LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

What a great day for this year's Pennsylvania Derby. The handle that day of $13,799,454 crushed the previous all-time high and our PA-Bred Alphabet Soup Handicap, with a purse of $200,000, ended the day with $2,500,000 of it!

Please take a look at our first ever PA-Bred online auction (info in this issue). We've partnered with Wanamaker's digital sales and are excited that we can offer this benefit to our breeders. Please contact Liza Hendriks for entries.

It's that time of the year again when we get a chance to look at our new crop of 2yo's. We'll get a chance to see the best PA-Breds compete in two stakes with newly elevated purses of $200,000. The Shamrock Rose will run on Nov. 26 at Penn National for fillies at 6 furlongs, and the Nursery on Dec. 7 at PARX at 7 furlongs. Wow! I can't wait to see them. Maybe we'll see a PA-Bred in the winner circle the first Saturday in May!

Please remember, for the foal crop of 2022, broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, 2021, or within 14 days of a public sale (60 days of international sale) or breed back to a PA-Sire. The domicile submission form is available online now at www.pabred.com/forms. If you cannot submit online, please call our office to make other arrangements. Please do not use an old form as they are changing this year.

Our annual Stallion Directory will be published in December so please make sure all information is sent in by Oct. 15. Online registration is up and running. If you did not get login credentials emailed to you, please contact our office. Go Pa!

PHBA Announces Inaugural Online Auction Hosted by Wanamaker's

Wanamaker's will host the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association's first-ever online auction. The sale will be a mixed sale open to Pennsylvania-bred weanlings, yearlings, and racehorses, in addition to broodmares and broodmare prospects owned by a PHBA member.

"We are excited to partner with PHBA for their first online auction of PA-breds and utilize the platform in a way that can make state-bred horses more accessible," said co-founder Liza Hendriks. "We will maintain our normal monthly sales while adding in feature sales."

"PA-breds have made their mark both in Pennsylvania and across the country," remarked PHBA Executive Secretary Brian Sanfratello. "We wanted to give our breeders an opportunity to have a venue to showcase their horses. With owner bonuses up to 40% and breeder awards up to 50% we're sure buyers will take a look at our program."

Entries for the Pennsylvania-bred sale will close on October 19th, the catalogue will be released on October 20th, and the horses will sell on October 28th. The entry fee for the Pennsylvania-bred sale will be discounted to $150 and commission will remain at 5% on sales and 0% on RNAs.

WELL SPELLED - SPELLING IT OUT IN PROGENY EARNINGS

The son of Spellbinder is exceeding expectations.

BY EMILY SHIELDS

There's no way around it: Well Spelled puts up some truly staggering statistics.

The 12-year-old Godstone Farm stallion has 61% winners from starters this year, and is 67% in the same category lifetime. His average earnings per starter of $40,599 is 27 times his stud fee, and 13% of his juvenile starters become stakes winners.

Co-owner Frank Vento said, "At one point, he had 10 runners in a row amass five wins, four seconds, and a third at four different tracks!" Such is the legend of little-known Well Spelled.

The son of Spellbinder—Well, by Well Decorated has started to turn heads. "Trainers of the horses that his offspring beat are starting to notice," said Judy Barrett, Godstone Farm owner and manager. "For $1,500, he's just incredible."

What made Well Spelled such a special stallion? Sire Spellbinder was a $375,000 yearling purchase by Jerry and Ann Moss of Zenyatta fame. He broke his maiden at Santa Anita in 2003 while under the tutelage of Richard Mandella, defeating future Grade 2 winner Wimbledon. In 2006, after a solid career in the allowance ranks, Spellbinder jumped up to win both the Grade 2 San Antonio Handicap and the Grade 3 Berkeley Handicap. He retired a few dollars short of half a million in earnings and 15 top-three efforts in 29 tries.

Well started just six times, winning twice in Kentucky. The Well Decorated filly may not have lit up the racetrack, but she ultimately produced first Well Spelled, and then Grade 2-winning millionaire Kobe's Back in 2011. That popular colt was a stakes winner at 2, 3, 4, and 5!

On the racetrack, Well Spelled exceeded expectations. Originally a $15,000 yearling purchase by Rod McVey, he was pinhooked as a juvenile for $50,000 in 2011. He broke his maiden sprinting at Aqueduct in his first race at 3 for the ownership group GSP Racing Stable and trainer Ben Perkins Jr., then quickly added an allowance race at Parx.

