HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

I'd like to thank the Board members, stallion principals, owners and trainers, along with all who were involved in making the inaugural running of the Stallion Series a huge success. The excitement is already building for next year as the series expands! Remember that the 2023 Series will be run in three legs, SIX STAKES, at 5 1/2 furlongs for $100,000, 6 1/2 furlongs for $150,000, and a flat mile for $200,000. Each leg will consist of a 2yo race and a 2yo filly race. Don't forget about the $50,000 trainer bonus for the top three point-earning horses.

Nomination forms for the 2023 PA-Sired PA-Bred 2yo Stallion Series were recently mailed to all registered PA-Breds sired by a registered PA Stallion. The nomination fee for the series is only $200 if paid by December 31 of this year. If your horse was just recently registered and you didn't receive a form, you can go to pabred.com under 'Home' and print the nomination form.

As a reminder, the annual Stallion and Breeding Farm Directory will be published in December. Forms have just been emailed to our stallion owners and domicile farms to have your information listed in the directory. Don't miss out on this free service!

Please remember, for the foal crop of 2023, broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, 2022, or within 14 days of a public sale (within 60 days of a sale outside the U.S.) or bred back to a PA-Sire. We ask that you submit all broodmare domicile forms online. We will let everyone know when the new form is available. As usual, please contact our office with any questions you may have.

As you probably already know, Brody's Cause, a Grade 1 winner at 2 and 3, sired by Giant's Causeway, will be standing in Pennsylvania in 2023 at Equistar Farm. For more information contact Rodney and Sharon Eckenrode. Pennsylvania is the only place to Breed & Race and remember, you ain't seen nothing yet! Go PA!!

PA Derby Day PA-Bred Recap

by Averie Levanti

The sun shined right on Parx Racing for Pennsylvania Derby Day. Beautiful weather and a fantastic slate of top-quality horses brought droves of fans out to the Bensalem oval on Sept. 24. A record 10 stakes races made up the 13-race card, including four Pennsylvania-bred stakes.

Two $100,000 maiden special weights for juveniles attracted full fields of 14 to kick off the card. Race 2 saw PA-bred Rosie's Alibi open to heavy even-money favoritism. Breaking from the far outside post 14 and going six and a half furlongs, the filly contended the pace before drawing away to a five and a quarter-length score. Bred by Blackstone Farm LLC, Rosie's Alibi is sired by Triple Crown winner Justify and sold for $625,000 to MyRacehorse at the 2021 Saratoga Select Sale. Well over 100 micro share owners in the MyRacehorse partnership squeezed

Stakes action kicked off in Race 4 with the first Pennsylvania-bred stakes, the $200,000 Imply. The second and final race in the inaugural PA-Sired PA-Bred Stallion Series for 2-year-old fillies, a field of eight lined up in the starting gate. Flor de Sombra and Marion Grace, the 1-2 finishers of the first leg in the Miss Blue Tye Dye Stakes, returned, with the former going off the 3-5 favorite. Midnight Parade, the only shipper from Penn National in the race, collared the pace-setting Flor de Sombra at the top of the stretch before holding off rail-rallying longshot Pachelbel.

Midnight Parade was a two-length winner on the wire, becoming the first stakes winner for freshman sire Hoppertunity. Pachelbel, also by Hoppertunity, took second by one and three-quarter lengths over fading favorite Flor de Sombra, who held on for third over Marion Grace. Midnight Parade was bred by Sylmar Farm's Betsy Houghton, trained by Bernie Houghton, and owned by Hillman Racing LLC.

The Stallion Series wrapped up with colts and geldings in the following race, the $200,000 Prince Lucky Stakes. Nine 2-year-olds headed to the starting gate, but the complexion of the race changed rapidly when Ninetyprcentmaddie, first leg winner of the Whistle Pig and the favorite, was a vet scratch in the final minutes before post. The scratch left Gordian Knot a heavy 2-5 favorite. There would not be another upset, as Gordian Knot moved in around the turn and took a commanding lead heading into the stretch. He held off a late challenge from hard-knocking Keithsendshellooooo to record a two-length victory. Longshot Veeson was another three and a quarter lengths back in third.

Gordian Knot, who broke his maiden on PA Day at the Races, is a homebred for owner Joe Imbesi. The win was the second of the four Stallion Series races for Imbesi's stallion Social Inclusion.

