LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Fantastic news for 2024! You'll see 5 new stallions standing in Pa listed in this edition. You can find more information in our new 2024 Stallion & Domicile Farm Directory on our website, so take a look for this upcoming breeding season. All breeders will receive a copy in the mail by mid-December. Breed to a Pa stallion and receive double the breeder awards.

The PA-Sired PA-Bred Stallion Series is being expanded to include 3yos. You should have received a letter in the mail. If you were nominated for the 2023 2yo series, you're automatically eligible as a 3yo. If you did not nominate as a 2yo, the fee will be $100 if paid before April 30, 2024 for the 3yo race in 2024. For foals of 2022, the fee will include races for 2 and 3yos. Please refer to your letter as the earlier you nominate, the cheaper the fee. The last leg of this years' 2yo PA-Sired PA-Bred Stallion Series will be run at PARX on December 27 at 1 mile and 70 yards with purses of $200,000. Nominations for the December races for 2yos, if not already nominated, are $5,000 through the PHBA office. You can go to pabred.com under 'Horses Nominated' to see if your horse is on the list. If not, go to 'Forms' and print the nomination form or just give us a call. Don't miss out on the fun. Please remember that if your horse is already nominated, you still MUST CALL the PARX racing office to enter your nomination.

By now you should be familiar with the online registration system on our website. We will be transitioning to that in 2024. If you are still using a paper registration, please make sure you forward a signed copy of the Code of Ethics, which is attached to the registration form.

Broodmare domicile forms are online for the 2024 foaling season. These domicile reports are MANDATORY and if not completed, your foal could be denied PA-Bred registration. As usual, please contact our office with any questions you may have. Have a great finish in 2023 and a Happy and Healthy 2024! Pennsylvania is the only place to Breed & Race!

PA-BREDS PROVE "IT PAYS TO BE A PA-BRED"

BY NIKKI SHERMAN

RETIRE
RACEHORSE
PROJECT

Even After Racing AT THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

Over the last decade, the Thoroughbred horse racing industry has actively worked to provide new careers for its equine athletes when they are ready for retirement from racing.

The Retired Racehorse Project's Thoroughbred Makeover has become one of the most prestigious competitions in the world, and Pennsylvania-Breds have represented the Keystone State with vigor.

Since 2018, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA) has sponsored a Special Award for the Top PA-Bred in the competition, with the prize doubling from $2,500 at its onset to the current $5,000. Past winners of the Highest-Scoring PA-Bred Award are B K's Angus (2018), Fairly Obvious (2019), Aiken Prep (2021), Sapphire Surprise (2022), as well as three horses that tied for the win representing the 2020 class: Barwin, Monba Number Five and Poised for Action. As many as 35 PA-Breds have competed in one year, when that number was second only to Kentucky-Breds in 2017.

This year, 13 PA-Breds went up against 320 individual competitors and proved their mettle by competing in nine of the 10 divisions. Two were even crowned Champion, including the 2023 Top PA-Bred, Phlox.

Three-year-old Phlox (Dolphus) was a homebred runner for Dede McGehee, but while the maiden showed little talent on the track, she is now a star for Buck Schott in Polo. Phlox was the runaway Preliminary Leader going into the Finale and the duo continued their dominance during the Polo division showcase, winning by an easy 8 points. For comparison, the point differential between second and fourth was 4 points. Phlox competed in her very first chukker during the Finale.

AND KAITLYN AITKEN

"She's just so willing to be here and do what we want," Schott told the Retired Racehorse Project. "She's just so peaceful and happy in life and I'm happy for her. I'm going to keep playing this filly; she's going to go into my string."

Also victorious were Balboa's Smile (Buffum) and Kaitlyn Aitken, who pulled off an upset over 17 others in Barrel Racing. The 4-year-old filly went into the Finale in fourth place but blew her competition away with a run of 19.452 seconds to capture the Barrel Racing division. Balboa's Smile was bred by Silvio Luis Martin and won $33,671 with one career win in 18 starts. Aitken and Balboa's Smile also contested Competitive Trail where they finished 28th of 51 entrants.