His stakes debut on the synthetic track at Presque Isle Downs went poorly; Well Spelled finished last in a field of seven. That left him as a 5-1 shot when he went to the post in the Grade 3 Jersey Shore Stakes at Monmouth Park. The $100,000 contest drew a field of six to go three-quarters of a mile on the main track. Under jockey Pablo Fragoso, Well Spelled sat last early, then rallied strongly to score by a length and a half.

"People in New Jersey remember him from that Jersey Shore Stakes," Vento said. "He showed then that he was a real special horse."

But it wasn't until his next win that Well Spelled cemented himself as a major contender. Following an allowance loss at Monmouth when third against older runners, Well Spelled was 14-1 in the $300,000 Gallant Bob Stakes at Parx on Sept. 22, 2012. He would face a stellar field, including Grade 1 stars Trinniberg, Private Zone and Currency Swap.

“All of that quality in that race?” Vento said. “That had to be my favorite performance.”

Well Spelled broke slowly as per usual, was last of eight more than a dozen lengths back, then rallied furiously to score by a half-length over Trinniberg, who subsequently won the Breeders’ Cup Sprint-G1 at Santa Anita. Private Zone, who retired with more than $2.9 million in the bank, finished third, with Currency Swap toiling in seventh.

The most impressive part of the win was that Well Spelled suffered an injury in the race. “He won that race with a fractured knee that happened coming out of the gate,” Vento said. “He showed tremendous heart. If he hadn’t gotten hurt he would have gone to the Breeders’ Cup Sprint. We were flying sky high when he won, but then there’s the heat in the knee and you just crash.”

Well Spelled did return to the races for a single start in 2013 and another five in 2014, but never won again. He retired with four wins, three seconds, and four thirds in 17 starts for earnings of $364,160.

“I was looking for a stallion,” Barrett said. “I knew that was the horse I wanted.”

Barrett met Vento when the owner wanted to stay on board as his partners opted to sell. Barrett obtained 75% while Vento kept his shares. “Since we started breeding him, they’ve all been runners,” Barrett said. “They all have speed, most hit the board, and they do well from stakes and allowances to claiming, long and short – they’re just runners.”

If that wasn’t enough, Well Spelled has a top class personality. “He’s absolutely super,” Barrett said. “You can put him next to a mare in the barn or paddock and he just talks to them over the fence. He’s easy to breed and stamps his babies; he’s built like a little ball and they have his muscular, strong build. Most have his super temperament, too.”

Well Spelled has had 20 winners from limited opportunities, including stakes winners Hockey Puck and Well Graced. Hockey Puck took the 2019 Pennsylvania Nursery en route to $208,488 in earnings, and Well Graced won the 2018 Strike Your Colors Stakes.

“I’ve been collecting mares for him,” Barrett said. “He’s never going to make it with just a handful, he needs a big, solid book. My real goal is to get him some really good ones.”

“He’s just now starting to attract outside attention,” Vento said. “There were only 36 foals in his first four crops, but this year he bred 30.”

A graded winner who defeated some of racing’s best with a superb personality to match? Vento summed it up best: “He’s a really special horse.” ■

Paul Conaway, Breeder & Owner of PA-Bred Millionaire Favorite Tale, Passes Away

Paul Edward “Ace” Conaway, Jr., 63 of Chester County, PA died suddenly on Sunday, September 19.

Born Dec. 2, 1957, in Wilmington, Del., he was the son of Paul E. Conaway, Sr. and Dora (nee; Rash) Conaway.

He graduated from Oxford High School, Oxford, Pa., where he was a star soccer player. After completion of high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Army.

He attended Cecil College, Cecil County Maryland, but decided to pursue a career in automotive sales. Over the course of his career he won many Top Salesman awards.

In 1997, Paul acquired Wanamaker Ticket Agency located in Philadelphia. He became one of the leaders in the industry.

Paul had many passions, but perhaps his first love was horse racing. His most winning horse, Favorite Tale, whom he bred, earned over a million dollars in the course of his career. Favorite was named 2014 Horse of the Year by the PA Horseman’s Association.

Paul was an avid sports fan and loved Philly teams most of all. He loved riding motorcycles, skeet shooting, bowling, golf and corn hole. He enjoyed concerts and theatre. He served on the board of the Philly Pops.