The Prince Lucky concluded the inaugural Pennsylvania Stallion Series. The Series will return in 2023 with the plan to expand to three sets of two for a total of six races. An overall series nomination fee will be required for horses to be eligible for next year's races. The nomination form and fee breakdown can be found on the pabred.com website.

The $50,000 trainer bonus was awarded to the trainers of the top three horses who accumulated the highest points across the races. Trainer Lupe Preciado took the first-place prize of $25,000 for Flor de Sombra's 7 points from her first and third-place finishes. Keithsendshellooooo's two second-place efforts garnered 6 points for runner-up Ed Coletti, netting $15,000. A three-way tie for third split the $10,000 pot between Bernie Houghton, Butch Reid and Lupe Preciado for Midnight Parade, Ninetyprcentmaddie and Gordian Knot, respectively. The trainer bonuses for the Stallion Series will be awarded at Parx on Tuesday, Oct. 18 following the PA-Sired PA-Bred Jump Start Stakes.

The $200,000 Plum Pretty brought together top fillies and mares going two turns on the dirt. Even following the scratch of fan favorite Chub Wagon, it still promised to be an exciting matchup between runaway Mrs. Penny winner Love in the Air and Leader of the Band, who was coming off a listed stakes win at Saratoga. Love in the Air took advantage of Chub Wagon's absence by heading to the lead and setting a measured pace despite pressure from Midnight Obsession early. She held a length and a half lead on Leader of the Band heading into the stretch and had plenty in reserve to hold off her stablemate for a two-length victory. It was the second consecutive stakes victory for the Blackstone Farm-bred who has hit the board in 11 of 12 career starts.

Open stakes action followed the three PA-bred stakes, with the listed $200,000 Parx Dirt Mile the first on the docket. Defending champion Mind Control, a seven-time graded stakes winner, was the heavy favorite to take the riches again. Pennsylvania-bred Far Mo Power, a 13-1 longshot, took the lead early and held a narrow advantage over Mind Control down the backstretch. As the favorite loomed alongside turning for home, Far Mo Power battled back gamely and refused to let him pass. Crossing the wire, he still held a neck advantage over his rival, but an objection was immediately logged by Mind Control's rider. The two had brushed approaching the wire, and Far Mo Power was ultimately disqualified and placed second. Bred by Peter Giangiulio, the son of Uncle Lino out of the stakes-placed Power by Far mare J.D. Safari has finished in the exacta in eight of 10 career starts and proved his mettle against top quality competition in the Parx Dirt Mile.

Of the two Grade 1, $1 million races on the card, PA-bred Morning Matcha represented the home team in the Cotillion Stakes for 3-year-old fillies. Let go at 49-1, the filly rallied from 14½ lengths back in last to pass everyone except the runaway winner, running down Kentucky Oaks-G1 winner Secret Oath to snag second place. Morning Matcha was bred by Crane Thoroughbred Services LLC, was an $18,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall sales yearling, and has earned over $632,000 so far in her career.

Closing out the banner card was the $200,000 Alphabet Soup Handicap for PA-breds on the grass. As the sun set over Parx Racing, nine horses broke from the starting gate. Heavily favored Buy Land and See allowed longshot O'Brien to take the early lead before taking over shortly after and holding the advantage the rest of the way around. Opening a six-length lead turning for home, he rolled home a comfortable three and a quarter-length winner over Midnight Hauler and Crisper.

Bred and owned by Joe Imbesi, Buy Land and See recorded his second PA-bred stakes win of the year following his With Anticipation victory at Penn National in June. ■

Leader Of The Band Plays Sweet Music For Schwartz

by Cindy Deubler

Will Schwartz had his horses with trainer John Servis for about a year when he noticed a filly racing at Philadelphia Park in the spring of 2004.

“I had horses for maybe five, six, seven years,” recalls Schwartz, who owns and breeds under the stable name SMD Ltd. “Been pretty much just buying some yearlings, claiming some horses. And finally I said I wanted to start breeding my own.”

Catsuit, a daughter of Sir Cat out of a Screen King mare, looked to fit the bill. But Servis was in the midst of one of the greatest media crushes in racing history as he was preparing Smarty Jones for a Triple Crown bid.

A stakes-placed runner who ran mostly in allowance company, Catsuit had a few wins and was finally dropped into a claiming race. In the winter of 2004 she had been off four months when she returned for a $32,000 tag in early May and ran second. Her next start came May 25, about a week after Smarty Jones won the Preakness. She was in for the same price and Schwartz wanted to drop the slip.