"She's been so good all season," said Aitken. "She started barrel racing in June and won her first futurity. She worked quite hard all season, kept on placing and ended with a futurity year-end award. We are so lucky to be here and I can't even believe this is real!"

One more PA-Bred competed in the Finale, which allowed the top five preliminary finishers a chance to showcase their talents. Comfortably Cool (Winchill) and amateur Mike Leverett placed fifth overall of those 51 entries from the Competitive Trail division and they also competed in Ranch Work. As a racehorse, Comfortably Cool won two races from 22 starts for earnings of $45,197. The 7-year-old gelding was bred by Pewter Stable.

PHLOX AND BUCK SHOTT

Pewter Stable was also represented by 9-year-old Prized Merry (Pure Prize), whose dam is multiple stakes winner Merry Princess. Prized Merry earned $83,917 with five wins in 16 starts and was owned during his entire racing career by Pewter Stable. In the Thoroughbred Makeover while matched with rider Hannah Schofield, he finished 10th of 82 in Dressage and also competed in Eventing.

The best racehorse of the group was stakes winner Dreams Untold (Smarty Jones), whose last race was less than seven months before the Makeover. Ridden by Erica Eggert Rossner, Dreams Untold competed in both Eventing and Show Hunter. He was bred and raced by Patricia Chapman's Someday Farm, winning six of 22 starts, including the 2021 Blitzen Stakes, and earning $281,600.

Owin I Am (Jump Start), bred by Lydee Shea, won 10 of 40 career races, garnering $220,548. In the Thoroughbred Makeover, the 8-year-old gelding emphasized that age and a long racing career should not be a factor in a new discipline. Ridden by Kelly Lasher, the duo finished seventh of 72 entrants in Show Hunter and 25th of 69 in Show Jumping.

Blackstone Farm LLC-bred Secret Cargo (Gun Runner) sold for $300,000 at the 2020 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Luckily for junior rider Macie Lyons, she was able to pick up Secret Cargo when he finished unplaced in two career starts. They competed in Show Hunter, placing 25th.

RETIRE

Kimberly Wojcik was named Top Amateur in Freestyle aboard Lucky Hero (Partner's Hero) with a seventh-place finish. The gelding was a homebred for Barbara Geraghty and earned $100,752 in 33 starts, with three wins, including a 3 ½-length score in a 2020 allowance at Parx Racing. Wojcik and Lucky Hero also competed in Dressage.

Similarly, Talented T J (Talent Search) and Midtown (Orientate) were also owned as racehorses by their respective breeders. IBB Thoroughbred's Talented T J had one win at Penn National before finding his way to Alexandra Gilbertson, who rode the 4-year-old gelding in Show Hunter, finishing a solid 12th. Midtown was bred by Tom Coulter's Arrowwood Farm and earned $41,478 with one victory during his 14-start racing career. Midtown was part of the Team competition for Silver Dollar Stables and contested both Freestyle and Show Jumping.

Six-year-old Jozani R V F (Artie Schiller) was also a member of the Team Competition, and showed in Freestyle (16th) and Dressage. The one-time winner was bred by Wendi Starritt-Graham and his female family traces directly back to multiple graded stakes winner Biogio's Rose.

Danzafied (Danza) was bred by Fox Tale Stud and won two of 26 starts for career earnings of $86,024. The 6-year-old paired with Coti Hausman Yandle to compete in Eventing (14th of 66) and Barrel Racing (15th).

The final PA-Bred competitor of 2023 was The Little Sprout (Well Spelled). The 4-year-old gray gelding earned $28,941 with two wins and was bred by Godstone Farm LLC. Junior rider Josie Frickman rode him in Dressage (finishing 33 of 82).