Among his many charitable pursuits, he served on the board of Father Martin’s Ashley, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation facility located in Maryland. He was also a long time contributor to the Shining Star organization that raised funds for the March of Dimes.

Paul, with his larger than life personality, lived life to the fullest. Most endearing of all to Paul were his beloved Judi, Gabrielle, their family, friends and many pets.

Bonner Hill Farms is a new thoroughbred breeding farm in Pennsylvania. Bonner Hill Farms is located in Littlestown, PA in Adams County. It was established in 2020 and is managed by Cristina Holmes (Breeder). At Bonner Hill Farms we provide client breeding & boarding services. The farm is located on 45 acres and has 6 large fields with shelters and 6 smaller fields, including two stallion paddocks. There is a main stable with 12 stalls as well as auxiliary stables with 6 stalls. There is also a large indoor arena.

Bonner Hill Farms is dedicated to the physical, social and mental development of young horses, through a safe and healthy foaling process. Breeding your mare requires ongoing dedication to her needs and that of her foal. Bonner Hill Farms offers breeding, stud service, boarding, mare care and foaling services. At Bonner Hill Farms we focus on quality over quantity.

Stallions Standing for 2022

Bonner Hill Farms hand selected our stallions, Pat On The Back and Capo Kane, from premier bloodlines. We understand that breeding selection for your mare is an important decision. Our breeding operation is conducted in a manner to maximize conception.

Capo Kane - Street Sense—Twirl Me, by Hard Spun 16.1h

Pat On The Back - Congrats—Accomplished, by Awesome Again

We are currently open to receive new mares that wish to breed with Capo Kane or Pat On The Back. We can either board them temporarily or through the entire foaling process. Cristina Holmes, Breeder, has foaled numerous mares in her short career and is considered a trusted breeder who cares for all horses as if they were her own. Her love for horses is what makes our breeding process so successful. She runs the farm efficiently using the knowledge she has gathered the past 5 years working and managing the breeding farm before it was acquired by Bonner Hill Farms. She is very proficient in Live Cover breeding with a high success rate. Bonner Hill Farms has a contracted veterinarian which provides his services 24x7 and as needed throughout the breeding process. Bonner Hill Farms is a beautiful, great Pennsylvania farm and very much a family business.

WINCHILL GETS FIRST STAKES WINNER

Tapit's son Winchill got his first stakes winner from his first crop after 5-year-old You Must Chill closed strongly to win the $200,000 Alphabet Soup Handicap in his stakes debut on Parx's Pennsylvania Derby Day card on Sept. 25.

A six-time winner in 17 starts, You Must Chill was bred in Pennsylvania by Mark Grier out of Only Me (by Runaway Groom) and is a half-brother to multiple graded winner Field Pass. He is owned by Jagger Inc., Morris Kernan Jr. and Yo Berbs and trained by Jamie Ness. (See more about the stakes win on page 26.)

Winchill, who retired to stud in Pennsylvania in 2015, stands at Timber Ridge Farm in Felton for $3,000 live foal. Bred in Pennsylvania and campaigned first by Heiligbrodt Racing Stable and later Pewter Stable, Robert P. Levy and Alex Karkenny, he won the First Responder Stakes at Parx, was three-times stakes-placed and his six wins included the last two starts of his career.

Twice a winner at 2, Winchill raced through age 6 and earned $288,294 in 22 starts.

Out of Phone Trick's daughter Exclusive Hold, a precocious filly who ran second in the Schuylerville Stakes-G2 and third in the Adirondack Stakes-G2 at Saratoga as a juvenile in three starts, Winchill is from the family of English champion filly Lailani (GB) and international group winners Faithful Son, Naheef, Ley Hunter, Always Fair and Punctilio.

From three small crops totaling 23 named foals, 13-year-old Winchill has 11 winners from 14 starters, who have average earnings of $59,513. ■

CAPO KANE NEW TO PA STALLION ROSTER

Capo Kane, daylight winner of the Jerome Stakes for 3-year-olds on Jan. 1 this year, has been retired and will stand his first season at Bonner Hill Farms in Littlestown. His stud fee is $2,500 live foal, with special consideration for multiple mares.