“John was very very busy and I also had horses with Don Reeder,” said Schwartz. “I reached out to Don to claim Catsuit only because I thought John was a little too focused on other things and I didn’t want to bother him claiming a filly at Parx.”

The claim proved more rewarding than Schwartz or Servis could have ever dreamed.

Catsuit, now 22, has given Schwartz 10 foals. Eight of her nine starters have won. Four of her runners are stakes performers, led by Leader of the Band, who fulfilled a dream for Schwartz when she became his first homebred to win a stakes at Saratoga. That came in the mile and an eighth Summer Colony Stakes on Aug. 19 where she drove home three-quarters of a length in front under a hand ride.

Last year Leader of the Band hit another milestone for Schwartz, as his first homebred graded stakes winner when taking the Grade 3 Monmouth Oaks at Monmouth Park. She had a fantastic year at 3, winning or placing in six of her seven starts, including a third in the Grade 3 Delaware Oaks in her stakes debut and a second in the Cathryn Sophia Stakes at Parx before stepping up to Grade 1 company in the Cotillion Stakes. She was named Pennsylvania-bred champion 3-year-old female.

Exiting the Cotillion after a sixth-place finish, a little over eight lengths behind the top-class Clairiere, the daughter of Bandbox was given time off.

“After the Cotillion we gave her 60-90 days before we brought her back into training,” said Schwartz. “We’ll do the same this year and look to bring her back for a 5-year-old campaign.”

Leader of the Band made her first start at 4 in allowance company at Parx, finishing third in February before displaying her immense talent with a 10 1/4-length romp in March. In her first stakes start of the year, she finished fourth in Monmouth’s Serena’s Song Stakes in May after a slow start.

“We had some challenges with her breaking from the gate,” noted Schwartz. “She always broke a step slow. She had tendencies when put in the gate to sit back on the gate doors. And kind of lean back.

“John tried using a wedge at Monmouth – as soon as she walked into the gate they would try to slide a wedge in to help push her closer to the front of the gate. That was somewhat difficult because they had to back her in and out a couple of times to allow enough room to push the wedge in. It worked well in the Lady’s Secret – she got off to an OK start.”

The filly got the win in the Lady’s Secret over a sloppy track, battling down the stretch to hit the wire a head in front of favorite Beth’s Dream in the mile and a sixteenth stakes on June 11. That race set her up for the Grade 3 Molly Pitcher on Haskell Day. While she didn’t have the best of starts, she ran a solid race to finish second to Search Results as the second-longest shot in the field of seven.

“The Monmouth assistant starter suggested they try to back her into the gate with the wedge already in place,” continued Schwartz. Servis’ team and the Monmouth crew schooled her for weeks leading up to the race in Saratoga. “That’s how the starters handled her [in New York] and she broke sharp,” noted the owner.

Unfortunately in her next outing, the Plum Pretty Stakes on Pennsylvania Derby Day, Sept. 24, she once again broke a step slow. And her outside post position exacerbated the situation as she gave away valuable ground to her speedy stablemate Love in the Air. Leader of the Band did her best to catch the free-wheeling frontrunner, got within a half length at the top of the stretch, but the distance she lost caught up to her as she finished two lengths back. The second-place finish for the ultra-consistent filly increased her record to 16-6-5-3 for earnings of $590,940.

Schwartz actually came out of the race a winner as he co-owns Love in the Air with Dr. Lou Bucky of Main Line Racing. The partners have had considerable success over the years, competing the likes of stakes-winning and Grade 1-placed Joint Return, whom Schwartz considers his best runner, although he notes he’s “emotionally tied with Leader of the Band, given that we bred her, so I’d say she’s our favorite so far.”

Schwartz enjoys studying pedigrees and still has two of his first mares in production, the other being 19-year-old Dune Drive Avalon (by Holy Bull), purchased as a yearling in the summer of 2004 for $160,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky sale. She is also a stakes producer, her best the Jump Start filly Miss Avalon, who earned $383,364. He has regularly supported regional stallions.

“We have a relationship with Northview, and we go through their roster of stallions to see who is the right fit at the right time,” he explains.