The Thoroughbred Makeover is both fun and inspiring for competitors and attendees alike. But what makes it even more lucrative now is that there are monetary bonuses and prizes. The PHBA's $5,000 Award ranks third of all prizes offered at the Makeover, behind only the $10,000 overall Champion and one other state. This is just one more reason why it pays to breed in Pennsylvania. ■

"She's been so good all season," said Aitken. "She started barrel racing in June and won her first futurity. She worked quite hard all season, kept on placing and ended with a futurity year-end award. We are so lucky to be here and I can't even believe this is real!"

WHY IT PAYS TO BREED & RACE IN PENNSYLVANIA

BY NIKKI SHERMAN

It has been said many times that Pennsylvania is THE place to breed and race Thoroughbreds. The story of Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC (UTCB Stud), aptly named after their star stallion, proves without a doubt that it's true. The truly remarkable story of the chestnut stallion is quite the whirlwind tale.

The all-time season record-holder in Pennsylvania for combined Breeder and Stallion Awards, which was set just last year by Northview Stallion Station at $502,000, has already been surpassed. As of Sept. 30, and with a solid three months to go, UTCB Stud has overtaken that mark with over $548,000 and climbing. From that figure, Uptowncharlybrown himself has accounted for $152,044 in Stallion Awards.

The story of Uptowncharlybrown began at the 2009 April OBS 2YOs in Training auction when Bob Hutt, the current President of the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (PTHA) and CEO of Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC, submitted the winning bid of $57,000 for Uptowncharlybrown. Before he ever made his first start, the story of Uptowncharlybrown had already begun. While training as a 2-year-old at Monmouth Park, Hutt's trainer and longtime best friend Alan Seewald said the handsome chestnut colt was the "best horse he had ever trained".

Seewald was proven correct in the colt's debut Dec. 26, 2009, at Tampa Bay Downs when Uptowncharlybrown broke his maiden by a widening 9 lengths. He followed that up with a resounding 6-length victory in Tampa Bay Downs' early Triple Crown prep, the $75,000 Pasco Stakes.

After only two starts Uptowncharlybrown Stud received an offer for their colt of $2,500,000. At that time, he was prominently mentioned in the prestigious 2010 Derby Dozen as a hot contender for the Kentucky Derby. However, Hutt was resolute in his trust of Seewald's observation of Uptowncharlybrown and declined the offer.

Hutt's world was turned completely upside down when Seewald unexpectedly passed away in his sleep on April 12, 2010. With a broken heart, Hutt sent Uptowncharlybrown to a new trainer. The colt bravely contested the Grade 1 $1,000,000 Belmont Stakes in which he had an eventful trip. His saddle slipped approaching the 7-furlong pole yet he still managed to finish fifth, beaten by only 31/2 lengths. What no one noticed was that after the finish line Uptowncharlybrown proceeded to gallop out some 20 lengths past the field. The bad luck continued when Uptowncharlybrown bowed a tendon while preparing for the $1-million Haskell Invitational and, after a year-long layoff, was unable to return at the same high level.

Hutt had been reading about the Pennsylvania breeding program, so when he retired Uptowncharlybrown in 2013, he knew exactly where the son of Limehouse should stand. Uptowncharlybrown was joined by a small band of seven "unproven" broodmares: all maidens, three of which had never even raced, while the other four were all low-level claimers. Hutt knew from a business perspective that this was an absolute recipe for disaster, but he was unmoved in his path to see success with Uptowncharlybrown. No successful commercial stallion had ever started with the deck so stacked against him, but Hutt did not care as his only goal was to breed a few claiming horses for his partnership to keep the memory of his best friend Alan Seewald alive. The first foal born was a flashy bay colt out of the Dixie Union mare Glorious Union. Even before birth, the foal's name was predetermined: Alan's Legacy. He would go on to win twice and earn $118,827.

