LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

It's that time of the year again when we get a chance to look at our new crop of 2yo's. We'll get a chance to see the best PA-Breds compete in two stakes with newly elevated purses of $200,000. The Shamrock Rose will run on Nov. 26 at Penn National for fillies at 6 furlongs, and the Nursery on Dec. 7 at PARX at 7 furlongs. Wow! I can't wait to see them. Maybe we'll see a PA-Bred in the winner circle the first Saturday in May!

Please remember, for the foal crop of 2022, broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, 2021, or within 14 days of a public sale (60 days of international sale) or breed back to a PA-Sire. The domicile submission form is available online now at www.pabred.com/forms. If you cannot submit online, please call our office to make other arrangements. Please do not use an old form as they are changing this year.

Our annual Stallion Directory will be published in December. Look for the QR code in the December issue of the BloodHorse. Online registration is up and running. If you did not get login credentials emailed to you, please contact our office. Go Pa!

PA-BREDS SHINE AT THE RETIRED RACEHORSE PROJECT MAKEOVER

Finale featured eight state-breds including Page McKenney

BY AVERIE LEVANTI

With the 2020 Retired Racehorse Project Thoroughbred Makeover cancelled due to COVID-19, the 2021 edition returned with a “Mega Makeover” featuring the classes of 2020 and 2021. More than a thousand off-track Thoroughbreds competed in 10 different disciplines over the six-day event, including 25 Pennsylvania-breds.

After the preliminary rounds were completed, eight Pennsylvania-breds qualified for the finale, which welcomed back the top five finishers from each discipline for both 2020 and 2021. Five of nine PA-breds from the 2020 class qualified for the finale, while three 2021 entrants made the cut.

The most accomplished Pennsylvania-bred by race earnings in the Makeover was none other than millionaire Page McKenney, who competed in the field hunter discipline. A 2010 chestnut gelding by Eavesdropper out of Winning Grace, by Yarrow Brae, bred by Dr. James Bryant and Linda Davis, Page McKenney started his racing career with his eventual Thoroughbred Makeover trainer and rider, Jazz Napravnik. After breaking his maiden and completing the first 14 races of his career for Napravnik, Page McKenney was claimed for $16,000 at Penn National and moved to the barn of Mary Eppler. Eppler would train Page for the final 44 races of his career.

Over the final five years of Page McKenney's racing career, he hit the board in 34 of 39 starts, won 15 stakes and placed in 14 others. His stakes victories included the Grade 3 General George Stakes at age 6 and Grade 3 Salvator Mile two years later. Retiring in August 2018, Page McKenney won 22 races with 16 seconds and five thirds from 58 career starts for earnings of $1,905,940. He is the ninth richest Pennsylvania-bred of all time.

Returned to the care of original trainer Jazz Napravnik for his second career, Page McKenney took up fox hunting. The pair posted an initial score of 295 points in the field hunter division to make the finale, where their final score of 381.50 earned them third place. Page was also given the Iron Horse Award for the class of 2020, awarded to the highest-scoring Makeover "iron horse" – those foaled in 2010 or earlier.

Competing in the 2020 class for polo was Barwin, a 2015 gray/roan gelding by Scipion out of Peleliu, by Kelly Kip, bred by Jodie Pointer. Competing the majority of his racing career with trainer Todd Beattie at Penn National, Barwin broke his maiden at the Grantville track on his third try. He would find the winner's circle twice more the following year after shipping to Mountaineer. His racing career concluded in December 2019 after two seasons with three wins, two seconds and one third from 19 starts for earnings of $29,135.

Competing under amateur rider Sara Kolenda, Barwin recorded a round score of 12.50 and a total score of 50.00 to finish second in the 2020 polo class. The pair also competed in barrel racing, finishing 16th.

The 2020 eventing class featured Promoted, a 2015 gray/roan gelding by Jump Start out of Smarter Sister, by Maria's Mon, bred, owned, and trained by Hall of Famer Jonathan Sheppard. Racing only in Pennsylvania, Promoted broke his maiden at Presque Isle Downs on second asking. He finished first in the money eight other times over the all-weather track, retiring in November 2019 with one win, four seconds and four thirds from 15 career starts for earnings of $41,340.

With professional rider Lisbeth Storandt in the saddle, Promoted earned a round score of 240.69 en route to a final score of 300.47 to finish fifth in eventing for the class of 2020. Promoted will soon be offered for sale as a lower-level eventer.