Schwartz has since expanded his operation to also have mares in Kentucky. “We’ve stepped up the broodmare band a bit and that’s a different part of the business,” he added. His Pennsylvania-based mares are kept at Shirley Lojeski’s farm. “Most of John’s clients use Shirley’s farm and she does a real nice job.”

Catsuit’s long broodmare career began in 2006 when she was bred to Johannesburg. The resulting colt, named Chat de La Burg, sold as a yearling for $130,000 and was a winner in Europe. Her other offspring have raced for their breeder, and her second foal proves how good things can happen, even if best laid plans go awry.

Catsuit had been at a different farm early in her career. After slipping her second foal in 2008, she was booked to

Not For Love. Schwartz picks up the story: “A year later, after sending her to what I thought was Not For Love, she had a colt. We got the DNA paperwork for the Jockey Club and the DNA came back with a note from the Jockey Club stating that the information wasn’t correct. It was not a Not For Love—Catsuit baby.

“So I reached out to the farm and the owner said, ‘Coincidentally, I just heard from another one of my owners that their DNA test failed also.’

Schwartz had a colt by Spanish Steps (who stood in Florida at the time). “We decided to name him Ill Conceived and he turned out to be a helluva runner for us that gave us a lot of fun.”

Ill Conceived was Catsuit’s first stakes performer, hitting the board in three stakes and starting in a graded stakes, on his way to earning $160,332.

Authoritative, her daughter by Pollard’s Vision, went on to win five races, place in both stakes she was entered (the New Start at Penn National and Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial at Parx) and earned $208,183.

Catsuit’s most recent foal, 3-year-old Burano (by Uncle Lino), was second in last November’s Shamrock Rose Stakes at Penn National and has been on the board in five of her seven starts.

Being a student of pedigrees, Schwartz has returned his mare to the Tapit well. He chose Tapit’s son Bandbox and got one of his best runners. “I felt that the Tapit line really matched well with Catsuit. She was speed, one-turn and I’m always looking for a little more stamina. And Mid-Atlantic wise I couldn’t go to Tapit so I went to sons of Tapit.” Catsuit is now in foal to Divining Rod. “This may be her last foal,” said Schwartz. “She’s earned a decent retirement. We made sure we did all the right checks before we sent her down to get bred.”

The SMD Ltd. stable name is a combination of letters from Schwartz’s name and two former partners, who were also partners in a Philadelphia-area construction business. The black and white striped silks are also connected to his former business, as part of the company’s logo. The partners backed out about 15 years ago but Schwartz kept the name. In addition to his partnership with Bucky and Main Line Racing, he is also in a racing partnership with his son Drew called Avalon Racing. “We’re very excited. We have a Justify yearling filly out of a Grade 1 winner and we’ve got two broodmares, both very well bred, one just foaled a filly by Vino Rosso. One thing I’ve learned in the business you’ve got to be quite diverse. There’s no one formula that works.”

And it helps to have a bit of luck. “Catsuit was a filly I had my eyes on. And I was fortunate that Harvey Clark [whose Rabbit’s Foot Stable owned her] put her in for a tag in 2004.

“I really liked her page, her family. And thought she’d be a good fit for the level of breeding I was thinking about, which was to be able to compete in the Mid-Atlantic.” ■

PA-BRED STAKES RECAPS

IMPLY S, PRX, \$200,000, 2YOF, 6 1/2F, 9-24.

WON - MIDNIGHT PARADE

f, 2, Hoppertunity - Bank'n On Gold, by Banker's Gold.
O-Hillman Racing LLC, B-Elizabeth R. Houghton (PA), T-T. Bernard Houghton, J-David Cora, $112,800.

2nd - Pachelbel

f, 2, Hoppertunity - Brilliant Sunshine, by Smarty Jones.
O-Newell Thoroughbreds, B-Newell Thoroughbreds Ltd.
(PA), $37,600.

3rd - Flor de Sombra

f, 2, Social Inclusion - On a Star, by Talent Search.
O-Joseph M. Imbesi, B-Joseph Imbesi (PA), $18,800.

Midnight Parade, a 2-year-old filly from the first crop of Hoppertunity, won her debut spectacularly by seven lengths going five furlongs on Sept. 1 at Penn National. Trainer Bernie Houghton chose the $200,000 Imply Stakes on Pennsylvania Derby Day on Sept. 24 at Parx for her next start – a step up in distance, to six and a half furlongs, and a leap up in competition. Neither was an issue.