Glenn Brok of Diamond B Farm, where Uptowncharlybrown

and his "Angels" (the original broodmare partnership was named "Charly's Angels") lived, initially questioned the stallion's potential. But as more foals arrived, Brok marveled at the magnificent youngsters. "Chuck," as Brok affectionately called him, was a "freak" as a stallion. What he couldn't prove on the racetrack, he was now stamping through his progeny, who hit the ground running and never looked back.

From those humble beginnings Uptowncharlybrown started throwing stakes winner after stakes winner: Midtowncharlybrown ($581,248), followed by his full brother Midnightcharly ($452,258), graded stakes winner Dixie Serenade ($348,765) and Wait for It ($726,593). Midtowncharlybrown and Wait for It were both crowned PA-Bred Champions in multiple years.

From his first three crops, Uptowncharlybrown sired an additional six runners who earned over six figures, including stakes-placed Charlybrown's Rose (2nd $100,000 Power by Far Stakes) and Lula's Roadrunner (2nd $100,000 Mrs. Henry D. Paxson Memorial Stakes).

Longevity has also been an important part of his legacy, as several of his offspring raced through ages 7 and 8. Rolls Royce Joyce ($235,928) and Lula's Roadrunner ($260,826) both raced in 2023 at the age of 6, with the former still in training.

While racing mainly Uptowncharlybrown progeny under the careful management of trainer Ed Coletti Jr., Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC has finished in the top 1 percent of the Equibase Owner Standings since 2017. UTCB Stud has grown its broodmare band to 15 and each group of foals looks better than the previous one.

Pennsylvania breeders also started to take notice despite Uptowncharlybrown's initial small foal crops. He has now sired several hundred foals, including runners not bred by UTCB Stud, among the latter (from his 2020 crop) stakes-placed Legend of Charlie (2nd $100,000 Mark McDermott Stakes) and Upstate and Back (3rd $100,000 Whistle Pig Stakes). Also in the crop are UTCB Stud's own stakes-performer Keithsendshelloooo and the UTCB-bred Marion Grace.

And nationally, Kentucky breeders advised Hutt that Uptowncharlybrown's AEI/CI ratio was among the best in the country for moving broodmares up as compared to if the same broodmares went to other stallions.

Buyers at auctions have also expressed interest in offspring of Uptowncharlybrown. UTCB Stud-bred Oxana was purchased for $65,000 as a 2-year-old and she went on to earn $336,010 during a career that included a victory in the $100,000 Roamin Rachel Stakes and multiple stakes placings. Graded stakes winner Dixie Serenade was offered at the prestigious Keeneland November Breeding Sale and while she ended up not meeting her reserve, buyers actively bid on her up to $425,000.

From humble beginnings it is nothing less than a miracle that Uptowncharlybrown is among the top-5 leaders by earnings in Pennsylvania in 2023 despite having 37 percent fewer runners than the leader. In addition, Uptowncharlybrown's progeny have cumulatively earned over $2 million.

It is projected that UTCB Stud will finish the year with approximately $750,000 in Breeder and Stallion Awards.

Do you believe in miracles? The success of Uptowncharlybrown is living proof to anyone thinking of breeding and racing: That if you can dream it, you can make all your dreams come true in Pennsylvania. ■

NOTE: Uptowncharlybrown (Limehouse—La Iluminada, by Langfuhr) will stand the 2024 season at Blackstone Farm in Pine Grove, Pa., for $2,500 LFSN, with special consideration to PA-foaling mares.

BILL DENVER/EQUIPHOTO

Carmelina added a second stakes win to her 2-year-old resume in dominating fashion, winning the Shamrock Rose Stakes at Penn National by a widening 8 3/4 lengths over a strung out field of 10 runners.

Cash is King LLC and LC Racing LLC's daughter of Maximus Mischief, sent off the second choice and the co-high weight with 124 pounds, broke quickly and set fractions of :22.08, :45.15 and :57.81. She was hand ridden to the wire to stop the clock in 1:10.09 for 6 furlongs.

