two in a Pennsylvania-bred maiden special weight at 5½ furlongs at Parx, both owned and bred by Pewter Stable, and trained by DeMasi.

It's a promising start for Winchill, who returned to Pennsylvania this season after having stood in West Virginia the last two years. The bay now holds court at Boggs Shoemaker's Timber Ridge Farm in Felton, Pa., for $3,000 live foal, with special consideration for Pennsylvania-foaling mares.

"I truly believe if Winchill gets the support he will be a very useful Pennsylvania sire," said Kate DeMasi. "He could sprint, but he was a better router. We ran him on the turf a few times and he ran well, but he didn't have a lot of opportunities on the turf. He throws honest, sturdy horses, just like him."

Greg DeMasi said that, soon after Word On a Wing's dominating maiden score, the phone started ringing with breeders wanting to send mares to him.

"He's been very popular since then," said Greg. "His book this year will be more than 30 mares."

Greg added that the foals Winchill throws are sensible, professional, and eager to learn. The stallion himself "is very correct, was very sound, has a nice shoulder and good bone," he said.

New to PA for 2019

3rd in his debut in Nov., WORD ON A WING widened his lead to 15 at the top of the stretch, then was taken under wraps nearly the entire stretch run to win $37,250 MdSpWt at Parx on Feb. 11th by 16 ½ in 2nd career start!

WINCHILL is a stakes winning son of three-time Champion Sire TAPIT, a Top 5 Sire for six years straight.

"Winchill himself was a barn favorite, and his babies seem like they've got his mental acuity," he said.

Under their Pewter Stable banner, the DeMasis bred Word On a Wing, who is out of the Fusaichi Pegasus mare Merry's Pegasus. Merry's Pegasus is out of Pewter's prized multiple stakes winner Merry Princess, a daughter of Polish Numbers who was a very consistent performer primarily as a turf sprinter, winning or placing 21 times from 25 starts, earning $319,164.

Merry Princess produced many good runners for Pewter, including stakes winner Merry's Honor, who won the Marshall Jenney Handicap and earned nearly $300,000, and stakes-placed Zensational Merry ($208,638).

Word On a Wing's maiden-breaker impressed Kate DeMasi, who said he'd trained well up to the race, but performed like "he was in a different area code."

"He was so professional, which is what I'm seeing from all the Winchills. They love their jobs," she said. DeMasi, a Maryland native, cut her teeth in the sport as an assistant to trainer Dick Dutrow before getting her own license in 1984. She's now saddled more than 1,400 winners that have earned in excess of $30 million in purses.

While Word On a Wing is based in Pennsylvania, and earning Pennsylvania-bred owner, breeder and stallion bonuses for the DeMasis, the gray or roan You Must Chill is based in California.

"You Must Chill is out of a mare that I used to train for owner Mark Grier, Only Me [by Runaway Groom]," said Kate DeMasi. "When Winchill went to stud, Mark went ahead and bred Only Me to him. Only Me was a very useful mare; she was very honest and never ran on the dirt, she was a turf sprinter [earning $192,485]. You Must Chill was entered as a yearling at the Timonium sale, and I always liked the mare, so we bought him [for $4,500 out of the consignment of Becky Davis]."

After the sale, the DeMasis were approached by bloodstock agent Patti Miller, who said she had a client looking for a Pennsylvania-bred, and really liked the colt, saying he 'checked all the boxes.'

"I loved You Must Chill," said Miller, partners with Jeff Seder in the very successful EQB bloodstock agency, based in East Fallowfield, Pa. "I gave him good marks, and I was surprised he didn't sell for much, so I made an offer after he went through the ring. I had bought Winchill at an OBS horses of racing age sale [for $45,000], and so had always liked him."

Miller's client turned out to be Olympian Bode Miller, who decided not to keep You Must Chill in Pennsylvania, but instead shipped him to California. The colt debuted at Del Mar last summer but didn't start to show much talent until he was placed on the turf in late autumn at Santa Anita. That led to his first victory Feb. 28, in which he was sent off as favorite over seven rivals.

Zen Archer, who led a Winchill exacta with his stablemate Colonel Dax, was never headed in winning his debut under Angel Rodriguez, his only challenger being Colonel Dax, who "finished strongly," according to the Equibase chart. Zen Archer is out of the Bellamy Road mare Road to Utopia, while Colonel Dax is out of Gianna's Princess, by Point Given.

Now that Winchill has returned from West Virginia and his progeny are winning... it's no wonder that there's renewed interest from Keystone State breeders. Through March 23, he's had five runners, three winners, and a runnerup, with purse earnings of nearly $100,000.