Flor de Sombra, winner of the Miss Blue Tye Dye Stakes at Parx on Aug. 22, the first leg of the new PA Stallion Series Races, was the favorite for the second leg. Midnight Parade raced just off the pacesetting favorite during the early running, was angled out by David Cora as they charged down the stretch, caught Flor de Sombra and drew away to win by two lengths over a rallying Pachelbel, also by Hoppertunity. Flor de Sombra held on for third in the eight-filly field.

Midnight Parade runs in the name of Hillman Racing for Joe and June Hillman, who own her in partnership with breeder Betsy Houghton. "Through the years, Joe has come to me and we'll own a horse together," said Betsy. "This is the third horse we've had and we've done well." In two starts, Midnight Parade has earned $133,938.

Houghton bred Midnight Parade out of Bank'n On Gold, a Banker's Gold mare with a long and profitable history for the Houghton family's Sylmar Farm in Christiana. Also bred by Houghton, Bank'n On Gold was out of a claiming mare named Bank'n On Dixie, who was given to the breeder at the end her modest racing career. The Water Bank mare produced four foals for Houghton, the final being Bank'n On Gold.

Bank'n On Gold made her debut for her breeder as a 3-year-old in February 2008, finished sixth of eight, and was promptly claimed by Scott Lake for $25,000 for Richard Malouf. Over the course of five years, she made 48 starts, 42 in Pennsylvania, earned $467,204 and rewarded Sylmar Farm with lots of breeder bonuses (nearly $125,000 total). Of her 13 wins, 12 came in her home state. Late in her 2008 season (in which she made 14 starts), she won four straight allowances. For the year she won seven times.

She regularly ran for a tag and in May 2011 at Parx, John Loyle spent $25,000 to become her new owner.

Loyle retired Bank'n On Gold as a broodmare and bred her to Into Mischief her first three years – the resulting foals, all Pennsylvania-breds, earned nearly $575,000 and include multiple stakes-placed Jw'strickymischief. Betsy was contacted when the mare didn't get in foal one year and didn't catch early the next. "He [Loyle] was getting older and didn't want to bother with her and I was asked if I wanted her. She was in Kentucky and I had to pay to ship her back. We bred her to Jump Start and she got right in foal."

That colt, named Swift City, showed promise but was injured in a training accident. After missing to the cover of Kobe's Back for 2019, Bank'n On Gold foaled Midnight Parade. She had a colt by Golden Lad in late April this year but after a little trouble during delivery she wasn't bred back. "But she should be fine to breed back next year," said Houghton. ■

g, 2, Social Inclusion - Mia, by Put It Back. O-Joseph M. Imbesi, B-Mr. and Mrs. Joe Imbesi (PA), T-Guadalupe Preciado, J-Mychel J. Sanchez, $112,800.

c, 2, Il Villano - Springingintherein, by Spring At Last. O-Chuck Russo, B-Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Robert Russo (PA), $18,800.

Joe Imbesi's year keeps getting better and better. The longtime breeder got his fourth stakes win of the year with a homebred – two of them coming on the Pennsylvania Derby Day card on Sept. 24. First out was Gordian Knot, a two-length winner in the $200,000 Prince Lucky Stakes, the second PA Stallion Series Race for 2-year-olds.

Gordian Knot was made the 2-5 favorite in the eight-horse field off a dominating debut score on the Pennsylvania Day at the Races card on Aug. 22 at Parx, in which he drew off to win by seven lengths. He completed the five and a half furlongs that day in a time .10 seconds faster than the winner in the Whistle Pig Stakes eight races later.

In the Prince Lucky, Gordian Knot was settled off the pace in midpack for the first quarter-mile, about three lengths behind early pacesetting longshot Respirator. By the half-mile mark he had the lead and cruised home from there under Mychel Sanchez. Keithsendshelloooo settled for second, just as he did in the Whistle Pig.

Trained by Guadalupe Preciado, who also has Imbesi's 2022 stakes winners Flor de Sombra and Buy Land and See, Gordian Knot is the second foal for the winning Put It Back mare Mia. Imbesi has bred Mia exclusively to Social Inclusion, a son of Pioneerof the Nile who stood for the partnership of Imbesi and Glenn Brok at Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville for three seasons, starting in 2019, after standing his first two seasons in Florida.