The first PA-Bred 2-year-old stakes winner of 2023 when she won Colonial Downs' Keswick Stakes on Aug. 5, Carmelina was a winner in her debut, a maiden special weight at Parx on June 18.

The Parx win encouraged her connections to ship to Saratoga, where she finished fifth of seven in the Grade 3 Schuylerville Stakes in July. The filly has never run at the same track twice in her five starts while earning $161,800.

Cash is King LLC and LC Racing LLC campaigned the filly's sire, a graded stakes winner at 2, and purchased the filly as a weanling out of the Gracie Bloodstock consignment at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December mixed sale for $44,000. Lillith E. Boucher bred Carmelina out of Complete St. (by St Averil), a multiple stakes-winning mare Boucher trained through seven seasons and 42 starts. Complete St. won or placed 16 times and earned $283,030.

Carmelina is the first live foal out of Complete St. The mare's second foal is a PA-Bred yearling colt by Golden Lad. ■

BARBARA WEIDLE/EQUIPHOTO

New barn. New track. Long odds. Capo's chances of coming home first in the Pennsylvania Nursery Stakes on the afternoon of Tuesday, Nov. 28 at Parx seemed slim. Then he fought down the stretch, kept his nose in front, and took home the $69,000 winner's share of the purse for owner/trainer Jacinto Solis at odds of 23-1.

The son of Peace and Justice recorded his second win in three starts, and his first for Solis, who claimed him for $20,000 off a win at Churchill Downs in his previous race. That maiden-breaking score came for breeder/owner A1A Racing and co-owner Down The Stretch Racing Stables on Nov. 2, as Capo led from the start and darted home 3 1/2 lengths in front of nine rivals going 6 furlongs.

Capo began his serious training in Florida in the spring, and by June was working steadily at Hawthorne in Illinois. From the barn of trainer Larry Rivelli, he made his debut at Presque Isle Downs, seven hours east of Hawthorne, and faced a heavy hitter when fourth behind future stakes winner Gamboling Ghost in a maiden special weight on Aug. 9.

After the claim, Solis shipped Capo to Parx and sent the gelding out for his only work over the track on Nov. 21, going 5 furlongs and clocking 13th of 13. The Parx win, which rewarded his backers $48, pushed his earnings to $94,020.

Capo is the fourth foal out of the Majestic Warrior mare Seven Dreams, a 10-time winner and earner of $224,399. Bred exclusively to Peace and Justice, the mare is also the dam of Summary Judgment, an earner of $167,500 with two wins this year, the latest Nov. 13; and current 3-year-old Bronx Tale, a winner in September.

Seven Dreams produced a filly this past March and returned once again to Peace and Justice. ■

RICHARD W. SMALL S

LRL, $100,000, 3YO/UP, 1 1/8M, 11-25.

WON - KING KUMBALAY

g, 5, Shanghai Bobby–Lovely Stay, by Flower Alley.
($35,000 2019 KEESEP) O-Kingsport Farm,
B-Jonathan Sheppard (PA), T-Robert E. Reid Jr.,
J-Abner Adorno, $60,000.

King Kumbalay has stepped up his game over the past three months, getting his first stakes win in the Alphabet Soup Handicap in September, finishing second against open stakes company in the M.P. Ballezzi Appreciation Mile Stakes in October, and turning in a visually impressive effort to take Laurel Park's Richard W. Small Stakes on Nov. 25 under Abner Aldorno, who has ridden him in his last three starts.

Facing a field of stakes veterans, Kingsport Farm's imposing son of Shanghai Bobby was the 3-1 third-choice in the field of eight and raced mid-pack early. He easily moved into contention as the field headed into the far turn but got bottled up and had to wait for running room. Pushing his way through at the top of the stretch, he burst away from the field and held off millionaire Forewarned to win by 1 3/4 lengths while completing the 1 1/8 miles in 1:51.63.

The 5-year-old Butch Reid trainee increased his earnings to $372,430, nearly half earned this year. A consistent allowance runner during most of his 22-start career, he's hit the board in six of his nine starts this year, four in stakes company.