Coming in hot in the 2020 barrel racing division was Monba Number Five, a 2013 gray/roan mare by Monba out of Nice Dilemma, by Silver Deputy, bred by DMD Thoroughbreds. Breaking her maiden first time out at Presque Isle Downs in 2016, Monba Number Five would go on to win three more races later that year at Mountaineer. She would win twice more at Mahoning Valley over the final few years of her career, retiring this past February with six wins, three seconds, and seven thirds in 39 starts for earnings of $51,285.

With professional Tessa Elton aboard, Monba Number Five recorded the leading score of 37.994 to enter the finale as the leader in the barrel racing division. Unable to best that score during the finale, she ultimately finished second overall. Since the Makeover, Monba Number Five has headed to Georgia and competed around barrels again.

Competing in the 2020 class for ranch work was Poised for Action, a 2013 bay gelding by Pure Prize out of A Little Action, by Quiet American, bred by John Penn. Purchased by John Servis for $35,000 as a 2-year-old, Poised for Action campaigned almost exclusively for Servis over a five-year racing career. With all five career victories coming at Parx, Poised for Action retired in June 2019 with five wins, four seconds, and four thirds in 34 starts for earnings of $206,718.

Mike Leverett, amateur rider, guided Poised for Action to a preliminary score of 105 points to secure the fifth and final spot in the ranch work finale. The pair improved their total score to 133 points to take home second-place honors in the event. Poised for Action also competed in competitive trail, finishing in eighth.

Barwin, Monba Number Five and Poised for Action all split the $2,500 prize for leading Pennsylvania-bred thanks to their runner-up efforts in their respective disciplines.

Gumdrop's Chiclet running barrels, ultimately moving to the finale in Eventing

Making the class of 2021 finale in eventing was Gumdrop's Chiclet, a 2017 bay filly by Uptowncharlybrown out of Gumdrop, by Lemon Drop Kid, bred by Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC. Owned by Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC and campaigned by Ed Coletti Jr. during her racing career, Gumdrop's Chiclet's best effort was a third-place finish in her second career start. She would retire in November 2020 with earnings of $3,368.

Along with professional rider Kaitlin Hartford, Gumdrop's Chiclet recorded a 244.85 in the initial eventing round before improving her score to 311.13 in the finale, finishing fourth overall in the division. An incredibly versatile horse, Gumdrop's Chiclet also competed in barrel racing, finishing eighth.

Competing in the 2021 class for show hunting was Grand Blue Harbor, a 2014 bay mare by Rockport Harbor out of Grand Miz Blue, by Grand Slam, bred by Silver Trail Stable LLC. Grand Blue Harbor recorded her only victory as a 5-year-old at Parx, retiring in September 2020 with one win, six seconds, and eight thirds in 34 career starts for earnings of $82,424.

With professional rider Rachel McMahan aboard, Grand Blue Harbor earned a 174.50 initial score to make the show hunting finale, where she improved to 232.50 points to finish fourth.

The $2,500 prize for leading 2021 Pennsylvania-bred went to show jumper Aiken Prep, a 2011 bay gelding by Friends Lake out of Dark Plume, by Labeeb, bred, owned and trained during his racing career by Glenn Thompson. Aiken Prep broke his maiden at Parx and recorded three additional victories at the track. He retired at the age of 9 in August 2020 with four wins, nine seconds and three thirds from 62 career starts and earnings of $241,467.

Competing under professional rider Emma Ayre, Aiken Prep recorded 164 points in the preliminary round before posting a final score of 237.50 to secure second place in the show jumping division. Aiken Prep was the Iron Horse Award winner for the class of 2021. Also competing in eventing, the gelding finished sixth overall, and looks to continue eventing and show jumping events in the future. He has since competed at the Virginia Horse Trials. ■

PA-BRED STAKES RECAPS

MARYLAND MILLION NURSERY, LRL, $100,000, 2YO, 6F, 10-23.

Won - BUFF HELLO

c, 2, Buffum-Spanish Dream, by Sharp Humor. ($26,000 '20 FTM YRL). O-Joseph E. Besecker, B-Sergio Gomez (PA), T-Claudio A. Gonzalez, J-Charlie Marquez, $55,000.

Facing a huge field in the $100,000 Maryland Million Nursery, his first start at Laurel Park, Buff Hello went straight to the lead, fought off challengers early and drew away late to get his first stakes win by two lengths on Oct. 23.