When Brok closed Diamond B in 2021, he sold his interest in the stallion to Imbesi. Social Inclusion was moved to Imbesi's Briardale Farm in Florida.

Social Inclusion is the sire of three juvenile stakes winners in his first Pennsylvania-sired crop, the others being fillies Flor de Sombra, winner of the Miss Blue Tye Dye Stakes, and Titoschangedmyluck, who captured the Keswick Stakes at Colonial Downs.

In two starts, Gordian Knot has earned $148,800. ■

O-LC Racing LLC, B-LC Racing LLC (PA), $19,000.

The $200,000 Plum Pretty Stakes on the PA Derby card on Sept. 24 attracted a nice field of seven fillies and mares. In the bettors eyes, two were standouts.

Leader of the Band was making her first start in Pennsylvania since March. In between she won stakes at Monmouth and Saratoga and was graded stakes-placed. She went off the public choice in the Plum Pretty at 3-10.

Love in the Air, a member of the same 2018 foal crop, came in having finished third or better in all five of her 2022 starts, won the Mrs. Penny Stakes on the PA Day at the Races card in August, and was also graded stakes-placed. She was the second-choice at 2.80.

All the others in the field were double-digits.

The bettors were close to being right.

Love in the Air recorded her second stakes win in a row by shooting to the front, dictating a slow pace and having plenty left to keep Leader of the Band at bay and score by two lengths. It was four and a quarter lengths back to Ninetypercentbrynn, who was once again third after she finished third to the winner in the Mrs. Penny.

Owned by Main Line Racing Stable, Love in the Air recorded her fourth win in a dozen starts, three coming since her sale to her current owner for $130,000 at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July Selected Horses of Racing Age. Now an earner of $305,331, the Constitution filly is trained by John Servis, also the trainer of Leader of the Band.

She is the first foal Blackstone Farm bred out of speedy multiple stakes winner Lovely Syn, a daughter of Freud purchased for $50,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale with the filly in utero. Love in the Air sold as a yearling for $280,000 at the Keeneland September sale and made her first starts for owner John Oxley and trainer Mark Casse.

Lovely Syn has a 2020 colt by Uncle Mo named Brentford who broke his maiden for Blackstone Farm on Sept. 22 at Penn National. Not bred for 2021, Lovely Syn produced a Bolt d'Oro filly this past February and was bred back to Justify. ■

Two of Buy Land and See's six starts this year have been in stakes races. He is now 2-for-2 after capturing the lucrative Alphabet Soup Handicap on the Pennsylvania Derby Day card on Sept. 24.

Trainer Guadalupe Preciado regularly sends the Parx-based Buy Land and See out of state to race and he kicked off his 2022 campaign with three second-place finishes in allowance company at Aqueduct and Belmont Park. His first appearance this year in Pennsylvania was in June at Penn National where he dominated in the With Anticipation Stakes.

The 5-year-old gray bred and owned by Joe Imbesi was back in New York for a one-mile turf allowance at Saratoga in August and turned in his worst performance in nearly a year when sixth of 10, beaten five and a quarter lengths. The winner that day was Emaraaty (GB), who came back next out to capture Saratoga's Bernard Baruch Handicap-G3.

That loss did nothing to diminish Buy Land and See's appeal as he went off the 9-10 favorite in the field of nine for the $200,000 Alphabet Soup that included stakes winners Midnight Hauler, You Must Chill and Wait for It.

He repeated his dominating With Anticipation performance. Taking charge after a half mile in the one and a sixteenth-mile Alphabet Soup on the turf, he had no challengers as he led by daylight heading for home and crossed the wire a three and a quarter-length winner in a final time of 1:42.27.

A son of Cairo Prince, Buy Land and See has made 13 starts on the turf and has finished in the top three nine times, with all five of his career wins coming over the surface. His most recent victory pushed his career earnings to $391,470, with $221,750 coming this year. He was a stakes winner at 2 when taking Belmont Park's Awad Stakes at a mile on the turf.

Out of Maria's Mon's unraced daughter Twiggles, Buy Land and See is a half-brother to Imbesi homebred Sweet Bye and Bye (by Sky Mesa), who earned $508,560 with eight wins, four seconds and four thirds from 21 starts, eight in stakes, was multiple graded stakes-placed, and counted wins in the 2018 Crowd Pleaser Stakes against males, and last year's Sand Springs at Gulfstream Park.