"I believe Winchill will be a very useful sire, and that's especially good because of the bonus money available to Pennsylvania-breds," said Kate DeMasi. "We're happy that he's back."

For more information about Winchill, contact Greg DeMasi at 609-330-1819, or Timber Ridge Farm at 717-244-6700. ■

Senior Senator Joins Maryland Hunt Cup Immortals

Senior Senator, the PA-Bred champion steeplechaser of 2016 and finalist for 2018, subject of a feature on 60 Minutes, and a rogue runner at the track who continues to challenge his connections, won his third Maryland Hunt Cup in dramatic fashion on Saturday, April 27. He becomes only the ninth horse in the race's 125-year history to retire the Challenge Cup by winning three times, and the first since Joy Valentine's Cancottage (GB) in 1983.

Irvin L. Crawford II's big bay son of Domestic Dispute trained by Joe Davies went to the lead at the start of the four-mile timber classic and led for the first three miles before being passed at the 19th of 22 fences. As he and rider Eric Poretz crossed the road to go after leader Drift Society (Ire), Senior Senator slipped and nearly fell on the mulch surface. Regaining his stride, he advanced steadily, drew even going into the final fence and landed with the lead, which increased to 4 lengths as he drove to the finish.

Senior Senator has made a dozen starts over timber since his first one at Genesee Valley in October 2014, and has been first or second in 10 of them. Since 2015 he's made just two starts a year – in addition to his Hunt Cup starts, he has won three consecutive runnings of the Grand National Timber Stakes. An injury from a fall during the running of the 2017 Hunt Cup nearly ended his career when he was diagnosed with a fractured vertebra. A year later he was back to win both the Grand National and Hunt Cup.

Winner of this year's Grand National by an incredible 30½ lengths, and adding the $100,000 Maryland Hunt Cup, he boosted his career earnings to $289,756 from 20 starts with seven wins, five seconds and a third. Bred by Charles C.D. McGill, he launched his career for his breeder at Penn National with trainer Flint Stites and managed two seconds and a third in five starts, all for a tag, before being sold privately in the summer of 2013 to Blythe and Joe Davies. Out of the Awesome Again mare Queen Kennelot, he is a half-brother to 2018 PA-Bred stakes winner Johnny Jump Up.

PA-Bred Stakes Recaps: Parx Racing

Trained by Ed Coletti Jr., the son of Pennsylvania sire Uptowncharlybrown launched his career last September, winning a Parx maiden special weight in his first start, and captured three in a row from November to January. Bred by Godric LLC, he is the second foal out the Speightstown mare Torchwood – Midtowncharlybrown has earned $341,508, with eight wins in 18 starts and captured last year's Fabulous Strike Stakes.

Bred exclusively to Uptowncharlybrown, Torchwood is also the dam of 3-year-old filly Charly's Charm, who has been on the board in all four of her starts, the unraced 2-year-old colt Charly's Assassin, and a yearling filly.

Foxy J. G. Stakes

Winner of five of her last seven starts going back to May 2018, Zipper's Hero got her second stakes win in the Foxy J. G., scoring by 2½ lengths while leading at every call and defeating 11 others. The 6-year-old daughter of Pennsylvania stallion Partner's Hero zipped through an opening quarter in :22.93 and half mile in :46.07, opened up a 6-length lead into the stretch and galloped home to stop the clock in 1:25.12 for the seven furlongs.

Trained by Ed Coletti Jr. for Mario O. Mangini, Zipper's Hero won last fall's Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial Stakes as the even-money favorite, getting the six furlongs in a snappy 1:09.96. Recently named 2018 champion older female at Parx by the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, Zipper's Hero has nine wins in 26 career starts and pushed her total earnings to $401,892. Bred by Peter Giangiulio, Zipper's Hero is out of Open Zipper, a winning daughter of City Zip who has also produced Zipper's Hero's 4-year-old winning full sister Double Cross. The mare's last registered foal is the 3-year-old filly Opening Song, by Mad Flatter, who has yet to start. ■

Pennsylvania Broodmare Domicile Requirements & Registration Eligibility for 2019 Foals

Please note the following broodmare domicile requirements for the 2019 crop of foals. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up again this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority.

- The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
- The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state.
- The dam of the foal arrived after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided SIXTY (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

Domicile forms can be found online at www.pabred.com/forms. Please DO NOT use any prior year forms as they have changed. We prefer online submissions, but if you are unable to submit the form online, you can print out a report and mail it, or let us know and we'll send a copy to you.