In four starts in just over three months, the son of champion and classic winner Street Sense won twice, by a combined 10¾ lengths while leading at every call, was second once, and third in Aqueduct's Grade 3 Withers Stakes. He earned $147,500 in five starts at distances from seven furlongs to a mile and an eighth.

He is the first foal of the Hard Spun mare Twirl Me, from an international family that includes Irish champion

Toscanini and Japanese group winner Satono Favor. His third dam, Tuzla (Fr), was a millionaire who won eight stakes including the Grade 1 Ramona on the turf and was second, missing by a neck to Silic (Fr), in the Breeders' Cup Mile-G1. ■

TURF MONSTER S-G3, PRX, $300,000, 3YO/UP, 5FT, 9-25.

Won - HOLLYWOOD TALENT

g, 10, Talent Search–Intrinsic Value, by Johannesburg. O-King Star, B-Kenneth L. Ramsey & Sarah K. Ramsey (PA), T-Juan C. Vazquez, J-Ricardo Santana Jr., $168,000.

3rd - Admiral Abe

g, 5, Midshipman–Precious Penny, by Harlan's Holiday. O-Stefcon Racing, B-White Diamond Inc. (PA), $28,000.

Hollywood Talent had been in graded stakes three times before. Hit the board in every one. So why did he go off at odds of nearly 109-1 in the 2021 Grade 3 Turf Monster Stakes?

He finished third in the race two years ago at 45-1. Attempting it for a second time, the 10-year-old son of longtime Pennsylvania stallion Talent Search had been in the winner's circle just once in a dozen starts since, after a Delaware Park claimer a year and two days before this year's renewal, in which he was snagged for $8,000 by owner/trainer Wallace C. Neilson. A few months later he was turned over to trainer Juan Vazquez.

In his three races leading up to the Turf Monster, Hollywood Talent, who now races for King Star, had two on-the-board finishes in starter handicaps this summer, and was a well-beaten fourth in the Marshall Jenney Handicap in August. Of the eight runners to enter the starting gate, he was one of three with triple-digit odds. The majority of the money landed on stakes-winning Saratoga course record setter Carotari and the marvelous Pennsylvania-bred filly Caravel, both dominant at five furlongs on the turf. They would deadheat for sixth.

As Firecrow and PA-bred Admiral Abe battled early, Hollywood Talent was running to his odds, several lengths back in seventh. Ricardo Santana Jr. got him moving on the turn, he surged past the favorites and kept going, drawing clear late to win by a length and a quarter. He paid his lucky backers $219.20 to win.

Having the most lucrative season of his career (5-1-1-1, $186,342), Hollywood Talent has been on the board in 30 of 52 lifetime starts while earning $635,071. A member of Talent Search's first crop out of the Johannesburg mare Intrinsic Value, he was bred by Ken and Sarah Ramsey, who also bred and raced his sire. The Ramseys had him when he won his 2-year-old debut at Keeneland in April 2013, and he followed with a second in Churchill Downs' Graded 3 Bashford Manor Stakes next out to put his sire on the map. In his third start he was third in Saratoga's Sanford Stakes-G2.

He competed in stakes and allowances at 3 and early at 4 before being sidelined for more than a year. When he returned he was dropped into claiming company, and promptly taken. Over the course of his career Hollywood Talent has recorded 12 wins, won or placed in nine stakes, and is the richest runner for his sire, who stands at Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville. ■

ROAMIN RACHEL S, PRX, $100,000, 3YO/UP, F/M, 6 1/2F, 9-6.

Won - CHUB WAGON

f, 4, Hey Chub–Takin the Plunge, by Lion Heart. O-Daniel J. Lopez and George Chestnut, B-Joe-Dan Farm and George Chestnut (PA), T-Guadalupe Preciado, J-Jomar Torres, $60,000.

Snapped win streak? No worries. Just start another.

Chub Wagon's unbeaten streak came to an end in the Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial Stakes in August when she led early in her ninth career start and faded late to finish second. She had run seven times in six months – was she maybe running out of gas?

Think again. In her two starts since, the 4-year-old big-bodied bay has added to her stakes tally, with wins in the Roamin Rachel and Plum Pretty, which increased her earnings to $533,600 in 11 starts.

Bred and owned by Daniel Lopez and George Chestnut and trained by Guadalupe Preciado, Chub Wagon made easy work in the six and a half-furlong Roamin Rachel on Parx's Labor Day card in early September, taking over before turning into the stretch and romping home by four lengths.