Five of Twiggles' foals to race are earners of six figures – combined they have amassed nearly $1.35 million. Her last reported foal is Damanda, a 3-year-old Pennsylvania-bred daughter of Liam's Map who is unplaced in her only start after a rough trip at Pimlico. ■

TAX FREE SHOPPING DISTAFF, DEL, $100,000, 3YO/UP, F/M, 6F, 9-30.

WON - PHILADELPHIA BELLE

m, 5, Jump Start - Cam's Cousin, by Silver Deputy.

O-Madison Avenue Racing Stable Inc. and Jagger Inc. (PA), T-Jamie Ness, J-Jaime Rodriguez, $60,000.

Philadelphia Belle had only tried stakes company once before in her 17 starts over three seasons, finishing far back for owner/breeder Nick Polydoros in the Unique Bella Stakes at Parx in April. Two races later she was risked for $35,000 tag in an optional claimer at Parx, and the 5-year-old daughter of Jump Start was taken by Jamie Ness for the partnership of Madison Avenue Racing Stable Inc. and Jagger Inc. on July 20.

A solid allowance-level competitor throughout her career, Philadelphia Belle recorded five wins at Parx for Polydoros, including the race from which she was claimed.

In her first race for her new connections, she won for the first time outside of Pennsylvania when taking a six-furlong optional claimer at Delaware Park in August. With a claiming price of $62,500 there were no takers, but most likely regrets as she set every fraction for the win.

Once before the dark bay had started at Delaware Park, where she faced stakes-level competition in a stiff allowance test in June and wound up off the board.

Philadelphia Belle is Delaware certified, thus was eligible for Delaware Park's Tax Free Shopping Distaff Stakes on Sept. 30. Ness took advantage of the conditions and entered her in the $100,000 stakes, and saw the race scratch down to four starters. The overwhelming favorite was Intrepid Daydream at 2-5; Philadelphia Belle was the second choice at 4-1. When the favorite hopped at the start, it opened the door for Philadelphia Belle to gun for the lead.

Battling Intrepid Daydream through the first quarter, Philadelphia Belle shook clear and entered the stretch clearly in charge. Pennsylvania-bred Gunfyr Gal took aim but was never able to pass and finished a half-length back in second. The final time was 1:10.55.

Philadelphia Belle, now a winner of seven races and $312,825, is out of the unraced Windfields Farm-bred Cam's Cousin (by Silver Deputy). She is the second of two foals Cam's Cousin produced for Polydoros, the other a placed daughter of Lookin At Lucky named My Cousin Lucky. ■

Won - NICE ACE

g, 4, Noble Mission (GB) - A Lady With an Ace, by First Samurai. ($30,000 2019 FTKJUL)
O-Robert D. Bone, B-Blackstone Farm LLC (PA), T-Tim Girten, J-Pablo Morales, $45,000.

One of the best performers at Presque Isle Downs during the 2022 season, Nice Ace recorded his most recent victory at the Erie track with a professional score in the $75,000 Dobbins Landing Stakes on Sept. 19.

Robert D. Bone's 4-year-old gelding went off the 1.30-1 favorite in the field of nine going six and a half furlongs. He broke well and was eager early as Pablo Morales kept him a couple of lengths off an opening :21.90 quarter and :44.05 half. Making his move around the far turn, he grabbed the lead as they straightened out in the stretch with six furlongs in 1:08.61 and came home a length and a half winner. His final time was a solid 1:15.09.

In seven starts at Presque Isle this year, Nice Ace has four wins, two seconds and a third. He captured the Hard Spun Stakes in July and in his race prior to the Dobbins Landing, he finished third in the Peach Street Stakes, two and a half lengths behind the winner Carpenters Call, who sent a new track record of 1:38.97 for the mile and 70 yards.

Trainer Tim Girten has sent the Noble Mission (GB) gelding out 20 times, 15 at Presque Isle. He's been first or second 14 times and never been worse than third. He has now banked $329,541.

Nice Ace was bred by Blackstone Farm and is the only winner from five foals of racing age for his dam A Lady With an Ace (by First Samurai). He sold for $30,000 at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July Yearling Sale to South Point Sales Agency, and debuted on Aug. 20, 2020, for his current connections.

A Lady With an Ace has a 2-year-old colt by Munnings named Cold Shot based at Parx who has yet to start. She didn't have a foal in 2021 but delivered a filly by Global Campaign this past February. ■