After the race, Reid noted, "The mile (of the M.P. Ballezzi) was a little bit too short for him. There was not a lot of pace in there, he tried to chase it the whole way and I think it ended up catching him. The mile and an eighth is more to his liking. He can gallop along for the first mile or so and then kick it in that last eighth. That's what he does best."

A $35,000 2019 Keeneland September Yearling Sales purchase by his current connections, King Kumbalay now has seven wins, six seconds and two thirds in his career. And Reid has nothing but praise. "I can't say enough about the job that Abner did. He took him back, settled him and he was inside the quarter pole and he still hadn't dropped his head. He got a little swallowed up, but this horse is tough and he pushed his way through. This horse has got a lot of class."

Bred by the late Hall of Fame trainer Jonathan Sheppard, King Kumbalay is one of two stakes winners out of the George Strawbridge Jr.-bred Flower Alley mare Lovely Stay. One of four daughters for multiple graded stakes winner Ratings and a half-sister to graded stakes winner Recording and stakes winner Smart Growth, Lovely Stay was a modest winner purchased by Sheppard as a broodmare prospect for $32,000 at the 2013 Keeneland January sale. The mare has also produced graded stakes-winning Daisy (by Blame), who in turn is the dam of Botanical (by Medaglia d'Oro), a two-time stakes winner this year. ■

ALSTON CUP S

CHA, $35,000, 3YO, 2 1/16M, HURDLES, 11-12.

WON - LIGHTNING RIDGE

g, 3, Peace and Justice - Fareena, by Point Given.

O-KMSN Stable, B-Jodie Pointer (PA), T-Keri Brion,

J-Graham Watters, $21,000.

Pennsylvania stallion Peace and Justice, who stands at Blackstone Farm in Pine Grove as the property of A1A Racing, was a fantastic miler who has sired speedy runners and precocious juveniles in his first four crops, including stakes winners Like a Saltshaker and Capo, the latter recent winner of the Pennsylvania Nursery Stakes.

A couple of weeks before Capo's win, the 3-year-old Peace and Justice gelding Lightning Ridge made people do a double-take when he recorded his second win at a distance of 2 miles (or more) over hurdles in the Alston Cup Stakes at the Charleston meet in South Carolina on Nov. 12. Over a course rated good, the bay gelding galloped alone on the lead the entire 2 1/16 miles distance and was under wraps at the wire, 21 lengths in front of his closest pursuer.

Racing for Diana and Kenneth Galbraith's KMSN Stable and trained by Keri Brion, Lightning Ridge fell just $500 short of taking the leading 3-year-old title (based on cumulative earnings) to Kyogo (Ire), who finished third in the Alston Cup, 27 1/2 lengths back.

Lightning Ridge won his hurdles debut at Shawan Downs on Sept. 30 at 2 miles by a dazzling 6 3/4 lengths, with the chart comment "jumped fluently and won handily." Next out, he led the early stages of the 2 1/8-mile Gladstone Stakes at Far Hills before tiring and being pulled up. His three jump starts yielded $33,000 of his career total $55,343.

Unraced at 2, Lightning Ridge broke his maiden on the flat at Penn National in May, scoring at a mile on the turf by a nose. The best he could muster in his six other flat races were fourth-place finishes in allowance company at Presque Isle and Colonial.

Lightning Ridge was bred by Jodie Pointer out of stakes winner Fareena, a Point Given mare campaigned by the Galbraiths. Fareena is the dam of six winners from as many starters, all foaled in Pennsylvania and raced in the name of KMSN Stable, including stakes-placed juvenile and $123,573-earner Lakota (by Jump Start); $102,005-earner Able Archer (Eskendereya), stakes-placed over hurdles and timber; $97,793-earner Inverness (Giant's Causeway), a multiple stakes-placed mare over hurdles; and $159,130-earner Commodore Barry (Jump Start). ■