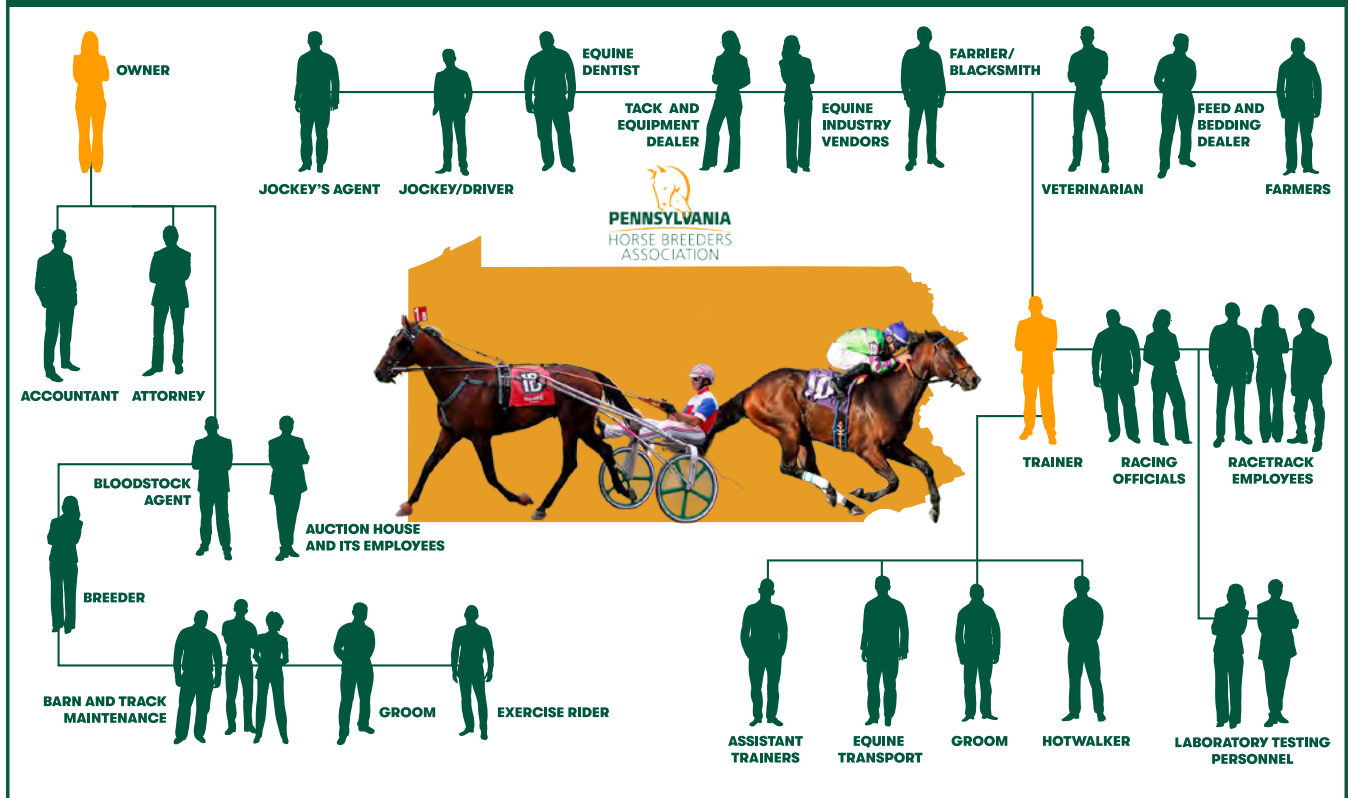

PC: EquiPhoto

Less than three weeks later she was one of the headliners on the Pennsylvania Derby day card, while facing state-breds in the rich Plum Pretty Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth. Stretching out beyond a mile for the first time in her career, she pressed the pace through soft early fractions, took over after three quarters and opened up a daylight lead in midstretch. Graded stakes winner Vault took aim, but Chub Wagon was game to the wire, holding on to win by a half length.

Chub Wagon is a result of generations bred by Lopez, who bred her multiple stakes-winning sire Hey Chub (who now stands in Pennsylvania), as well as her dam Takin the Plunge (by Lion Heart). ■

ALPHABET SOUP H, PRX, $200,000, 3YO/UP, 1 1/16MT, 9-25.