The Joseph Besecker runner posted opening fractions of :22.12, :45.21 and :57.62 and came home in 1:10.51 for the six furlongs under 18-year-old jockey Charlie Marquez.

"It was not an easy race, especially with the [post] position we had today," said trainer Claudio Gonzalez. "The [rail] position is really hard, especially with [14] horses and a lot of horses that have speed."

A maiden special weight winner July 31 at historic Pimlico Race Course, where he also led from start to finish, Buff Hello entered the Nursery off a sixth-place finish in the one-mile Sapling Sept. 5 at Monmouth Park.

"He had the blinkers on and I know, watching the replays, he kind of looked like a lazy horse, so we warmed him up good," said his rider. "I sent him out of there and he's the kind of horse you have to keep on going the whole way. He really dup in deep today. I got headed at the top of the stretch but I knew that I had a lot of horse, and coming to the wire was a great feeling."

PC: Jim McCue

Buff Hello was purchased by Besecker for $26,000 as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale. Bred by Sergio Gomez, the 2-year-old son of the late Northview stallion Buffum is the second foal out of the winning Sharp Humor mare Spanish Dream, and her second stakes performer – her current 3-year-old Latin Spice, also by Buffum was third in the 2020 First State Dash at Delaware Park and Maryland Juvenile Futurity at Laurel Park, and has finished in the top three in 13 of 16 starts while racing primarily in Ohio.

From five starts, Buff Hello has earned $96,675. ■

NEW START S, PEN, $100,000, 3YO, F, 6F, 10-22.

Won - JUST ONE TIME

f, 3, Not This Time–Ida Clark, by Speightstown. O-Warriors Reward LLC, B-Warrior's Reward LLC (PA), T-Michael W. Salvaggio Jr., J-Angel R. Rodriguez, $60,000.

2nd - Oxana

f, 3, Uptowncharlybrown–Its My Town, by Cowtown Cat. ($65,000 2020 FTMTYO). O-Tee-N-Jay Farm, B-Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC (PA), $20,000.

3rd - Secret Banker

f, 3, Central Banker–Secret Sea, by Cowtown Cat. O-Norman Stables LLC, B-Norman Stables LLC (PA), $11,000.

Talented 3-year-old filly Just One Time soared to her second stakes victory when taking the New Start at Penn National by five and three-quarter lengths on Oct. 22.

Sent off as co-favorite in the seven-horse field, Just One Time pressed the early pace off a :21.61 quarter, took over after the half in :45.24, and opened up entering the stretch. She stopped the clock for six furlongs in 1:10.07. Bred in partnership by her owners Donald Brown and Tom McClay under the name of Warrior's Reward LLC, it was her fourth win in five starts, and pushed her earnings to $171,795.

The daughter of Not This Time broke her maiden first out at Penn National in May, took the Malvern Rose Stakes at Presque Isle in July by four and a quarter lengths, and won a six-furlong g, 3, Liaison–Seeking a Diva, by Seeking the Dia. O-Tesla Stables, B-Mark A. Toothaker (PA), $11,000.

Beren's seventh win of the year, and fifth in a stakes, came in the Danzig at Penn National on Oct. 22, as he came home two lengths on top.

The 3-year-old son of Weigelia has earned $422,790 this year, which started with a second in maiden special weight company in January. He won his next two, and has raced in stakes ever since, capturing the Gold Fever and Paradise Creek Stakes at Belmont Park, the Crowd Pleaser and Parx Summer Sprint Stakes at Parx, and now the Danzig.

Sent off the 3-5 favorite in the Danzig, he took over leaving the quarter pole and held off his six rivals to the wire while running six furlongs in 1:10.27.

Bred and owned by Susan Quick and Chris Feifarek and trained by Butch

PA-BRED ELIGIBILITY & DOMICILE REQUIREMENTS

A Thoroughbred foal born in the state of Pennsylvania and registered as such with the Jockey Club is eligible for Pennsylvania-Bred registration with the PHBA if one of the following conditions is met:

A) For foals of 2019 and thereafter, the dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since December 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back also fall under this category. Domicile form required by December 1.

B) The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after December 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase (60 days if outside the US) and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state. (Note: Must be a public sale – not a private transaction.)

C) The dam of the foal was bred back to a stallion standing in Pennsylvania which was registered with the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association as a Pennsylvania stallion during the breeding season of the year of foaling, and said dam of the foal resided in the state for at least sixty (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.