Won - YOU MUST CHILL

g, 5, Winchill–Only Me, by Runaway Groom. ($4,500 '17 FTMOCT). O-Morris E Kernan Jr., Yo Berbs and Jagger Inc., B-Mark Grier (PA), T-Jamie Ness, J-Frankie Pennington, $109,500.

2nd - Wait for It

g, 6, Uptowncharlybrown–Kimberley Diamond, by Posse. O-Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC, B-Fantasy Lane Stable (PA), $36,500.

3rd - Someday Jones

h, 8, Smarty Jones–Last Toots, by Concern. O-Just In Time Racing LLC, B-Patricia L. Chapman (PA), $18,250.

You Must Chill has had an interesting career. The now 5-year-old gelding from the first crop of Pennsylvania sire Winchill was sold by his breeder Mark Grier as a yearling and purchased by Pewter Stable, who raced Winchill, for $4,500 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale. When he got to the races the next August, it was in California under the colors of famed Olympic skier Bode Miller. A PA-bred racing on the west coast, the gray hit the board consistently but didn't get his first win until a maiden claimer on the turf in February 2019 at Santa Anita (racing for a $50,000 tag).

Eleven times he raced in California – at Del Mar, Los Alamitos and Santa Anita, recording one win, a second and four thirds – before making his way to Parx under new ownership. The change has been good for his new connections.

Making his stakes debut in the lucrative Alphabet Soup Handicap on Pennsylvania Derby day, after four wins and a third in five Pennsylvania starts, You Must Chill ran close to the pace set by Saratoga Jack, angled out for a run down the stretch and kicked clear to win by one and a half lengths over multiple stakes winner Wait for It. It was his sixth career win, and third on the turf, as he completed the mile and a sixteenth over a course rated good in 1:47.37.

PC: EquiPhoto

You Must Chill faced a full field of solid PA-bred runners, but recent form saw him go off as the favorite in the field of 10. Now trained by Jamie Ness for a partnership that includes Ness' Jagger Inc., Morris Kernan Jr. and Yo Berbs, You Must Chill pushed his career earnings to $263,762 from 17 starts, as he's now finished third or better in 12 starts.

The first stakes winner for his sire, who stands at Timber Ridge Farm in Felton for $3,000 live foal, You Must Chill is one of two named foals for the Runaway Groom mare Only Me – her other is $733,143-earner Field Pass, a multiple graded stakes winner on the turf. ■

3rd - Center Mid Maddie

c, 2, Uncle Lino–Wickedly Clever, by Clever Trick. O-Jamen Davidovich, B-Nicholas Fazzolari (PA), $13,200.

PC: Coady

The only first-time starter in the field of nine Pennsylvania-bred 2-year-olds sent out for the Mark McDermott Stakes at Presque Isle Downs on Sept. 13, Champion by Design proved more than ready for the task as he ran a very professional race to get up and win by three-quarters of length.

Tracking a quick pace of :22.20, :45.36 and :57.56, Champion by Design got boxed in around the turn and had to wait. Under veteran rider Scott Spieth, he was angled out three wide and dug in down the stretch to edge clear over even-money favorite Dr. Steve. Final time for six furlongs over the Tapeta was 1:10.12.

Bred by Stephen Mark Hayes and racing in the name of Jennifer Hayes, the gelded son of longtime leading Pennsylvania sire Jump Start is trained by Katy Cheeks. His dam More Than This (by Ghostzapper) was also a winner at Presque Isle before retiring as a broodmare. Her first foal, the 4-year-old Last Gunfighter filly Ettaplace no longer owned by the Hayeses, has placed three times this year in four starts at Presque Isle. The mare has a weanling filly by Social Inclusion and was bred this year to Warrior's Reward. ■

3rd - Advocate Harbor

f, 2, Poseidon's Warrior–Aunt Bobby, by Ecclesiastic. O/B-Swilcan Stables LLC (PA), $10,780.

PC: Coady

After a dazzling debut win at Monmouth Park on Aug. 7, the connections of 2-year-old filly You Look Cold looked immediately to stakes company. She tried Monmouth's Sorority Stakes next out on Sept. 6, but was never really a factor and finished a well-beaten fifth.

Take 2: In Presque Isle's Finest City Stakes just one week later, Kinsman Stable and F L I Racing's daughter of Frosted ran her second bang-up race, winning by three and a quarter lengths while getting six furlongs in 1:10.05.

Prior to the Sorority, her Monmouth-based trainer Rob O'Connor noted: "Mrs. Jessica Steinbrenner and her group, along with Christian Black, are the owners of the horse. We talked about moving forward and what our options would be. They want to give her the opportunity to be a good horse."

In her career debut, a six-furlong maiden special weight, You Look Cold dueled for the lead early, shook free nearing the quarter pole and pulled away to win ridden out by six and a half lengths.

"It's always ambitious when you go from breaking your maiden to a stakes race," said O'Connor. "She thinks she's a pretty good horse and she acts like a good one. . . I can tell you we're very excited about her potential."

Bred by Blackstone Farm, You Look Cold is the first foal out of Lucky Draw, an unraced daughter of Lookin At Lucky purchased by F.L.I. as a 3-year-old broodmare prospect for $10,000 at the 2018 Keeneland January sale. You Look Cold was offered at auction and left the ring an RNA twice – for $70,000 as a just turned yearling at Keeneland January in 2020, and for $37,000 at the OBS Spring 2-year-old sale the following year. In her three starts, she has earnings of $99,300.

Lucky Draw has a yearling More Than Ready filly who was a $185,000 RNA at Saratoga, and delivered a colt by the same sire in April. She was bred back to Gun Runner. ■

FLASHY LADY S., RP, $50,000, 3YO/UP, F/M, 6F, 9-26.

Won - CINNABUNNY

f, 4, Golden Lad–English Mum, by Congrats. O-Madaket Stables LLC, Michael Dubb, Michael R. Anspach and Michael J. Caruso, B-Shooting Star Stable (PA), T-Brad H. Cox, J-Joel Rosario, $30,000.

Eyecatching blaze-faced chestnut filly Cinnabunny has been special from the start. She won her first two career outings, has placed in graded stakes, and only twice has finished worse than third in a dozen starts (once was a fourth in Gulfstream Park's Grade 2 Inside Information Stakes). Trained by Brad Cox, she made her first trip to Remington Park and on Sept. 26 became a stakes winner when driving home three and three-quarter lengths on top in, fittingly, the Flashy Lady.

Bred by Michael Anspach's Shooting Star Stable and raced by her breeder six times (four of them wins) while trained by Kathleen Demasi, Cinnabunny was purchased privately after two fast, front-running allowance wins at Parx last fall by the partnership of Madaket Stables (Solomon Kumin), Michael Dubb and Michael Caruso, with Anspach staying in. Turned over to Cox, she made her stakes debut in the Grade 3 Sugar Swirl at Gulfstream last December and finished third.

The 4-year-old daughter of Golden Lad got a five-month break after the Inside Information and in her four starts since has raced at Churchill Downs (third in an allowance in June), Indiana Grand Race Course (won an allowance in July) and Parx (third behind Don't Call Me Mary and Chub Wagon in the Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial in August). The trip to Oklahoma City resulted in her sixth win and pushed her earnings to $216,960.

PC: Dustin Orona

Cinnabunny is the first foal for Pennsylvania-bred mare English Mum, whom Anspach raced and won two races with in late 2014 and early 2015. A daughter of Congrats, English Mum has since produced a filly by Uncle Lino in 2018 named Mo Mummy who has been working steadily but has yet to start; a full brother to Cinnabunny, now 2, named Windsor Gold; and a filly by Hoppertunity in February. She was since bred to Jimmy Creed. ■

PA-BRED ELIGIBILITY & DOMICILE REQUIREMENTS

A Thoroughbred foal born in the state of Pennsylvania and registered as such with the Jockey Club is eligible for Pennsylvania-Bred registration with the PHBA if one of the following conditions is met:

A) For foals of 2019 and thereafter, the dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since December 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back also fall under this category. Domicile form required by December 1.

B) The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after December 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase (60 days if outside the US) and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state. (Note: Must be a public sale – not a private transaction.)

C) The dam of the foal was bred back to a stallion standing in Pennsylvania which was registered with the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association as a Pennsylvania stallion during the breeding season of the year of foaling, and said dam of the foal resided in the state for at least sixty (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.
